

BOARDMAN

E. T. Messenger was surprised to find his cousin Jabin Rogers and friend, Mr. Albert, of Wenatchee, Wn., come unexpectedly for a short visit recently. Mr. Messenger had not seen his cousin for 21 years. Mr. Rogers had just returned from a visit in Kansas where he saw Mr. Messenger's father who is up and about and feeling very well after a serious illness this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Eck Warren were here for a short time last week going on to Lost Valley.

Attorney Switzer of Arlington was a Boardman visitor Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith returned Sunday from Portland where they were called Wednesday by the illness of a daughter who underwent a serious operation at Good Samaritan hospital. They left the daughter much improved.

Mrs. Nick Gaglia and children came home a week ago from a pleasant vacation trip. The trip was marred by an accident to the boy, Donald, who fell in his efforts as a young buckaroo and was thrown from a calf which resulted in a broken arm. It was improperly set and he was taken to The Dalles last week where a doctor broke the arm again and reset it. It is thought there will be no further difficulty.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Porter motored to Portland Monday.

The Grange is planning a picnic next Sunday at Tom's Auto camp. It is asked that everyone bring one big dish of food. Combined these will make a feast, indeed.

A merry picnic group motored to the river above Hermiston Sunday, all going up in the Mefford's new Chevrolet truck. A sumptuous feed was enjoyed and the picnicers returned home Sunday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mefford and children of Portland, the L. V. Roots, the Richardsons, Meffords, Marvin Roots of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin of Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorham and family, Wilma Anderson and Mary Chaffee left Monday at 4 a. m. for Portland. We reported last week that Jack had delivered the Chevrolet trucks to F. L. Brown but we were a bit premature as the trucks were not there for delivery so Jack made a second trip.

Mary Chaffee went on to Eugene to visit her sister, Mrs. Esther Theunis, for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Goodwin had a most enjoyable week-end at Portland and also visited the Mt. Hood loop. They climbed as far as the hotel on the mountain side. This is one of the most beautiful picnic drives in America.

Dr. Clark, eye specialist of Portland, was in Boardman Monday.

Thirteen were present at the Home Ec. meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ed Kunze. A lovely luncheon was enjoyed. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Claude Myers.

There is practically no demand for hay at the present time.

The fair board met Friday evening in the bank building at Boardman. County Agent Smith was present. The premium list was checked over again and a few changes made. There is one division of monstrosities with a prize given for the largest pumpkin, squash, watermelon, Persian melon and sunflower. Some of the judges were decided on. Mr. Dean will be asked to judge the livestock, poultry and rabbits; Miss Beougher to judge the fancy work; Mr. Gignoux the U. P. agent, will be asked to judge fruit, vegetables and farm crops. A dance will be held Saturday night, September 3. There will be a baby show with appropriate prizes. Exhibitors are asked to remember not to bring vegetables and potatoes of huge size. These must be of marketable size. Premium lists will be out shortly.

Miss Martha Driscoll came Saturday from Heppner to stay with Mrs. Pete Farley.

Miss Lillian Stevens returned Sunday from Yamath Falls where she has been for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mefford drove out in the wheat country last week, up as far as Gwendolyn.

Nellie Dillon and Catherine Berger gave a pleasant party to a group of the younger set Saturday night at the Dillon home. Games were the diversion of the evening. Delicious refreshments were served. Guests were Albert and Helen Boardman, Rachel Johnson, Dallas Wilson, Mabel Dexter, Ray Barlow, Carol Kennedy, Russel, Alvie and Evelyn Mefford, Catherine Brown, Gladys and Carl Wicklander, Lillian and Warren Brice, Buster Rands, Noel Klitz, Glen, Richard and Robert Berger and the two hostesses.

H. Cason was another Boardman man who accompanied F. L. Brown to Wapinitia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Berger of Portland were visitors last week at the Clarence Berger home.

Mrs. Sylvester Attebury suffered an acute heart attack on Sunday evening and was unconscious for a time. She has been subject to these attacks for some time.

W. H. Mefford and son Russell motored to the wheat country last week over Heppner way. They brought back a load of material for Tom Hendricks to use for the water system at his camp grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Macomber of Olex were up Sunday.

Clarence Berger is relief operator at Messner for Bobby Smith who with his wife left Friday for Seaside and also for Vancouver, B. C. Mary Smith is staying here with her grandmother. Mr. Berger was a telegraph operator in the east before coming to Boardman.

Mrs. Claude Coats is quarantined with scarlet fever. Gladys Wilson has been staying with her. Echo Coats is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Gillespie.

County Agent Smith attended the meeting of the Grange Saturday evening, when the problem of the proposed quarantine on potatoes was discussed. A petition was drawn up asking that C. H. Dillabough be appointed inspector. This will be presented to the county court.

Mrs. J. C. Ballenger and Maxene went to Wasco last week instead of Seaside. She plans to go to Seaside this week, however.

An experiment for the control of the morning glory which is making its appearance on some of the west end farms, is being made, using carbon bisulphide and a careful check of results show that the roots of plants are killed to bedrock. However, it is still in the experimental stage, but it gives promise of being very efficient in the control of small patches. Anyone having patches of this weed is invited to see the results obtained on the Wilson farm and if enough interest is shown an order will be pooled so that the carbon bisulphide can be purchased at a reduced cost.

Mr. McCarty and Mrs. Bates of La Grande who purchased the Cummins ranch last spring, were over last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Slavin and Catherine Marshall motored to Heppner on Thursday.

At the special election held Saturday for the purpose of adding some territory to the corporation, the proposition met defeat at the hands of those outside the city limits, the vote being 33 to 4, the four opposing votes being sufficient to defeat the plan.

Tina, Ihlene and Orville Mellin stopped for a short visit at the O. B. Olson home on their way to Pendleton, from a visit with their people at Carleton, Ore. Mellins lived on the Healey place one summer.

Tom Brady of Hay Creek was a visitor at the Marshall home several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Huff returned Saturday from Dufur where they were called to attend the funeral services of Mr. Huff's father who died very suddenly. Mrs. Huff went on to Hermiston to visit her mother a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Fred Wilcox and children and Mrs. Nettie Eccles of Salt Lake spent the week end at the Royal Rands home. Mrs. Rands accompanied them to Walla Walla. They were on their way home from a motor trip to California. Mrs. Eccles is a sister of Mrs. Rands.

Forbes and the Campbells of Hermiston spent a lovely day at Meacham Sunday.

Clifford Olson came home from Portland Monday, driving a new Star sedan. Ivy Olson came home with him. She has been visiting relatives in the valley for the past two weeks. Geo. and Albert Shane have their band of sheep on Blacklock Island. Albert Shane has purchased a fine new Pontiac coach which was brought up last week.

Harold Roberts and family of Vancouver, Wn., were guests at the W. A. Price home this week.

MORGAN

S. Birk of Salem came Saturday to look after his wheat crop which is being harvested by T. W. Cutsforth of Lexington.

Mr. Franchier hauled the first load of 1927 wheat to the Morgan warehouse Tuesday.

Ray Oviatt of Heppner is employed at the Morgan warehouse.

W. F. and A. F. Palmateer started heading Wednesday.

Mrs. Ista Bauernfiend was visiting Mrs. Minnie Ely Sunday and Monday. Rood Eckleberry is employed with the Standard Oil company of Ione.

Terrible epidemics of disease with appalling loss of life have followed the widespread distribution of fleas. Fleas live on mice, rats, dogs and even human beings. Bubonic plague which breaks out without warning and kills thousands is one of the many diseases for which the flea is responsible. Fly-Tox kills fleas. Spray against the fur from rear of animal. Simple instructions on each bottle (blue label) for killing ALL household insects. Insist on Fly-Tox. Fly-Tox is safe, stainless, fragrant, sure. Every bottle guaranteed. (adv.)

Raymond Shaw had the misfortune to lose the end of the thumb on his left hand Friday forenoon, while at work on a combine near Ione. Dr. Johnston was called to dress the injured hand.

Mrs. Ralph Ledbetter and little daughter returned to their home at Ione this week after a stay of a fortnight at Morrow General hospital.

SHERIFF'S SALE

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a foreclosure execution and order of sale issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Gilliam County, upon a judgment and decree rendered in said Court on the 23rd day of May, 1927, in favor of the State Land Board of the State of Oregon, appellant, and wherein John J. Kelly, Mary E. Gorman, G. W. Gorman, Eugene Mallor, Lawrence Perry, J. A. Blahnik, P. T. Murphy, and Sam E. Van Vactor and R. R. Butler, co-partners practicing law under the firm name of Van Vactor & Butler, were defendants, which judgment was rendered against the said defendants John J. Kelly, Mary E. Gorman and G. W. Gorman, of said defendants, in favor of plaintiff for the sum of $5698.76, with interest thereon from said 23rd day of May, 1927 at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, the further sum of $500.00 attorneys fees, and the sum of $48.45 plaintiff's costs, and wherein the answering defendants, Sam E. Van Vactor and R. R. Butler recovered judgment against the defendant Lawrence Perry for the sum of $1820.00 with interest from May 23rd, 1927, at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, and for the sum of $100.00 attorneys fees, and for the sum of $63.25 costs and disbursements, and for accruing costs, and upon which said judgment there has been recovered from the sale of real property in Gilliam County, Oregon, the sum of $137.36.

That said Execution is to me directed as the Sheriff of Morrow County, Oregon.

I will, therefore, for the purpose of satisfying said judgment, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, on the 20th day of August, 1927, at the front door of the Court House in Heppner, Morrow County, Oregon, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock p. m. of said day, all the right, title and interest of each and all of said defendants in and to the following described real property sit-
