

BOARDMAN

Grange Day was observed Saturday by the local order. Dinner was served at noon, followed by a business meeting. Putting a cement foundation under the Indian Rocks was discussed. It was decided to do this on Wednesday, October 26. The ladies will serve a pet-luck dinner at noon in Root's hall. The community is asked to join in this work. County Agent Smith gave an interesting talk on boosting our community. One man who came here with the intention of buying a chicken farm became discouraged after talking with a few farmers. Someone should have told him that the demand for eggs from the Boardman henneries is greater than the supply, and mentioned the other profitable exports, such as honey, cream, alfalfa and wool.

Dr. and Mrs. F. Gunster of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Meeker of Arlington were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Rands.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dix of Hager, Idaho, visited Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Dix's aunt, Mrs. Chas. Nickerson. Mr. and Mrs. Dix were on their way to Toledo, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester of Shaniko have moved into the Healy residence. Jack Gorham made a business trip to Arlington Monday.

Dan Ransier returned from Pendleton last Tuesday. Mr. Ransier has been suffering from an infection on his face and has been in Pendleton for the past two weeks.

Boardman was visited by thieves Saturday evening. Barlow's garage, service station, Burton's store and J. F. Gorham's store were entered and a Ford touring car was taken from the garage and two dollars in silver from Gorham's store. Entrance was gained to the garage with a key and a tire iron was used to force the doors into the other buildings. Barlow's car was found in Pendleton parked on a side street. No trace of the thieves has been found.

The dance given by the local Odd Fellows lodge was well attended, many from other towns being present. The Twilight Quintette furnished the music.

Mrs. J. Imus returned the last of the week from a month's stay at the Turner home near Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beeks are occupying the Bob Rayburn house. A pleasant affair of the week was the Bridal Shower at the home of Mrs. Dan Ransier Thursday afternoon. Miss Irene Agee was the honored guest and received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The Ladies Aid met at the church Wednesday afternoon. Two quilts were tied and finished.

HARDMAN LOCALS.

The Patron-Teacher association began the year with a very enthusiastic drive for new members. The losing side in the contest entertained the winning side with a party in the high school auditorium Saturday night which all enjoyed immensely. The local association now has sixty-five members and expects to accomplish a great deal this year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robinson motored to Portland and back last week end. Mr. and Mrs. Wes Stevens are moving to town for the winter.

Lon Goldsmith of Mahton, Wash., was a guest of Miss Hildegard Williams on Sunday.

N. F. Lawson arrived from Fruitland, Idaho, last week and is making arrangements to take his family there to reside. The high school was the scene of a most hilarious party when the dear little freshmen received their initiation last Friday night. The freshman class consists of Blanche Howell, Darrel Farrars, Zetta Bleakman and Lucile Farrars.

SERVICES AT ALPINE.

At the Alpine school house on Sunday there will be preaching at 11:00 o'clock by Evangelist Pointer, who is now engaged in holding a meeting at that point. The morning service is to be followed by a basket dinner. There will be preaching in the afternoon, also, following Sunday school.

mous decision of the committee any other student of high school may also be punished. This committee consists of the following boys, four from each of the three upper classes: Gerald Slocum, Bobby Turner, Stephen Thompson, Marvin Gammell, Terrel Benge, Clarence Hayes, Paul Jones, Valoice Bramer, Howard Evans, Fletcher Walker, Duane Brown and Homer Hayes.

GIRLS' SPORTS.

The completion of the new gymnasium is anxiously being awaited by the high school girls who are interested in basketball, and wish to begin practice. There are two "letter" girls from last year's team, Katherine Blabee and Hazel McDavid. The growing interest of the girls in this amusement assures the coach, Mrs. Smith, that she will have a fine team again this year. Mrs. Smith will also direct physical education, beginning about November 5.

The Booster club, an organization of the girls of the high school who wish to boost for the school activities was reorganized at the beginning of this school year. The girls are always at hand to help whenever possible. Some of their aims are to furnish refreshments after basketball games, and to be present in full rooting force at the games of the season. The following officers were elected for this semester: president, Eva Hiatt; vice-president, Hazel McDavid; secretary, Mae Doherty; treasurer, Mary Monahan; sergeant at arms, Jeanette Turner.

Freshman Initiation.

Seven o'clock, Saturday, October 15, the members of the class of 1931, timidly entered the basement of the high school, where "cruel" sophomores dressed them in gunny sacks and many curious and garish outfits, some of which did not please "mildly's" taste.

The sophomores paraded the new class on Main street, and then entered the Star theater. Gordon Buck-num, president of the freshman class, and dressed as a baby, carrying a huge bottle, made a speech about the entire classes' greenness. The initiation proper was at the Swindig hall. After carefully passing the stages of the ordeal of initiation, the freshmen were treated to refreshments of punch and wafers.

Class Rush Held.

The annual class rush which took place at the Rodeo grounds Friday, October 14, was the cause of much excitement and all high school classes were excused to witness the event.

This is a very important occasion between the sophomores and freshmen, to determine whether the latter are entitled to a full-sized pennant of their own choosing, or to an undersized green symbol, signifying their defeat.

After a suitable and amusing parade on Main street, the contestants and spectators went to Rodeo field. Here the great duel was to take place. Points were given for the following events: ticket selling, peanut race, push-of-war, hundred yard dash, three-legged race, crab race, boys' tug of war, girls' tug of war, boys' and girls' relay race, sack race, and field marking contest.

The sophomores were victorious, with 780 points to the advantage, thus assuring the freshmen a small green pennant for the remainder of this year. The freshmen met their defeat heroically, showing their good sportsmanship, when defeated.

Grade News.

A Harmonic club is being organized in the grades under the supervision of Miss Wright, the music instructor. The children are taking a great interest in this club.

The grade school football team is expected to play Condon Saturday, October 22, although definite plans have not been made.

The Audubon society, being carried on in the third grade, is composed of fifty in membership, taking the study of birds. In their room, they have studied the Horned Owl, Ruby Crown Kinglet, and Myrtle Warbler. A humming-bird nest and the Ruby Crown Kinglet are in their collection.

On their field trip they studied the Grosbeak.

Some of the people on the honor roll are: Billy Thomson of the 5th grade, Mary Driscoll and Dorothy Nielsen of the 7th grade. The requirements for acquiring a place on the honor roll are: all grades must be above B, deportment A, and have no absences or tardiness.

In the 7th grade, Mrs. Rogers is carrying out project work. June Anderson is working out a project on the battles of the Revolutionary War. Winifred Case is working out a project for the countries of Europe, and Gladys Erwin is working out a project on the industries of the British Isles.

The monthly report cards in the high school and grades were issued Wednesday.

High School Parade.

The freshmen, dressed in suitable costumes, some as small girls with all-day suckers, and others as clowns, headed the grand procession of the four classes in a parade on Friday afternoon, October 14. The parade started from the high school building and filed thru the thoroughfare to Main street, and from there to the Rodeo grounds, where the class rush was to occupy the remainder of the afternoon. The vigilance committee was in charge of the affair.

PERSONALS.

Miss Wright, supervisor of music, is the recipient of the glad news from her father whose home in Portland, that her mother is much improved at the present time, and it is hoped that she will steadily improve as the days advance. This comes as a great relief to Miss Wright, who was about to secure a substitute for her position in the school and leave to take care of her mother. The entire school's best wishes for a speedy recovery are extended to Mrs. Wright in her illness.

Earl Ayers, former pupil in Heppner high, was a visitor at school last Monday.

The high school student body mourns the loss of three of its students, Mae, Gertrude and Helen Doherty. Mae will attend St. Joseph's Academy at Pendleton and Gertrude and Helen will register at St. Francis' Academy in Baker.

Office News.

The high school gym is nearing completion. The carpenters are working on the floor and the roof. Mr. Burgess states that they are also preparing to start on the furnishings.
