An all day meeting of the Missionary society of the Christian church was held at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker on Tuesday. Besides the usual devotional services, which were led by Mrs. Spencer Crawford, the members and visitors enjoyed a good social time. Miss Phyllis Brown, recently returned from the Near East, attended and gave an interesting talk on the work of relief in which she has been interested for several years. The ladies of the missionary society will care for the schooling of one orphan in connection with that work the coming year.

Architect Jenkins spent Monday and a part of Tuesday in Heppner from his home at Albany. He was here to look over the work on the new school building, and found it progressing satisfactorily in every respect. Contractor Olson has been pushing the construction along as fast as possible, but wet weather and lack of material has caused some delays and he will not be able to complete the job in the time he had set, though he will not be behind on the schedule called for in the contract, and expects to finish up about the 10th of November.

C. H. Latourell and his Tillamook friends, D. W. Ackley, E. M. Condit and Clint King, departed for the mountains this morning in quest of deer. The Tillamook gentlemen, with Mr. and Mrs. Latourell, had a hunt in the Blue mountain deer country some two weeks or more ago and bagged three bucks, and the men from the coast city think our section a wonderful place for an outing of this kind, hence their second visit here before the deer season closes.

County Agent Smith took Mrs. Smith and the children to Messner on Monday, where they took the train for Spokane to visit with her parents for a short time. Mrs. Smith will also visit with the parents of Mr. Smith at Palouse, Wash., before returning home.

Otto Ruhl, Lexington wheastraiser, was attending to business in this city on Monday afternoon. A heavy rain came down over that part of the country Monday and summerfallow ground is in excellent shape for fall seeding.

Karl L. Beach, merchant and banker of Lexington, was a business visitor in Heppner on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough have moved to Portland where they will reside for the winter. Their home will be at 1185 Rodney avenue. Mr. McCullough just recently disposed of his land holdings in this county, but they have their city property in Heppner yet.

Senator Bob Carsner, leading stockman of Wheeler county, is a visitor in Heppner today from his home at Spray. Mr. Carsner states that his country has been mighty wet of late, but there is no particular complaint on this account.

Mrs. Harvey Miller left the Heppner Surgical hospital Monday morning to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Sam Turner. The new baby is doing well, according to the doctor's report.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hynd of Cecil were visitors here the first of the week. When they returned home they rode in a new Chrysler sedan, purchased from Walter LaDusaire, local dealer.

The Boy Scouts had their first real live meeting this past Tuesday. There were eleven boys out. These who had passed tests received their scout pins and membership cards. We want to have a real live troop this year. Come out Tuesday, 11th, at 7:15 and join us and enjoy our fun and fellowship. We are attempting to organize a drum and bugle corps. We need funds and would be glad to receive the assistance of any of our older friends and relatives.

The Boy Rangers will meet this Thursday, 6th, in the Episcopal parish house. Bring in any recruits that are ready to join our organization.

During the week of Oct. 30th to Nov. 6th the Ven. Mr. Sidney Creasey will conduct an eight-day mission in the Episcopal church. The churches are deeply concerned over the life of our nation today and the state of the souls of men in general. Many problems face us—the home, the church, our children, ourselves, our community, our nation, all present questions that seem unanswerable to many. We want to try to find some answers to these questions during this mission.

IS EVOLUTION TRUE?

Many textbooks and teachers of our schools work on the theory that evolution is a proven fact. Is it? Some pertinent remarks will be made at the evening preaching hour at the Church of Christ.

At the morning hour Miss Phyllis Brown will speak in the interests of the Near East Relief.

Were you among those present at our splendid Bible school last Sunday? We have a place for you. Christian Endeavor at 8:30. MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7—(ONE DAY ONLY):
Rex, the horse starred in BLACK CYCLONE, and Yakima Canutt, one time winner of the Pendleton Round-Up championship in "THE DEVIL HORSE"
A wild horse hero, with the pride of the unconquered, the ruggedness of nature, the heart of a human being, unrelenting, revengeful, making war on Indians and Indian herds in the dead of night or the blaze of noon. The tremendous human interest of this picture makes it one of the truly great productions. If you saw "BLACK CYCLONE," you will surely want to see "THE DEVIL HORSE."
Also FELIX, the world famous cat, SHATTERS A SHEIK. And Jack Daugherty in STRINGS OF STEEL, the romantic development of the telephone told on the screen in the terms of high power action, a ten-episode chapter play.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8:
Marie Prevost, Kenneth Harlan, Louise Fazenda in 'Bobbed Hair'
A rollicking mystery-drama of love and adventure. A romantically adventurous tale of a girl who did not know which of two men she loved, so she ran away, in her masquerade costume of a nun, and in an exciting, thrilling night of adventure found the man she could, would and did marry. Hilariously funny. Also cartoon comedy YELLOW PIRATE and KINGGRAMS NEWS REEL.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, OCTOBER 9 AND 10:
Art Young, World Famous Bow and Arrow Hunter, in "ALASKAN ADVENTURES"
A Greater-Drama Than Any Ever Written By Man! If you're tired of the commonplace, if you want the kind of thrills that come only with Great Adventures—
If you want to stalk the bear and live with nature in her grandest moods, DON'T MISS "Alaskan Adventures." Alaska! Land of Mysteries! Illuminated by the Midnight Sun, where the rivers run "God knows where," and Man is an Infant in the arms of Nature.
An amazing, thrilling spectacle of Nature in her wildest moods.
Also THE BATTLING SUITOR, two reel comedy. CHILDREN 20c—ADULTS 40c.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11 AND 12:
Bebe Daniels and Ford Sterling in... "STRANDED IN PARIS"
Bebe as a peppery New York shop girl let loose on Parisian boulevards. If you're dull and feeling blue, grouchy—don't know what to do, by all means see "Stranded In Paris." This is fine entertainment.
Also POUND FOOLISH, comedy, and SCREEN SNAPSHOTS.

COMING NEXT WEEK:
Fred Thompson and Silver King in DON MIKE. Richard Dix in THE QUARTERBACK. Hoot Gibson in CHIP OF THE FLYING U. Belle Bennett in MOTHER.
