

Local Happenings

Weeding and seeding are progressing well throughout the Eight Mile country, is the report we get. For a time the ground was too wet to get into the fields, but this condition has changed in the past week or two, and work is now proceeding well. Egbert Young, who was a visitor in town Saturday, states that he has about all his seeding done and the grain is coming along well. In more than 40 years of residence in this county, Mr. Young states he has no recollection of a better fall season than the present; in fact it has been two summers in one, is the way he expresses it.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hardesty of Morgan when their daughter Eudora was united in marriage with M. S. D. Seely. The marriage was solemnized at noon, Saturday, October 15, in the presence of the parents of the bride and groom. The service was read by Rev. W. W. Head, pastor of the Congregational church at Lone. The young couple will make their home on the Gus Liebl place which Mr. Seely has rented—lone independent.

Elza Vinson and wife have been spending the past week or so on Butter creek, so that Mrs. Vinson could receive medical treatment. She has been suffering an attack of erysipelas but is quite well recovered at this time under the treatment of Dr. McMurdo of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Vinson reside near Kimberly, Oregon, and they report good crops and splendid range conditions in that part of Grant county this season.

Judge Fee was over from Pendleton on Thursday last and held a short term of court. The case of Hamm vs. Biddle, over the cancellation of a lease was heard before the judge at this time. On Friday the docket was called, after which Judge Fee returned to Pendleton. He contemplates visiting the county again previous to the regular December term of circuit court.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Swift were visitors here and at the home of Mrs. Swift's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Copenhaver over the week end. They reside at Kamela where Mrs. Swift is teaching this year. Mrs. Lonnie Copenhaver accompanied them on their visit to Heppner Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scribner and sons were in the city on Saturday from their home in Democrat gulch, on the west side of the county. The oldest boy recently suffered a broken arm in a fall, and he was brought to town to receive medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Huston were visitors here on Tuesday afternoon from their home at Eight Mile.

Mrs. M. J. Huston went to Dufur yesterday, where she was called on account of the death of her aunt, Mrs. M. J. Klinger. Mrs. Klinger died at the Imperial hotel in Portland on Monday, being on her way to California. She was 84 years of age and had been very active up until a couple of weeks ago, when she went to a hospital in The Dalles for medical treatment. Improving, she had undertaken the journey to California. Funeral services will be held at Dufur today at 1:00 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson returned home on Thursday night from Lakeview, Oregon, where they were called last week by the death of their son-in-law, Vernon Stickle. Mr. Stickle was a victim of pneumonia and was confined to his bed but ten days when death came. He leaves a wife and three small children, and Mrs. Stickle and the children returned to Heppner with Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson and will reside here for the time being.

C. L. Gilliland is on the branch line again, having taken the place of Harry Davis, who recently moved to Portland. Mr. Gilliland and family resided in Heppner some years ago, when he held a similar place on the branch. His family now resides in Portland and will not be with Mr. Gilliland here as he does not desire to take the children out of school there. He expects to be here for the winter.

W. B. Tucker has leased the Mrs. Hill place, known as the Stalter ranch, and his son-in-law, Archie Nichols of Lexington, will move there and take charge, beginning at once preparations for the fall seeding. There is a lot of good farm land on this place and it is a fine wheat producer when looked after properly.

J. B. Huddleston has been spending several days in the city from his Lone Rock ranch. He would have returned home the first of the week, but feared the road was a little too wet for comfortable travel. Miss Bess Huddleston was also a visitor here, accompanying her brother.

Dan Stalter is in from the Mayflower mines, after spending the summer season in production work. The Greenhorn mining district is taking on new life and there is much activity in different mines in that locality. Mr. Stalter has had a successful season this year.

FOUND—Bunch of keys on sidewalk north side of Hotel Heppner. Owner can get same by calling at this office.

Mike Marshall, sheepman of Boardman, was a visitor in Heppner on Friday last.

Art Gemmill is moving right along with his fall work, and reports his summerfall in mighty fine shape for seeding. About four days in the ground and the seed comes right along. Weather conditions could not be better.

Mat Halvorsen spent a few hours in Heppner on Monday from his home near Lone. He has had a fine harvest this season, and is looking forward to another abundant yield for the coming year, if present prospects hold out.

Several different kinds of winter apples, fairly free from worms; picked, $2 sack at orchard, or $1.25 per box. Windfalls, $1 sack. J. E. Musgrave, three miles south of Jordan Siding on Rhea creek. 31-3

Ray McAlister of Lexington spent a few hours in Heppner Saturday. He has but recently returned from an extensive auto trip over a portion of the northwest country, which he greatly enjoyed.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Sharp of Pilot Rock were in Heppner on Monday. Dr. Sharp, who is a dentist, will take up practice here just as soon as suitable office space can be secured.

Attorney W. W. Wood of Ontario has been spending several days at Heppner this week in the interests of the estate of James H. McHaley of which he is trustee.

H. Gwendolyn Jones, of Concord, N. H., who finished second in the primaries and is now in the race for mayor of that town on a platform of no "applesauce promises"—the practice of politicians, she says.

County Surveyor Harris was in

Heppner Saturday from his home at Lone, looking after official business. He reports the lone people as feeling in much better humor this fall, owing to the splendid yield of grain in that part of the county.

Clerk Anderson and Dr. F. E. Farrior, football fans, motored to Portland by way of Pendleton the end of the week. Going around that way they were able to take in the big game at Pendleton Friday afternoon and then drive on in to Portland for the O. A. C-Stanford game Saturday afternoon.

Dillard French was down from his ranch at Gurdane on Saturday, being interested in the shipment of three cars of cattle to the Portland market from the local yards Saturday night. Range conditions are excellent in the foothills and the French cattle come to market in prime condition.

I represent the California Perfume Co. and carry a line of goods we use every day. Birthday and holiday gifts a specialty. Order early. Mrs. Mattie Adkins. 31-2

Ralph Akers, lone merchant, was attending to business in this city on Saturday. Mr. Akers states that business conditions are greatly improved at Lone this fall.

Provides Liberal Farm Education

EVERY division of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition presents innumerable opportunities for valuable education in conducting farming operations.

And yet this training is available to every farmer in this section at a minimum of cost and effort.

During the week of October 29 to November 5, inclusive, the Pacific International holds its 17th Annual Exposition. Millions of dollars' worth of the nation's finest Pure Bred Livestock will be exhibited—Cattle, Horses, Sheep, Hogs, Goats, and Foxes. $100,000.00 will be awarded in Premiums. Also there will be Pacific International's spectacular Horse Show; great Dairy, Land and Manufacturers' Products Shows; Wool Show and Industrial Exposition.

No matter what branch of farming you have adopted, we, here at the First National Bank unhesitatingly recommend that you attend this year's Pacific International. Avail yourself of all the information obtainable; then profit by applying the principles learned to the solution of your own farm problems.

Camel

The cigarette preferred by experienced smokers

In the remarkable growing popularity of the cigarette many brands have bid for favor, but Camel continues to lead by billions. Quality put it there; quality keeps it there.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
