Saturday. From conversation with him we are led to believe that the number of years engaged in wheat country north of Ione will have perhaps the largest yield of wheat this season in its history. Of course Mr. Turner did not fail to mention that one of several things might yet happen to shorten the prospective yield but we are hoping that none of these come along. Ioue stands a mighty good chance of being buried in wheat this season, and then the price is showing up well, too. We are sincerely hoping that there will be no disappointing features enter in to mar the present bright outlook.

Richard McElligott, retired farmer of the lone country, was a visitor in Heppner for a couple of days the first of the week. Mr. McElligott now makes his home in Portland, where most of our good people go after they have made a stake, but he makes fre-quent visits to the old home county, and at the present time is rejoicing over the splendid crop outlook. He was one of the pioneer wheat raisers of the lower Gooseberry section, and well remembers many sensons when the crops were short and prices low. Mr. McElligott looks for good prices along with the heavy yield this sea-

Mrs. Frank Turner, who so ably served as president of the chautaugun association here this season, is entitled to the thanks of the community for her splendid work in putting the entertainment over successfully; at least this is the way we feel about it. Mrs. Turner, nevertheless, desires not to take full credit, and wishes us to state that she is very thankful to all the guarantors, as well as to others who so kindly and gener ously assisted in every way, and she feels it was owing to this splendid cooperation that the work was so well done,

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Craigo of Spo-kane were guests over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Evans at Lexington. Mr. Craigo is a brother-in-law of Mr. Evans and he and his wife are on an automobile trip that will take them through central Oregon into California, then to the Middle West and returning home by cay of Yellowstone National Park. They visited for a short time in Hepp-

C. E. Glasgow, a leading citizen of the Irrigon project, was called to Heppner this week on court business. Mr. Glasgow states that the first crop of hay on the project this season has sheen cut and it proved to be pretty short. He expects, however, that the future cuttings will be up to stand-ard and that the total yield will be equal to that of other seasons, and the hay will be of excellent quality.

Supt. Jas. M. Burgess and Mrs Supt. Jas. M. Burgess and Mrs. Burgess arrived home from Pendleton on Saturday. Mr. Burgess had his trip to the interior of the state in company with Rev. M. T. Wire of Pendleton, cut short on account of the bad storm that they ran into near Burns, and decided to turn back. He and Mrs. Burgess left Tuesday morning for Portland, and expect to spend a week or so there. spend a week or so there.

Lime Swick of Monument, who was here during the past week to receive a band of sheep for J. W. Beymer, returned on Thursday, being accompanied by Annabel Turner who will visit for a short time with Grant county relatives. Mr. Swick reports crop and range conditions in northern crop and range conditions in northern Grant as yery excellent this season and the yields of hay and grain will spend the summer vacation season be heavy.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Farrior and son Freddie went to Portland Sunday and are spending the week in the city. Besides taking in the Rose show, Dr. Farrior will attend the meeting of city on Monday and Tuesday, attend-the Masonic grand lodge and also ing to jury duty.
