

COURT PROCEEDINGS SEPTEMBER TERM

Be it remembered, that County Court met in regular session at the Court House in Heppner, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 7th day of September, 1927, when among others the following proceedings were had, to-wit:

Court opened the various bids for the purchase of $120,000 of road bonds and the A. D. Wakeman & Co., being the highest and best bidder the said bonds were sold to A. D. Wakeman & Co., at the price of $102.00 per hundred dollars of bonds.

Court allowed the sum of $20.00 for the maintenance and upkeep of Edgar M. Matteson, same to be paid monthly the same as the salaries of County Officials.

The petition of Jeff Jones et al., for the vacation of a part of a county road was read and W. L. McCaleb, A. A. McCabe and John Iler appointed viewers and Sept. 20, 1927, set as the date of making the view of the proposed vacation.

The viewers' report in the matter of the road petition of R. V. Jones et al., was read and referred to the District Attorney.

The court ordered transfer of $1000 to the Eight Mile bond fund and $1000 to the McNabb West bond fund both amounts to be transferred from the Bond Fund.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH GIVES INFANTILE PARALYSIS WARNING. By State Board of Health. Seventy-two cases of epidemic infantile paralysis have been reported to the Oregon State Board of Health. There is no desire to cause unnecessary alarm, but the fact remains that there is an unusually large number of cases of infantile paralysis in this state. Reports from other states indicate an increase in the number of cases of infantile paralysis reported as well as in Oregon. Every available precaution against its spread should be taken. Children should not be permitted to come in contact with sick persons whether it be adults or children who are ill. The essential point in treatment during the acute stage of infantile paralysis is to keep the patient quiet and avoid handling as much as possible. Spinal punctures may be used to relieve pressure. Occasionally splinting may be necessary to prevent deformity. Serum from convalescent cases has been found of value. There appears to be much difference of opinion as to the value of stock serum now on the market. Such serum is made by the use of a streptococcus which is not yet accepted as the cause of infantile paralysis. After the acute stage is over, the treatment consists in reeducating the muscles, correcting any deformity that may have occurred, and preventing further deformity. This line of treatment, of course, should be in charge of a qualified physician. In the best hands it often requires a period of years to obtain the greatest degree of improvement in the after-care of infantile paralysis cases. The cause of infantile paralysis is not known. The virus is known to be present in the discharge from mouth and nose, and also in the secretions of the alimentary tract of a case or carrier. There is still some uncertainty about its method of spreading. It appears probable that healthy carriers and missed cases play an important part in disseminating the disease. Owing to the limitation of our knowledge, it is not possible to prescribe exact measures of control and be sure that they will be effective. It may be well to bear in mind that infantile paralysis is a disease of childhood. About 65 per cent of the cases occur under five years of age, and 30 per cent between the ages of five and ten. Most of the remaining 5 per cent of the cases are in persons under twenty. Thus it appears that very young children are most likely to have this disease. One general measure of protection would be to keep young children away from other people, including relatives, as much as possible. The more persons a child comes in contact with, the more opportunities it would have of being infected in case such persons were carriers. All known cases should be isolated and placed under quarantine during the acute stage, and children in con-

Star Theater, Heppner, Ore. THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, SEPT. 29 AND 30: Rin-Tin-Tin in "THE NIGHT CRY" A thrilling tale of Rin-Tin-Tin, a courageous, powerful and loyal dog in the sheep-raising section of Nevada, who guarded his master's baby with loving care and did battle with his enemies without fear or dead. You will pronounce it the best RIN-TIN-TIN picture you have ever seen. Don't miss it. Also SCREEN SNAP SHOTS, RARE BITS AND CAPERS OF THE CAMERA, three reels of unusual comedy and curiosities. SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1: Johnnie Walker and Dorothy Revier in "THE CLOWN" A throbbing cross-section of circus life, realistic, powerful, a story wherein the motley's mask hides many a heartache and the gay antics of the sawdust circle covers bitter tragedy. Also FLAMING ICE, cartoon comedy, and KINOGRAMS News Reel. SUNDAY AND MONDAY, OCTOBER 2 AND 3: Buster Keaton in "THE BATTLING BUTLER" Dan Cupid never played a funnier trick than when he put boxing gloves on Buster and made him fight for a bride. The most amusing and surprising prize fight in screen history. It's a knockout. Also two reel comedy BIG BUSINESS. Children 20c—Adults 40c TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, OCT. 4 AND 5: Betty Bronson and Ricardo Cortez in "THE CAT'S PAJAMAS" If you love fast, frisky comedy in which there's the sweet flavor of romance, plenty of laughs and a dash of tabasco, here it is to perfection. Also KISS ME KATE, comedy, and THE TAIL OF THE MONK, a cartoon. COMING NEXT WEEK: REX (the hero of Black Cyclone) in THE DEVIL HORSE Marie Prevost and Louise Fazenda in BOBBED HAIR ALASKAN ADVENTURES An epic of the Northland Bebe Daniels in STRANDED IN PARIS
