

Local Happenings

Manly Hilman, a young man working at the Tom Boylen ranch at Pine City, met with an accident to his car while returning to the ranch Tuesday morning from Ukiah. Mr. Hilman evidently went to sleep while passing along the road on Big Butter creek not far below Vinson and the car, a Chevrolet roadster, ran off a culvert and turned bottom side up in the ditch. He escaped injury but the machine had a front axle and a part of the front end of the frame bent and the top was demolished. Hilman was able, however, to run the machine to Heppner on its own power, but found steering rather difficult. He was fortunate in that the machine turned over across a ditch and did not pin him down, but acid from the battery ruined some good clothes and burned one arm and hand some.

The Clark Brothers, who own the Summers place west of Lexington, have put up their first crop of alfalfa hay. It was not up to the usual standard of quantity owing to the backward spring weather, but they have an abundance of water for irrigating and the second and third crops will make up for the shortage of production in the first cutting. The wheat harvest will be abundant on the place if present prospects hold out a week or so longer, is the statement of John Clark, who was in the city yesterday.

Edwin Hemrich arrived here from his home at Newton, Ill., during the past week, being accompanied by his friend, Arthur Coker. The young men came through by auto and enjoyed a fine trip. They will be here for the summer and will help Chas. Hemrich of Sand Hollow through his harvest. The Hemrich brothers have been separated for several years and Charley hardly recognized Edwin when they met.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Campbell had as their guests over the Fourth, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Campbell of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Willis McCarty and two children of The Dalles, and there was a happy reunion of the Campbell family. All returned home Monday evening with the exception of Mrs. Anderson who remained for a more extended visit.

Clark Anderson issued a license to wed on Saturday to Edmund Wade Bristow and Mary Ellen Grabbill, young people of Ione. We understand the wedding took place at Ione on Sunday. They are popular young people of that city, the bride being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Grabbill and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bristow.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson visited Diamond Lake during the past week and enjoyed a day or so of good fishing. Their friends enjoyed the first after their return home, as they passed out some very fine specimens of rainbow trout. They experienced no difficulty in gathering in their limit of fish which are abundant in Diamond Lake.

Chas. Thomson and family returned home on Tuesday from a trip to Wallowa Lake. They enjoyed the Fourth there and at Enterprise where a big celebration was the feature of the day. Mr. Thomson reports a very large crowd of outside people present at the lake, cars coming in from all parts of the country.

Ben Griffith, former Heppner boy and now general freight agent of the Carlisle Lumber company, a big lumbering concern operating in Washington, made a visit on the third at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Patterson. He enjoyed meeting many of his old friends while here.

Bob Murray, The Dalles high school athletic coach who has probably turned over more championship high school football teams than any other high school coach in the country, accompanied The Dalles baseball team on their trip here the third and fourth. He was official scorekeeper for the visitors.

John Vaughn and family drove up from Portland on Sunday and visited with relatives at Ione and Heppner until Monday afternoon, when they departed on their return to the city. While here Mr. Vaughn took a ride out into the Eight Mile section and viewed the splendid crop prospect.

Jas. Wilson came in on Friday from his home at Oakland, Calif., being called to Heppner on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Wm. Wilson, who is a patient at Heppner Surgical hospital. Mr. Wilson was compelled to return home early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bauman and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans made a trip to Pendleton and Walla Walla last week, coming back to Ukiah and Lehman Springs where they spent a day each at the celebrations at these places. They report an enjoyable time.

John Olden of this city, who was on his way to Hot Lake for treatment the end of the week, was compelled to stop off at Pendleton where he is a patient in the hospital. Mr. Olden is reported to be somewhat improved but is a very sick man.

John Cason this week disposed of his delivery business to Andrew Baldwin, and the latter has taken charge of the job. We are not informed as to what Mr. Cason intends doing. He has been engaged in this business for a good many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gilliam and son spent the Fourth at Wallowa Lake. Because of car trouble they were compelled to remain over for a day at Joseph while repairs were being made and did not arrive home until Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Cohn and daughter, Miss Eleanor, were visitors here over the week end from their Portland home. They were guests at the home of their son, Harold Cohn and family.

Jack Kearney, who works on a ranch in the Eight Mile country, came near losing a hand Wednesday when a giant cracker he was firing exploded unexpectedly. The cracker had been picked up for a "dud" and Kearney touched a cigaret to it while holding it in his hand and the result was a badly burned hand, and a finger was nearly taken off. Dr. Johnston dressed the injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thompson of Athena were visitors here for a short time on Tuesday from their home at Athena. Mr. Thompson is administrator of the estate of the late O. O. Edwards, and was in the city to look after business pertaining to his trust. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were accompanied by a friend, Mrs. Sherman, who is a teacher in the Athena schools.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson spent the celebration season at Heppner from their home in Portland, visiting at the home of Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Campbell. P. A. was numbered among the enthusiastic spectators at the hall games.

Miss Elaine Sigsbee came up from Portland Saturday morning and remained over until Monday evening, enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Sigsbee, and numerous friends.

L. J. Padberg was a visitor in the city Saturday from his wheat farm west of Lexington. He expects to be in the midst of his harvest by the middle of this month.

Mrs. Wm. Wilson, who has been suffering a severe attack of sciatica, has so far recovered as to be able to return to her home from Morrow General hospital.

Dwight Misner of Ione, here the fourth, expects to start harvesting his big wheat crop this week. His wheat is generally the first to reach Ione each year.

Chas. Hemrich took out a new Woods separator yesterday from the local agency, Latourell Auto Co. He will soon be in the midst of his wheat harvest.

C. C. Rhea and family drove over from their home near Stanfield Monday and spent the Fourth in the city, guests of Mr. Rhea's sister, Mrs. Josie Jones.

Born—At Morrow General hospital in this city, Wednesday, July 6, to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Leadbetter of Ione, a 10-pound daughter.

Andy Hayes, over from his home in Pendleton for the Fourth, was kept busy shaking hands with his numerous old-time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Buhn and young son motored to Portland Wednesday and will spend the remainder of the week in the city.

T. W. Cutsforth, extensive wheat grower of Lexington, was attending to business in this city on Saturday.

Clive Huston came up from Portland on Tuesday and is looking after matters of business here.
