SCHOOL IS READY FOR START MONDA

Preparations Complete by Faculty, Patrons and Stores.

ATTENDANCE URGED

Superintendent Burgess Says Starting on Opening Day Will Benefit All.

Everything is clean and fresh for the start when the doors of Heppner schools will be swung wide Monday for the beginning of a new school year. Scrubbed and painted through-out the school building itself presents an inviting appearance, and the pupils and faculty, too, are instilled with renewed vigor from the vacation per-iod enjoyed.

Jas. M. Burgess, superintendent, who has been busy for the last two weeks getting the plant in order, an-nounces everything now in ship-shape. As a last word he wishes to impress upon parents and children the importance of all pupils being on hand for the start, if at all possible, that they may experience no incon-venience, as well as to alleviate all unnecessary friction in the conduct of classes which is expensive in time and energy to all concerned. Registration and assignment to classes only will be held Monday with the school work proper beginning Tuesday.

All members of the faculty will be on hand with the exception of Harold R. Johnson, principal. Mr. Johnson, who arrived in Heppner the latter part of last week, found word awaiting him of the serious illness of a sister in Iowa and he left immediately to be at her bedside. He is expected back by the first of the second week,

That patrons of the school as well ere preparing for the opening is evidenced by the many houses rented in the last few weeks by out of town people. At the present time only sever or eight vacant houses remain to be rented, according to real estate men Prom present indications school en-rollment should exceed somewhat that of former years.

Business houses, too, are prepared as may be seen by the large stocks of school supplies now on display. Some nounced, and the new books are ready

In fact the only interference at present noted to the smoothest runring of the school year, is the con-struction of the new auditorium-gymnasium. This, no doubt, will prove a little distraction to younger minds, at least for a while, but when com-pleted the middle of next month, it should prove enough of a joy to make

HARDMAN YOUNG PEOPLE MARRY

Clerk Anderson issued a license to wed to Marion Saling and Hazel Mc-Donald, young people of Hardman, on Saturday. The wedding took place Saturday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. F. R. Spaulding per forming the ceremony in the pres-ence of Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman and Miss Violet Saling as witnesses. The young folks will continue to make their home at Hardman.

DEER SEASON OPENS SEPT. 10. Heppner's nimrods are getting in readiness for the opening of the dee season on September 10th, at which time there will doubtless be a general assault made upon the denizens of the tall timber. Deer are very plen tiful in the Blue mountains, so the report has it and the hunting seacon promises to be good.

WILL HAVE CHURCH WEDDING. At the Methodist Community church on Sanday morning at 7:00 o'clock will occur the wedding of Miss Mary Spaulding, daughter of Rev. F. R. Spaulding, pastor of the church, and Mr. A. Fletcher of Salem. The wed-ding will be public and all friends of the church are invited to attend.

ATTENTION LEGION AUXILIARY MEMBERS.

There will be an important meeting on Tuesday evening, September 6th, and a large attendance is desired. The hostesses will be Mesdames H. O. and J. D. Bauman.

Gene Ferguson Takes Agency at Pendleton

Gene Ferguson, of the Ferguson Shevrolet company of this city, is to have the Oakland-Pontiac agency of General Motors at Pendleton, arrange ments to take charge of the same hav-ing been completed this week. Mr. Ferguson went to Pendleton on Monday where he finished the details of the transaction so far as that point is concerned, and then went on to Seattle to complete his agency con-

For the past two years Mr. Ferguson has been associated with his father, O. T. Ferguson, in conducting the Ferguson Chevrolet business here and has proved his ability as a salesman in this line. His place with the local company is being taken by his brother, Raymond, who expects to move into town immediately from the W. G. McCarty Sand Hollow ranch to reside for the winter months at least. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferguson will move to Pendleton to reside. Mr. Ferguson feels that there was too good an opening at Pendleton for the Oakland-Pontine agency to be passed up, and this paper expresses the hope that he will not be disappointed in the new venture.

Chattel Mortgage Records Get Many Cancellations

The cancelling of chattel mortgages at the office of Clerk Anderson goes on space these days, as a result of the splendid crop returns coming in from various parts of the county. Another fact to be noted at the court house is the cleanup that is being made in deliquient taxes, a lot of money coming in on this account also. This season's crop will help in liq-uidating a lot of bills and accounts

Condon Globe Times.

Joe Handy, 49, died at the Austin hotel Saturday night after a lingering liness of more than a year. Cancer of the stomach was the cause of his death. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Congrega-tional church and interment was in the local cemetery.

Mr Handy was a pioneer resident of Morrow nad Gilliam counties, having moved, with his parents, to Ione 46 years ago. He was a carpenter by trade and spent most of his life in Ione Arlington and Condon. He was Ione, Arlington and Condon. He was married in 1917 to Mrs. Louise Gro-gan of Heppner. His wife and his sister, Mrs. Laura Brownell were with him at the time of his death.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two step-children, Mrs. Gerald White of Hermiston and William Grogan of Condon; and two sisters, Mrs. Luta Browneil of Troutdale and Mrs. Sadie Lord of Portland.

SCHOOL HYGIENE. State Board of Health.

The function of Oregon schools is not alone to teach but to equip children with the qualifications necessary to carry on the work of healthy American citizenship. Is not health a very important qualification? The child's health must not be neglected during the hours he is compelled to attend school. The health of the school is teachers and pupils. Health educa-tion should be a part of the regular school program. Little children hould be taught the value of regularity and cleanliness.

Very few grown-ups realize the mental and physical strain the sixyear-olds are under when they first start the great adventure of going to school. The child has some pretty hard problems to tackle, and needs all the reserve force that can be mus-

Special care for him at this time. particularly with reference to regu ar hours of rest and sleep, and avoid ince of unnecessary excitement will to much to give these beginners at school the mental poise that is so much needed. It is equally important that care be taken of their diet; hat they be given simple nourishing food, at times and in quantities when t can be most easily digested.

For instance, because of their an xiety to get off in time little children often neglect their breakfast or gobble it down in a hurry. To offset this the child should take a simple lunch o school, a sandwich made of thin lices of bread and butter, or bread and jam, to be eaten at the mid-morn ing recess. If milk is served at the school a glass of milk can be taken at the same time. When the child comes home at noon the principal neal should be eaten.

But just as important is the afternoon rest. It is not necessary that the child actually sleep, but it should be encouraged to lie down in a quiet room for half an hour to an hour. A child of six needs twelve hours sleep at night. After the beginning of the school year 7:30 should be the regular bed time, and this rule should not be broken. Little children should never be taken out to evening enter-tainments -- movies, and other exciting diversions. There will be plenty of time for them later on.

ATTENDING MEDICAL MEETING.

Dr. A. H. Johnston, county health officer, with Mrs. Johnston, departed for Portland and Salem Sunday to attend the meetings of the county health officers of Oregon and the Ore-gon State Medical society this week. Many prominent speakers are on the program, doctors being present from as far as New York, Minnesota and other eastern states. The conference was planned to meet the needs of the medical and nursing group on important phases of health and sickness service, and is being largely attended. Dr. Johnston is the newly elected president of the Eastern Oregon Medical society, chosen at their meet-ing at Wallowa Lake on August 13th He is expected to return home Fri-day or Saturday.
