

A MUSICAL TRIBUTE TO "LINDY"

Written Especially for HEPPNER GAZETTE TIMES by EDDIE ADAIR, the Noted Song Writer and Composer.

LINDY'S LANDED HOME

Words and Music by EDDIE ADAIR

CHORUS

This song is being sung everywhere by Americans who glory in the achievement of the St. Louis ace, now Col. Lindbergh, who braved the unknown air spaces all alone in a non-stop flight from New York to Paris. Let our folks join in on the refrain, making it resound as far as "Lindy's" fame.

It is truly the song hit of the hour. Try it on your piano, and let the whole family join in singing "LINDY'S LANDED HOME." Souvenir copies of this song in folio form may be had at Heppner Gazette Times office for the asking. You will want one to keep.

Everybody's Singing "Lindy's Landed Home"

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

M. D. Kyle of Walla Walla, district superintendent of the Standard Oil Co., was in Boardman last Wednesday talking over business matters with F. A. Fortier, local agent.

Catherine Johnson of Wasco has been visiting the past week at the J. R. Johnson home.

W. A. Price has purchased a fine new Chrysler 50 coach from E. Peck, the local agent.

It is reported that John G. Churchill of Alderdale has purchased the stock of goods from Mr. Roush and will open a store in that location shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Skobo went to Hermiston Friday with L. C. Cooney. They went to see Dr. Sears about Dagmar, their youngest baby, who has not been gaining as much as she should.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hereim entertained at two tables of 500 Saturday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dillabough and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houghton of Umatilla were guests Friday at the D. F. Ransler home.

Boardman is especially fortunate this fall in having Miss Lucy Case, nutrition specialist of O. A. C., come for a series of meetings. It is to be hoped that the women will show their interest and attend as many meetings as possible. Miss Case has a series of most interesting topics—"How to Eat and Grow Fat," "How to Eat and Get Thin," school lunches and others equally interesting. She conducted similar meetings in Umatilla county last week.

J. B. Harvey, the Farm Journal man, was a visitor Sunday and Monday at the Hereim home.

Victor Lehto, E. Basse and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson, all of Centerville, Wash., were visitors Sunday at the G. A. Harju home.

The degree team of the Boardman Grange motored to Willows Sunday evening to put on degree work. Five candidates were initiated.

Many Boardman folks motored to Arlington Monday to see the ravages done by the cloudburst.

E. L. Brown motored to Portland on Monday on business. The road contract has not yet been signed so Mr. Brown and his crew have not yet gone.

Mr. Roush left Sunday for Madras. He has been owner of the Roush General store here for the past several months.

It is rumored that Sgt. Fred Kelly has resigned his position and will teach in California.

An error was made in stating that

Glen Hadley had gone to Klamath Falls to shear. He had contemplated going, but has been shearing over on Hay creek.

Emma Agee has returned from a pleasant visit to Mikkalo and Ione where she visited her sisters.

Sophia Mefford was honored at a party Saturday evening when about 30 of her friends helped her celebrate her 19th birthday. Merry games were played and all had a most delightful time. Sophia received many lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Macomber of Olex were up for the party and stayed over Sunday.

Albert Marlow and wife and three sons of Reith were over-Sunday visitors at the D. F. Ransler home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden came home last Tuesday from a most delightful motor trip to Portland and Clatskanie. At Portland they visited their daughter, Mrs. Paine and family, and son Louis Blayden and wife.

At Clatskanie they visited their daughter, Mrs. Walter Olson and granddaughter, Mrs. O. Olson, and the new baby who is a great granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blayden.

Mrs. Nels Kristensen is anticipating a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Thomas and family of LeMoore, Cal., whom she has not seen for 10 years.

Mrs. Dwight Misner and daughter Mrs. Fred Markin of near Ione were recent visitors at the Geo. Gross home.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Macomber motored to Pilot Rock last week to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Sally Kinnison of Meacham who died last week at the age of 77 years. She was Mr. Macomber's grandmother.

J. R. Hunter of Nyssa, Ore., field manager of the McConner Co., was in Boardman on Monday. Sunday he and Mr. Huston, the McConner representative, were in Weston at the time of the cloudburst and Mr. Hunter stated that it moved everything that was loose.

Mrs. T. E. Broyles and daughter Erma came home last week, the former from Portland where she had her teeth extracted, and the latter from The Dalles, where she had her tonsils removed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hereim and sons were guests Sunday at a chicken dinner at the Glen Hadley home.

Ray Brown and daughters Catherine and Mabel, left Friday for a visit in Walla Walla with relatives.

O. B. Olson came home last week from a visit with relatives at Mayger and Prescott, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson were hosts Sunday at an elaborate dinner, having a number of relatives from Wasco as guests for the day. Present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson and family, J. T. Johnson and family, the men being brothers of J. R., and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, mother. They all returned to their homes Sunday evening.

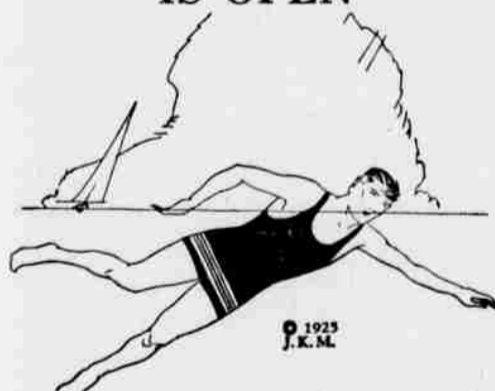

Mrs. Feess presented a number of children Wednesday evening of last week in two little playlets that gave much pleasure to those who attended.

The first one was called "The Moon Market" and was well played. Ruth Feess and Mildred Allen had leading parts with Basil Cramer as the Spirit of Mischief, causing much laughter. All played their parts superbly. Mary Chaffee gave a recitation and Paul Feess gave "The Little Spaghetti." The second play, "The Wishing Shop," was clever. Albert Boardman had the leading part and played it well. Mrs. Feess has very kindly taken it upon herself to supervise some of the activities of the children during the summer months. She plans to give an afternoon each week to the boys for manual training, bird houses being the first project. A course in basketry will be given for the girls.
