Mrs. Chris P. Brown returned home the end of the week from a visit of nearly two months with relatives in Tulsa Oklahoma, and at her girlhood Tulsa Oklahoma, and at her girhood home in Ava, Mo., in the midst of the Ozark mountains. It had been a doz-ten years since Mrs. Brown left her home in Missouri, and she noted that many changes had taken place there in that time. While she enjoyed the visit greatly, she is glad to be back to Morrow county, and more content than ever with her home in Oregon.

Judge R. L. Benge and Commis-sioner Davidson were in Portland this week and met with the state highway commission, calling attention to needs of cooperation on the Heppner-Spray road. Judge Benge is pleased with the attitude of the comregarding this road, and mission there is every reason to expect some favorable action later on. Commis-sioner Sawyer has promised to go over this road and make a personal view of the situation soon.

Nat Shaw is feeling good over the splendid conditions prevailing in his section, Clarks canyon, for fall seeding. In fact he is just about as happy as he has ever been in his life; a good crop this season and another in pros-pect is just about the ideal situation. Ilis grain is mostly in the ground, is coming up well and best of all, there was a splendid chance to kill off the weeds before the seeding began. Mr. Shaw was attending to business here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beymer accompanied by Mrs. L. E. Bisbee and Mrs. Katherine Farnsworth, drove to Fortland yesterday. At Portland Mrs. Farnsworth intended to take the train for Redwood City, Calif., where she will visit for the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Dinsmoor. Mrs. Bisbee expects to spend a week or so in Portland, but Mr. and Mrs. Beymer will return home this week

At the close of the deer season, Dr. Johnston and Charley Cox came in with a fine buck, the result of several days of hunting in the Ditch creek day and will remain here for the wincountry. We understand that it was Charley's gun that brought down the game, as the doctor failed to get any Vaughn.
