

Local Happenings

Mrs. John H. Padberg received the sad intelligence on Sunday of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. W. Lieuallen at 7:00 p. m., Saturday at Tacoma. Funeral services were held for Mrs. Lieuallen at Tacoma on Monday at 1:00 p. m. She was aged 52 years, and a woman highly respected in her home community, where she has resided with her husband, C. W. Lieuallen, for the past 15 years. Mr. Lieuallen was raised in Morrow county and made his home here for many years, being well known to the older settlers here.

Little Ruth Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Green of this city, who has been a patient in the Shrine hospital for crippled children at Portland since the 17th of last June, was given a final operation yesterday, and her parents are informed that she will be restored to normal health when she recovers from this. Her improvement under the treatment at the hospital has been gradual, and she has had to wear a cast much of the time since going to the hospital.

Mrs. Ida Dutton drove up from Portland on Friday and remained in the city until Sunday. Motoring to the city with Mrs. Dutton were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Potter and Mrs. Frank Roberts, who enjoyed meeting many old time friends here. The party expected to return to Portland by way of Spray, where Mr. and Mrs. Potter lived for several years, and where Mr. Potter developed the famous Dam ranch.

C. L. Keithley and wife and Mrs. Al Carden were Pendleton people in Heppner on Friday last, being members of the Pendleton caravan coming over to take in a day's program at the Rodeo grounds.

S. S. Stradtman, manager of Farmers Warehouse at Lexington, reports much wheat being shipped out from that point, and it has hardly made a dent in what is piling up in the warehouses and along the track there. Mr. Stradtman, with his family, took time off to come along with all the other Lexington folks to take in the Rodeo on Saturday.

Jason Biddle, who was in the city on Tuesday from his Rhea creek ranch, states that it rained very hard out that way and the ground is quite thoroughly wet and in fine condition for fall work. Seeding will be quite generally under way in that part of the county within the next week or so, providing the weather is not too wet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor of Ione were visitors in the city on Tuesday. Mr. Minor is doing quite an extensive business in dairying and at present is milking 23 cream producers, bringing the product to the local creamery. He finds this a good source of income and quite a profitable adjunct to the sheep business.

Miss Beth Bleakman departed Saturday for Monmouth where she will attend the Oregon Normal until the first of the year, at which time she will have completed her work. Miss Bleakman was teacher in the Heppner schools last year, having charge of the little folks entering the primary at the mid term.

C. W. Shurte, former Heppner resident now living in Portland, is reported to be very ill at a Portland hospital. S. E. Notson who returned yesterday from a business trip to the city brought the word.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Green were in the city from Eight Mile Wednesday, Mr. Green delivering the last truck load of his crop to the warehouse. The rain out that way on Tuesday was very heavy and the ground has been put in fine condition for fall seeding.

Mrs. Hugh C. Currin was over from the Currin ranch near Pilot Rock on Saturday, to take in the last day of the Rodeo and have a visit with her mother, Mrs. Jerry Brosnan. She was accompanied by several of the teachers in the Pilot Rock school.

Marion Evans, who recently underwent a major operation at Heppner Surgical hospital, is rapidly recovering, and is now able to get out and enjoy a little fresh air each day. He expects to be able to return home in another week.

Albert Peterson and wife were Heppner visitors during the Rodeo from their Ukiah home. Mr. Peterson acted as one of the judges for the events at the arena. Mrs. Peterson is remembered by Heppner friends as Miss Ruth Huddleston.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wells and son Woodrow attended the last two days of the Rodeo, from their Pendleton home.

Editor Aldrich of the Pendleton East Oregonian was among the visitors here from his city to take in the Rodeo on Friday. Sorry we missed the chance to have a short visit with him when he called at this office.

Rev. Stanley Moore and wife went to Canyon City on Wednesday to attend a meeting of the Episcopal clergy of the Eastern Oregon district in session there this week end. They expect to return Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson were up from Portland over the week end, to visit relatives and friends and take in the programs at the Rodeo ground.

Turn the key! and your Buick is Double-Locked

No lock could be safer! One turn of the key locks both ignition and steering wheel. But merely turning off the ignition does not lock the wheel. You may shut off the engine and coast, if you like, and still have your car under perfect control.

And no lock could be more convenient! It is illuminated and located within easy reach, where the steering column meets the dash.

The Buick double-lock is an exclusive Buick feature—one of many important refinements which characterize Buick for 1928.

Good Sires Improve the Herd

THE way to greater prosperity on the farm is being pointed out by the activities of Cow Improvement and Testing Associations all over the country. Efforts have been directed, particularly, towards improvements in both herds and sires.

Remarkable successes have been recorded, the most recent coming from a progressive mid-Western Association. One of the herd sires in the association has 15 daughters (in 6 different herds) averaging 471 pounds of butter fat each. A son of this sire has 5 daughters (3 yearlings and 2 two-year-olds) whose average production is 41 pounds of fat per month.

The First National Bank of Heppner endorses every effort put forth to raise the standard and production of dairy stock as exemplified and advocated at the forthcoming Pacific International Livestock Exposition, Portland, Ore., October 29 to November 5. Plan to be there.
