

Local Happenings

Vawter and Spencer Crawford departed on a trip into the state of Washington Friday morning, their destination being Montesano, county seat of Grays Harbor county. The trip was by way of Yakima and Kittitas valleys, through the Snoqualmie Pass to Tacoma, thence to Montesano by way of Olympia. At this season of the year this trip is one of much interest and the scenery along the way is beautiful. A trip through the Cascade mountains over the Pass is especially attractive. The Crawfords returned home Sunday, being accompanied by Mrs. LeRoy Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Crawford, and four members of her family, who will visit here for a few weeks.

Miss Henrietta Laurence, formerly a teacher in the schools of Heppner, writes to Mrs. E. F. Campbell from Florence, Italy, stating that she is having a very fine but busy time seeing a part of Europe with a party of twenty-two people who are touring in foreign lands this summer. Miss Laurence reports that there is much to see and the party is kept continually on the move from one place of interest to another.

Mrs. Daisy Hall and daughter Lucille arrived in Heppner on Friday and are enjoying a visit with their relatives here. They arrived at Arlington last week from their home at Proberta, California, and were guests for several days at the home of Mrs. Hall's daughter, Mrs. George Stephens. Mrs. Hall and daughter will spend a week or more at Heppner, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gordon.

Raymond Ferguson, having finished with the harvesting of his grain crop on the W. G. McCarty Sand Hollow ranch, hied himself to the tall hills of Wallowa Wonderland on Sunday, being accompanied by Mrs. Ferguson, their son Kay and the Misses Mary Crawford and Luola Benge. The party expect to spend about two weeks visiting with relatives and friends at Joseph and taking some hikes into the mountains.

Gus Beck and his son Theodore Beck of Walla Walla were visitors in Heppner Tuesday. Mr. Beck, senior, owns a wheat farm in the Gooseberry section and the gentlemen came to Heppner to see about the crop just harvested on this place and to get it to market. Theo. Beck formerly farmed this place but has been living at Walla Walla for the past couple of years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Buhn arrived on Tuesday from Boise, Idaho. They had been enjoying several days of autoing through Idaho, taking the north and south highway, and report a fine trip. The weather was cool and rainy most of the time, yet they were privileged to view some of the finest scenery on earth, which abounds in that part of Idaho.

Mrs. E. F. Campbell returned home during the week from a stay of two weeks at Reckaway beach, in company with Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Kit McCarty and family of The Dalles. Mrs. Campbell states that she enjoyed a very pleasant outing at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Barr, Gay M. Anderson and Gay, Jr., composed a vacation party leaving town Tuesday morning. They expected to spend a few days huckleberrying in the mountains in the vicinity of Snoqualmie Pass, Wash., getting home on Monday next.

J. O. Turner has finished with the threshing of his wheat crop at his ranch in the Swaggart Butte section. The grain turned out well, and Mr. Turner will be busy for some time yet getting the wheat to the warehouse at Lexington.

D. A. Wilson and family, Alva Jones and family and W. V. Crawford and family are sojourning at their mountain camp on Willow creek this week, getting away from the heat of the lower valley for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McCarty arrived home the end of the week from a sojourn of some two months in California, enjoying a visit to the scenes of former days and visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Edwards and Mr. Edwards' mother, Mrs. Belle Edwards of Forest Grove, drove into Heppner yesterday to spend a short time looking after business interests here.

Mrs. W. E. Walbridge was a visitor in Heppner on Monday and Tuesday from her home at Pendleton. She was attending to business matters here.

John Vaughn, engaged in the automobile business in Portland, was a visitor in Heppner for a couple of days the first of the week.

STRINGING WIRE SLOW WORK.

Condon Globe-Times. Mr. LeTourneau's estimate that the power line would be completed to Condon by the last of August, seems about right, judging by the amount of work that remains to be done. The poles are up to town except for a short distance through a field below Gwendolyn, which was delayed on account of a right-of-way.

The wiring is completed for eight miles this side of Olex and wires are strung between Gwendolyn and three miles out of town. The wiring crew has been delayed for lack of material and it has also encountered difficult work in stringing the wire out of Rock Creek.

The DeMoss Springs-Olex branch approximately 26 miles is completed and the line charged as far as Hay Canyon. Mr. LeTourneau, in charge of the survey crew, has moved to Lone. The survey and plans for the Olex-Arlington section are being completed and work is progressing on the Olex-Lone branch. Actual construction work has not begun on either of the two branches.

THE CONQUERING HERO.

The world loves a winner and pays him honor. It was ever thus because the will to fight and win is strong in the human breast. Most of us taste a good deal of defeat but we rejoice in the victories of others. But there is a way for all of us to have a share of victory.

"The Conquering Hero" is the topic of the evening sermon at the Church of Christ. The morning sermon will be "Kinship to Christ." Remember the Bible school at eight-thirty in the morning. Christian Endeavor on the job at seven in the evening. MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

A NEW CAR

Whose Reliability, Power and Style Mark it All-American

Reliability? Look at the longer, heavier frame of the All-American Six—the big new engine, transmission and clutch—the longer wheelbase (117")—all the result of pitiless testing on General Motors' Proving Ground!
