

Local Happenings

Mrs. Frank Turner, son Robert and daughters Jeanette and Anabel spent last week end visiting Mrs. Turner's sister, Mrs. Louis Morris of John Day. They drove over the John Day highway and have nothing but words of praise for the beautiful scenery and the progressive appearance of the country over that way.

Johan Troedson, who was in the city a short time on Monday, states that quite a number of the wheat raisers in the north lone section have to do their threshing yet. He is among the number but has his grain in the stack and will be able to get a machine on the job shortly.

C. W. Valentine returned home on Saturday after a week spent at Walla Walla, Pendleton and other points up that way, during which time he greatly enjoyed visiting with old time friends. Many of these were acquaintances formed by Mr. Valentine more than 40 years ago.

A. E. Craber and Ben Stanton of Walla Walla were Heppner visitors on Monday, coming over to spend Labor Day. These gentlemen, formerly residents here, have not visited their old stamping ground for twenty years, and they took note of many changes.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Wilson of Huntington Beach, Calif., were visitors in Heppner on Thursday last. They had been spending some four weeks at Lone where Mr. Wilson has land interests, and took their departure for Southern California Friday.

Mrs. Elsie Stevenson and Mrs. Leota Irwin were visitors in Heppner last week end from their home in The Dalles. The ladies were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hayes, Mrs. Hayes being a sister of Mrs. Stevenson.

Melvin Johnston, superintendent, and Harold Wynd, high school instructor, of Lexington school, were visitors in Heppner on Monday. School began there with an unusually heavy registration in all departments on that day.

Miss Helen Valentine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Valentine, returned home the middle of last week from a stay of three weeks at Long Beach, Wash., where she greatly enjoyed herself at this popular seaside resort.

Wilson Bayless has disposed of his city property on Jones street to Walter Moore who expects to move into the residence with his family shortly. Mr. Bayless, we understand, has not definitely decided where he will locate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner and son Don returned Tuesday from Salem where they spent a few days looking up a residence in which to live during the school year. They will return to that city the end of this week.

County Agent Smith, accompanied by his family, departed Wednesday afternoon for Dufur to take in the southern Wasco county fair. Mr. Smith will act as judge of grains and grasses for the fair board.

Cleve Walton was a visitor in the city on Saturday. Mr. Walton, who was engaged in the general merchandise business at Long Creek for a number of years, has located in Pendleton with his family.

Joe Batty, Eight Mile farmer, was a visitor in Heppner on Saturday. He states that his crop interests were greatly augmented this season, and 30 to 35 bushels per acre were harvested from his lands.

Miss Etta Devin departed the past week on a vacation of a few weeks, going to Grants Pass where she will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rugg, former residents of this community.

A. E. Wright, Rhea creek stock raiser in town Tuesday, said range conditions are much improved by the recent rains.

J. S. Young of Eight Mile is in Portland on business this week.

Chas. Notson took his departure on Monday afternoon for Pendleton to take a night train out of that city for the east. Charles is going to Wilmore, Kentucky, where he will become a student in Ashbury college, taking the divinity course.

Mrs. Fannie Rood is up from Portland this week enjoying a visit with relatives here and looking after business matters. Mrs. Rood contemplates spending the winter in the east, and will leave about the last of September.

Cleo H. Jenkins, architect, came up from Albany Wednesday to inspect the work in progress on Heppner's new auditorium-gymnasium. He found that Contractor Olson is getting along with the work in fine shape.

H. M. Olden, Fairview farmer, was in the city a short time Wednesday. His harvest is all over and fall work will begin as soon as there is sufficient moisture. But little rain has fallen out that way yet.

Wanted—Man with car to sell complete line quality Auto Tires and Tubes. Experience not necessary. Salary $300.00 per month. Milestone Rubber Company, East Liverpool, O.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church will meet at the parish house on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 15th, at 2:30. All members and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Married, Friday, Sept. 3rd, at the home of E. A. Bennett in this city, Loren J. Matteson and Celia Mahon. Milton W. Bower, pastor of the Christian church performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Earl Gordon and Miss Lucille Hall of Heppner, sisters of Mrs. Geo. Stephens, were guests the first part of the week at the Stephens home in this city.—Arlington Bulletin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Freund arrived in Heppner last week from The Dalles. Mr. Freund taking the position as engineer on the local branch of the O.-W. R. & N.

N. M. Johnson of Lone was a visitor in the city on Saturday. He has finished with the wheat harvest and reports a very satisfactory yield.

Mrs. Etta Sanderson, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, is making an official visit to the various lodges of the county this week.

Mont. Bundy, farmer of the north Lexington country, where they had bumper crops this season, was a visitor in Heppner Saturday.

Jas. Luper returned to Portland the end of the week. He had been spending some time here looking after his crop interests.

Clive Huston, who has been here the past two months working in harvest, departed last night for his home in Portland.

FOR SALE—6 young Holstein cows, well bred, heavy milkers. They are good ones. A. P. Ayers, Boardman, Ore.

Lee Scrivner, extensive rancher of Democrat Gulch, was a business visitor in this city on Saturday.

John Brosnan of Lena was a visitor here on Saturday.

A Good Alfalfa and Sheep Ranch For Sale—Located on John Day highway, one mile of Dayville. Sell with or without sheep. Good fall, winter and spring range and summer permit on Malheur forest. Can give time on land. Address, or call on F. L. Officer, Dayville, Oregon. 12-25.

I want stubblefields for pasture; must have water. I have for sale some Berkshire male pigs, six and seven months old. B. F. Swaggart, Lexington, Ore. 24-5

Do you want a cheap knockabout car? We have a 1920 Dort that runs good, all licensed and ready to go. Price $85.00. HEPPNER GARAGE.

FOR SALE—A few aged ewes; also black- and white-faced bucks, cheap. Frank Wilkinson, Heppner.

Before Selling Your Wheat
SEE
F. W. Turner
Representing BALFOUR-GUTHERIE CO., At Heppner, Phone 252

FALL YARD GOODS
feature
FRENCH FLANNELS
Red, Rose, Tan, Orange, Blue—56 in. wide
CRETONNES—Beautiful for draperies and aprons.
NEW STOCK OUTING FLANNELS
M. D. CLARK

PHONE or leave orders at Phelps Grocery Co.
Home Phone 1102
HEPPNER TRANSFER COMPANY

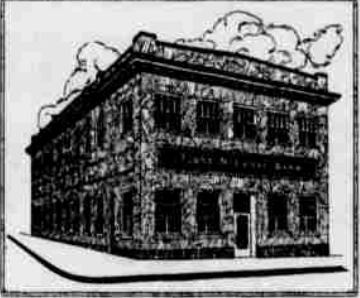

SUMMER'S FOOD
Rich, wholesome milk. Drink all you want. It's good for you.
Alfalfa Lawn Dairy
WIGHTMAN BROS., Props.
Phone 3073

Camel
The cigarette you can smoke with real enjoyment
If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.

© 1927, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

SAFETY & SERVICE

We Always Have Time to Talk With You

YOU CAN BRING your financial problems here, even though you do not have an account with us; our officers will be glad to see you anyhow.

OUR ADVISE MAY be beneficial, and perhaps we can help you.

THE ATTITUDE of this bank is to co-operate in every way in increasing the prestige and prosperity of this city, and giving assistance to the people of this community whenever it can.

First National Bank
HEPPNER, OREGON

GO East NOW
low fares end
FRIDAY SEPT. 30
Final return limit Oct 31

Your last opportunity to go East on exceedingly low round trip summer excursion fares. Liberal stopovers going and returning.

Agent will tell you exact fare from your city and help map out your itinerary.

UNION PACIFIC
THE OVERLAND ROUTE

C. DARBEK, Local Agent, Heppner, Oregon

For All Morrow County
Meet Your Friends at the 1927

Heppner Rodeo
SEPTEMBER 22-3-4

The Real Thing in Frontier Celebrations
This Year---Better Than Ever

3-Day Bucking Contest—Pony and Saddle Horse Races—Relay Races—Pack Race—Pony Express Race—Quick Change Race—Chariot Race—Bulldogging with real Texas Longhorns—Calf Roping—Mule and Bareback Riding—MORROW COUNTY DERBY, Featuring Fastest Three-Quarter-Mile Ponies in All Eastern Oregon for $100 Cash Prize.

Big Dance in Open Air Pavilion Each Night
Big Amusement Carnival - Fletcher's Band
Reserved Seat Tickets Now on Sale

Last Two Days for $2.75 in Big Grandstand. $1.00 General Admission; Children 50c
Get Them at GORDON'S (Heppner) or Write W. E. MOORE For RESERVATIONS

All School Children Admitted Free Friday
WRITE HEPPNER RODEO HEADQUARTERS FOR HOUSING RESERVATIONS