

Local Happenings

C. A. Hales of Waitsburg, Wash., was receiving three cars of sheep here Friday. The sheep were yearling wethers that Mr. Hales was taking to his place at Pasco. Years ago Charley was operating a wheat ranch in this county, and he comes here once in a while in the course of his business as a buyer and seller of sheep. He never saw the county looking finer from the standpoint of crops than it is at present, and he stated to the editor of that paper that he thought Morrow county was still a mighty good place in which to live.

District Attorney Notson arrived home Monday morning from Nelson, B. C., where during the week he had been in attendance at the sixth annual convention of the Northwest Association of Sheriffs and Police. He reports a fine trip and a good session of the association, and was one of the speakers on the program. The convention for next year will be held at Boise, Idaho. While at Nelson, Mr. Notson met Guy Boyd, formerly of this city, who is now sheriff of Ada county, Idaho, and residing at Caldwell.

Gay Anderson, Gay, Jr., and Dr. A. H. Johnston made up a party of fishermen going from Heppner to East lake over in the Bend country on Friday. They returned home late Sunday night, having gathered in their portion of the big fish. The Gazette Times force was complimented with some fine samples of the catch by these gentlemen, for which they have our thanks. We are not much on catching the fish, but we sure can eat 'em.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mills of Kamiah, Idaho, drove over to Heppner from Pendleton on Monday and spent a couple of days in this city renewing old friendships. Mr. and Mrs. Mills left here thirteen years ago for the Idaho country, and their last visit here was nine years ago this summer. They note that a lot of improvement has been made in the old home town during that time. They went on to Portland from here.

Sam Devine came over from his home at Seattle the past week and is enjoying a visit at the home of his son, Joe, of the north Lexington country. Having resided in Morrow county for many years, the elder Mr. Devine is rejoicing over the very bright outlook he finds here for the oncoming crop. It is his opinion that the county will have the largest yield in its history.

Roy Glascock, son of Mrs. Mattie Smead of this city, was a visitor here for several days during the past week from his home at Mt. Vernon, Grant county. Mr. Glascock gives a good report of conditions of both grain and range in his part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vaughn returned from Portland Sunday, having spent several days in the city during the past week. Mr. Vaughn brought up a Buick sedan which Messrs. Vaughn & Goodman had sold to Jack Hynd of Cecil. Dean Goodman, Jr., accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn to Heppner and will be with his father here for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Orve Brown and daughter, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Rasmus, departed Sunday for Bend where the ladies go as delegates to the district convention of Neighbors of Woodcraft. Following the convention the Browns will go on to Gold Hill, Oregon, for a short visit at the home of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Tindal Robinson of Eight Mile were visitors here Monday. Tindal had the fever pretty bad for a fishing trip into the interior country, where he might land up some of the big ones, and was outfitting himself with the proper tackle while in the city. A little later he will be very busy in putting his crop of wheat in the sack.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Martin, their son Merle and his wife and child were visitors over Saturday night and part of Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Jones in this city. Mrs. Martin is a sister of Mr. Jones and their home is at Willard, Wash., where Mr. Martin is employed in the lumber mills. They returned home on Sunday afternoon.

Boys leaving Heppner last Thursday for Vancouver, Wash., where they will be in the training camp for a few weeks, were Maurice Edmundson, Terrel Bengie and Harlan Devin. Clarence Hayes had intended going, but was unable to do so. He hopes to be able to make the trip another season.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boyer were visitors here from their home at Monument several days the past week, while attending to business matters. While here Mr. Boyer disposed of a portion of his holdings on Hinton creek to Uzz French, who recently purchased the Whetstone place adjoining.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker were visiting with relatives at Walla Walla a day or so the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Hall returned to their home at Centralia, Wash., on Monday, after having enjoyed a pleasant visit of several days at Heppner with relatives and friends.

John Bellenbrock, Monument schoolman, was a visitor in Heppner on Saturday. He states that crop and range conditions were never much better than at present in the Monument country.

Chas. Cox and his brother-in-law, Mr. Gordon of Hermiston, were fishermen who journeyed to East lake the end of the week and enjoyed a fine catch of big trout. The specimens brought in were enough to arouse the envy of any disciple of Isak Walton.

Martin Lovgren was in the city from his Hill Ridge farm on Saturday. His section will be getting into harvest about the middle of July, and there will be something doing in getting the grain ready for market.

Erik Bergstrom, extensive wheat-raiser of the Gooseberry section, was a business visitor in Heppner on Saturday. The grain out his way is coming along just the finest ever, and will make a big yield.

Postmaster Smead and La Verne Van Marter took time off from the busy affairs of life the end of the week and drove to East lake in the Van Marter car to spend a few days in fishing.

For Sale—J. I. Case separator, 24-inch, and Case tractor; bargain. See J. A. Patterson, city. 7-4f

John Cochran, government trapper of Ione, spent a part of Saturday in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Olden of Rhea creek were Saturday visitors in Heppner.

A ranch to rent, 1000 acres; plenty of water. D. E. Gilman, Heppner—Adv. 6tf.

MORGAN

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morgan and family spent Sunday at the river and were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Balsiger of Ione and had a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. W. G. Farrans was visiting in Morgan the first of the week.

Mrs. Franklin Ely left for La Grande Saturday where she will attend summer normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pettyjohn, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Medlock, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pettyjohn, Mrs. J. A. Troedson and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft all enjoyed Sunday at the Ellis Minor home.

S. Brk of Salem came up last week to look after his crop. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. Rodgers of Dallas who will have charge of the ranch.

Franklin and Elvin Ely are helping Jack Hynd with his haying.

Earl Morgan was doing business in Heppner Thursday.

Deloris Crowell was visiting Mrs. Ralph McCormick Wednesday.

Delbert Cool of Heppner spent Sunday at Morgan.

Rood Eckleberry was the dinner guest at the N. E. Pettyjohn home Sunday.

Mr. Fisher has purchased a new combine.

Geneva Pettyjohn returned to John McDevitt's Sunday evening after spending a week at her home.

RODEO TO BE HELD AT LOST VALLEY 4TH CELEBRATION

Condon, Ore., June 22.—People from Gilliam and neighboring counties are already making preparations to attend the three-day "an-Em-All" rodeo, celebrating the Fourth, to be at the Big Springs Cattle ranch in Lost Valley under the management of Wardell Bros. The abundance of camping grounds amid the tall pines and near the big springs is an added feature that seems to be attracting many for the three-day affair.

Seven thousand persons attended the celebration last year on the day of the Fourth and with a greater variety of entertainment, the management expects a larger crowd this year. People from every county in the state and every state in the northwest were in attendance last year.

The best assistants from Gilliam and Wheeler counties have been secured by the Wardells. They announce that Ray M. Duke is to be the arena director; that E. R. Woods will be cashier and that Manley Downing, who has charge of the horses, is getting some hard ones from Bill Pentecost and Ivan Matteer of Wheeler county.
