What Name?

A QUESTION of interest, agitating the minds of some right now, is concerning a name for the new auditorium-gymnasium building of Heppner school.

This paper is not offering the name of any person, yet it would like to see some one of our citizens honored by having his or her name placed on a suitable tablet of bronze over the front entrance, by which the building might hereafter be known.

There's Bunk in 'Cleverness Plea.'

WHETHER it is a phase of inferiority complex or not, it is true that people are always suspicious of clever people.

Those who wish to enhance their own personal reputation may pose as clever men, but those who wish to gain their particular point renounce any appearance of cleverness.

One of the favorite arguments against doing business with other nations is to claim that they are much cleverer than ourselves.

Suspicion of foreigners is all too common and a frequent cause of misunderstandings. It would be much better to be honest and frank ourselves.

A man some time ago wrote a book entitled, 'My Neighbor Is Perfect.'
