MORROW COUNTY'S OFFICIAL PAPER

Foreign Advertising Representative THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

Tire vs. License Cost.

ONTARIO Argus turned up a telling argument against the $3 flat auto license fee system proposed by initiative petition.

"To say nothing," quoting the Argus, "about the increased pleasures of riding and driving on Oregon roads compared with those of Idaho; disregarding the saving up on the mechanical portions of the car and its body; but considering the saving in tires only, Oregon's auto license fees with the roads they buy, save many times their cost every year."

The Ontario newspaper then quotes the experience of a Salt Lake City traveling salesman driving principally in Idaho, and the experience of a Portland man who travels in Oregon. The Idaho traveler "told us that he had just replaced the four tires on the car he bought new four months ago. In other words this rubber bill for 8000 miles, the distance he had driven in four months, was $130." This effect of roads not up to Oregon's standard is contrasted with the testimony of the Portland salesman who made Eastern Oregon, "who told us," says the Argus, "that since he had bought his new car last September, he had driven 19,000 miles, and was still on the original tires. His tire bill will be less than 40 per cent of that of the man from Salt Lake who travels in Idaho."

Farm Relief.

FARM relief at the coming session of Congress is imperative. Such were the words this week of Senator Borah of Idaho, an opinion expressed after interviews with informed persons in travels from Chicago, west to the Pacific coast. They are in line only with an idea agricultural leaders have had since the last failure of the McNary-Haugen bill to be enacted into law.

Agriculture knows that it rightfully asks and expects the same federal aid, protection—or what have you—accorded American manufacturers or other industries enjoying a high tariff. That agriculture means to attain its objective was thoroughly demonstrated at the St. Paul conference of agricultural leaders this summer. While capital always yields a powerful hand when opposed to an issue, in this particular instance the forces are divided and for a very good reason, namely that there are manufacturers with vision enough to see and know agriculture must be put on a sound

Dr. Frank Crane Says

THIS IS THE AGE OF ROMANCE

IT IS quite common to hear people regret that they live in this prosaic age, this age given up to dollar worship and so void of anything heroic. They wish they had lived in former times when men were more occupied in glorious deeds than they were in making money.

This illustrates the fact that you have to have a perspective in order to judge anything properly. The trouble with our impression of this age is that we are too close to it.

Putting our mind in the position of fifty years from now and looking back upon this time we would see that we are living in the most romantic age of the world.

We have progressed more in the last twenty-five years than the world had previously progressed in twenty-five centuries.

For the first time in history men, such as Byrd and Amundson, have flown over the North Pole.

This is the day when Lindbergh flew alone from New York to Paris and amazed mankind.

It is an age when more men have given themselves up to for dollars or life.

It is an age when the League of Nations was forming and the sentiment of world consciousness was gradually taking shape. It is an age when women were given rights of citizenship and for the first time in history were released from their bondage.

It is the first time when any nation was able to shake itself loose from the liquor habit and the foremost republic of the world adopted prohibition.

It is an age when more men have given themselves up to scientific and medical research than ever before.

Altogether one ought to be proud to be living during the first quarter of the twentieth century.

We are still in bondage, owing to the force of inertia. We still vote at a voting place instead of by mail, which is the only rational and sensible plan of voting and the only practical way to secure a universal plebiscite.

What we need is not another age of living, but eyes to see the present one in which we live.

basis for the nation's prosperity to be economically sound.

The mid-western manufacturer, closer than his Eastern brother to the seat of trouble, is in many instances now advocating the passage of a farm relief bill as sponsored by agriculture. Evidence of this comes in reports of an interview with Paul F. Beich, a candy manufacturer of Bloomington, Ill., president of the Illinois Manufacturing association, which was broadcasted quite generally last week. Mr. Beich said: "We must help the farmer. He works hard and gets less for his toil than almost anyone else in this land of prosperity and luxury."

Such expressions substantiate Senator Borah's latest declaration. And didn't he say a mouthful: "Farm relief is imperative?"

Taxes $1,000,000 Daily.

THE tax bill of the railways, in its ever-upward flight, is now amounting to more than $1,020,000 daily, according to current official government figures. In the first six months of this year, the Class I steam lines paid a total of more than 185 million dollars to national, state and local tax collectors, or almost two million dollars more than was paid in the corresponding months of 1926.

The growth in the taxes paid by the railways has been steady and rapid. In 1911, for example, railway taxes amounted to $270,000 each day. By 1916, this daily average tax bill had grown to $429,000, while in 1920 it amounted to $743,000. Further increases have resulted in the present daily tax bill of $1,020,000.

Railway taxes now consume

Songs of Plain Folks

By James Lewis Hays

Homesteader

Times do not change so very much. The same sun shines and laughter rings As always, when the morning's touch Makes playing children wish for wings. The young folks always have been kings; The old folks, tired philosophers. Love still desires the same sweet things Be said. Life's cycle reoccurs.

We, who, when prairies met the sky, Homesteaded in a wilderness, In reminiscent moments sigh For "good old days" but we'll confess Our memories are prone to stress Past joys while trouble we forget; We like this modern age no less Than any age whose sun has set.

The smoky lamp, the candle's flare, The "horse and buggy days" are gone; Who is so foolish as to care Or hide the world for moving on? For, after all, life varies not, Cycle of laughter, love and tears. Changeless, no matter what is wrought Into the pattern of the years.
