

Local Happenings

County Water Master Karl Farnsworth and family enjoyed the company of a party of relatives and friends over the week end at their home at Enterprise. The party included Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thomson and sons Ellis and Earl; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson and family, and Jack De Nyal and Miss Nora Hughes. These people are all from Heppner and all but one of them had their first glimpse of Wallowa county scenery. They were not favored with good weather but what they saw of the country gave them a taste for more and all declared they would be back for a longer stay.—Joseph Herald.

Sheriff George McDuffee is at Hot Lake where he is a patient in the sanatorium and quite ill. He has been there since the 4th and expects to undergo a serious operation as soon as his physical condition will permit, which may be some six weeks yet. His condition was quite alarming for a time as he suffered a broken blood vessel in his head and the immediate outcome was questionable. His family was summoned to his side and were with him over the week end. At this time Mr. McDuffee is reported to be somewhat better and it is expected that he will continue to improve. The sheriff seems to be suffering from a complication of ailments, some of which have been of long standing.

Mrs. W. C. Clark and daughter, Miss Winifred Clark of Toronto, Canada, arrived at Heppner on Saturday for a visit of some two weeks with relatives here. The ladies were met at Portland by Chas. Thomson, brother of Mrs. Clark and came to Heppner over the Columbia River highway. Miss Clark, who is bookkeeper for a leading firm in Toronto, is granted three months vacation on full pay, and she and her mother are enjoying the time in visiting relatives living in the west, having spent a part of the time already in British Columbia. Mrs. Clark has one sister, Mrs. W. E. Pruyn, and three brothers, J. G., Chas. and George Thomson, residing here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wells departed the first of the week for Pendleton on the first lap of their vacation which will be spent in motoring around and visiting many different points of interest. At Pendleton they were joined by Miss Georgia Shipley who will accompany them. Mr. and Mrs. Wells expected to take in Wallowa Lake first and then drive to Portland, and may go on south into California, their vacation taking them away for some two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hergert, baby son Herbert, and Miss Mary Blahn were visitors in Heppner for a short time Saturday from Portland. Mrs. Hergert, formerly Miss Elizabeth Blahn, and Miss Mary are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blahn of Walla Walla, one time residents of this county, and the young ladies attended high school in Heppner. They enjoyed greeting old friends.

Miss Merlie Gilliam of Salem has been a guest during the past ten days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCaleb of this city. Mr. McCaleb and Miss Gilliam are cousins. While in the city Miss Gilliam was gathering up some historical matter for the Oregon Historical society, some of it pertaining to the Gilliam family, and from here she went to Pilot Rock to continue her work.

Theodore Anderson states that the grain in his locality on Eight Mile has been maturing very rapidly during the past week or so, and inside of ten days his harvest will be on. The quality of the grain appears excellent at this time, and Mr. Anderson looks for a heavy yield. He was in the city on Wednesday, looking after business affairs and making preparations for harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson returned on Saturday from a trip to Portland, where Mr. Ferguson went for a new International truck for the Ferguson Chevrolet Co. The demand for trucks by the farmers and others is exceeding the visible supply, according to reports of several Heppner dealers, and they are having a lot of trouble in finding machines for their customers.

"Last year we had our first ripe watermelons July 5 and had pulled a lot of them off the vines by July 13, but the season has been colder this year, and it will be the latter part of the month before we'll have melons this year," said F. C. Frederickson of Irrigon while in town Wednesday. "The warm weather we are having now is making stuff grow."—Hermiston Herald.

Among Heppner baseball fans attending The Dalles-Bend game in The Dalles Sunday were Gay Anderson, Harry Duncan, Dean Goodman, Earl Gordon, Spencer and Jasper Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Stone, Jim Cowins and party, Ducky Drake, and Harold Hill and party. The Dalles won 6-5, which is expected to give them the championship of the Mid-Columbia league.

Members of the Chas. H. Bartholomew family held a reunion at his Butter creek home Sunday and Monday. Those present were Fred Bartholomew from Estacada, E. E. Bartholomew from White Salmon, Wash., Harry Bartholomew from Echo, Lee Bartholomew from Seattle and Mrs. Bartholomew, their mother, from Heppner.—Echo News.

Harvie Young and family were visitors here the past week from their home at Medford. They visited Mr. Young's father, Jake Young at Gooseberry, and Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Cox at Lexington. Leaving Heppner on Tuesday they motored to Pendleton for a short visit with Ray Young and family before returning to Medford.

Mrs. S. C. White of Lexington came to Hermiston last Friday with her son, Gerald White, and the next day she and Mr. and Mrs. White went to Ukiah where they attended the races and the celebration over the Fourth. They were guests of Gerald White's brother, Neil White, who rode one of the strings in the races.—Hermiston Herald.

Fred Akers, Frank Frates and Emil Carlson were Eight Mile farmers doing business in Heppner on Monday. They stated to the editor of this paper that harvest was right in the offing and farmers of that section would be in the midst of it by the middle of the coming week, with every prospect of a splendid yield.

Mrs. S. C. Clark, aunt of Mrs. Leonard Barr of Heppner and Guy and Claud Huston of Eight Mile, came up from her home at Portland on Sunday and will spend ten days or two weeks visiting with her relatives here. She was met here Sunday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Huston and was taken out to their Eight Mile home.

Miss Elizabeth Huston arrived from Portland on Friday and will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Huston, during the summer. Miss Huston, who has been ill for the most of the year past, is reported to be improving very well, though not yet able to abandon treatments.

Mrs. Horace Writer arrived from her home at Olympia, Wash., on Wednesday morning, being accompanied by her two little daughters. They will visit for a few weeks at the home of Mrs. Writer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bauman, who reside near Heppner.

Omar Stanton of Walla Walla spent several days here the past week, coming down in time to take in the celebration at Parkers Mill, where he met many old friends, and remaining until Friday, looking after business interests in this county.

Clay Clark is back on the job as head clerk at the depot after spending a 10-day vacation. With Mrs. Clark he visited at the home of his parents in Hood River and at other points before returning home Saturday night.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet in the church parlors for their regular meeting Tuesday, July 19th, at 2:30 p. m. We wish to have a good attendance of friends and members.

Grain is maturing quite rapidly in the upper Eight Mile section according to Olat Bergstrom, who was in the city on Tuesday. He expects to begin combining within a week and has prospects for a heavy yield of wheat.

Mrs. Peter Trimm, Jr., of Ione was a visitor in Heppner Friday. Mrs. Trimm reports that they will soon be in their wheat harvest. They farm west of Ione and the crops there are good this season.

Mrs. P. A. Anderson accompanied Harry Duncan to The Dalles Sunday where she remained for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. C. McCarty, before going on to her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Devin departed the first of the week for Kamela, for a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Clouston. Mr. Clouston is director of forest fire fighting from that point.

Jack Mulligan and wife of Pendleton were visitors in this city on Friday. Mr. Mulligan is manager of Pendleton Music House, and he recently became a benedict.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Gentry of Pendleton were visitors at the home of his parent, Mr. and Mrs. James Gentry of this city the first of the week.
