TEAL AND DANA HEAD RAPIDS ASSOCIATION

Effective Leaders Retained by Umatilla Rapids Organization.

Pendleton East Oregonian.

With Marshall N. Dana as president and Joseph N. Teal chairman of the executive committee for another year the Umatilla rapids association will conduct its campaign under the same effective leadership as during the past few years.

"Don't change horses while crossing the stream" was the idea at the meeting here yesterday and with that thought in mind Messrs. Dana and Teal remain on the job. The stream crossing just now consists in the effort to secure the approval of the McNary-Sinnett bill by the senate and house committees on reclamation and irrigation.

The hearings have been set for the second week in January and most of the business yesterday pertained directly or indirectly to getting ready for the event. The executive committee was given full power to handle all matters arising and following the adjournment of the membership meeting designated J. N. Teal, Marshall Dana, George C. Baer and E. B. Aldrich to represent the association in the hearings at Washington. Meanwhile a committee of five has been placed in charge of the preparation of a brief to be filed with the committee members. George C. Baer, secretary, is a member of this committee and is now at work in the preparation of the data.

Cheerful news with reference to the financing of the association was brought from Portland by Mr. Teal. He has named A. H. Devers as Portland chairman of the finance committee and Mr. Devers is securing funds needed to carry on the work. Reports are that he is meeting with success in the metropolis. The Portland chamber of commerce has given $1000 to the association and the remainder of the Portland money will be subscribed privately.

G. A. Hartman, R. D. Ritzer, C. F. Stinson, Pasco, and E. B. Aldrich were named as a special finance committee to cover the interior district.

By resolutions passed unanimously the association yesterday voted gratitude for the good work carried on by Senator McNary and Congressman Sinnett and also expressed appreciation for the aid taken by the Portland chamber. The Portland body has made the present one of its major activities and has offered all help "humanly possible."

The full list of officers and committeemen named yesterday is as follows: Marshall N. Dana, Portland, president; G. A. Hartman, Pendleton, vice president; M. A. Means, Lewiston, vice president; William Warner, Alameda, Wash., vice president; George C. Baer, Pendleton, secretary; Joseph N. Teal, Portland, chairman executive committee; other executive committeemen: A. H. Devers, Portland, D. C. Brownell, Umatilla, Roy T. Bishop, Portland, S. H. Boardman, Boardman, E. B. Stacey, Hermiston, B. F. Hill, Walla Walla, Judge J. A. Fee, Jr., Pendleton, Roy W. Ritzer, Pendleton, E. A. Cox, Lewiston, A. Alford, Lewiston, Senator L. L. Mann, Pendleton, James Johns Sr., Pendleton, Representative C. F. Stinson, Pasco, and E. B. Aldrich, Pendleton.

JOIN BAR ASSOCIATION.

Attorneys C. L. Sweek, Jos. J. Nys and S. E. Notson attended a banquet in Pendleton last evening, honoring the members of Oregon's supreme court, which is holding sessions in that city this week. The object of this meeting was state wide in its scope, and some 200 attorneys from all over the state had gathered at Pendleton, the object being to interest them in the formation of county or district bar associations. Besides this point, a number of matters came up for discussion, and some remedial legislation was suggested. One of these features was the raising of salaries of the circuit judges in the state, and very good reasons were advanced as to why this should be done. The members of the local bar have joined with the Umatilla county bar in the formation of the Sixth Judicial District Bar association, which includes Morrow and Umatilla counties. Similar associations will be formed over the state where counties are not large enough to maintain an association of their own. The local attorneys report a very excellent meeting at Pendleton.

These prices are net to grower. Swift & Co. bid 40 1/4 cents for toms; 39 1/2 cents for hens; 34 1/2 cents for old toms, and 31 1/2 cents for No. 2s. Mrs. C. E. Glasgow Dies at Yakima, Wn.

Mrs. C. E. Glasgow of Irrigon died in Yakima on Thursday evening, October 27, after about ten days' illness with what was first supposed to be bronchial pneumonia and heart trouble, but the immediate cause of death was cerebral paralysis.

Mrs. Glasgow, who was Agnes N. Nolan, daughter of Bernard and Idella Nolan, was born in Sioux City, Iowa, July 26, 1883, and at her death was 44 years, 3 months and 1 day of age. Her childhood was spent at Sioux City until she was 11, when, with her parents, she moved to Galena, Ill., and grew to womanhood. She was united in marriage to Chas. E. Glasgow, and to this union one daughter was born. The daughter, Mrs. Geneva Hayden of Seattle, Wn., and the husband are left to mourn her departure, besides a number of other relatives and a host of friends in the community.

Mrs. Glasgow came with her husband to Irrigon in 1919 where she has since resided and been very active in all work for the good of the community. In the Irrigon community everyone was her friend. Her home on the river will be remembered by many of adjoining counties because of the hospitality and activities of Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow.

Burial was in the beautiful new Masonic cemetery (Acacia) in Seattle under the auspices of Myrtle Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, of Seattle, assisted by Umatilla Chapter No. 107 of Umatilla, of which Mrs. Glasgow was a past matron. All funeral arrangements were under her direction, as she realized the end was near to the fight she had made for 11 years without one word of complaint.

Man Very Seriously Injured In Runaway

Harold Van Horn of Blackhorse is confined at the Heppner Surgical hospital under the care of Dr. McMurdo and in a very critical condition as the result of a runaway accident at the farm on last Thursday afternoon. He had just finished hitching the team to a double disc harrow in the barnyard, when the team started, catching Mr. Van Horn under the disc and dragging him for a distance of some 200 yards over the hard ground. His left leg was almost severed just below the hip and his legs and body cut in many places. The dirt of the barnyard was ground into the cuts and made it very difficult to properly treat the wounds. The young man is still in a critical condition, not having recovered from the shock, and it is doubtful just now what the result will be.

HEPPNER GETS VITAL BREAK.

Heppner received the major break and won the football game at Lexington last Sunday afternoon, 6-3, after being outplayed in all departments. Paul Aiken intercepted a Lexington pass in the last period and raced 80 yards to a touchdown. Lexington scored in the first quarter on a beautiful drop-kick by Vester Lane, from a difficult angle. The Wheat City boys had a considerable edge on yardage gained from scrimmage as well as return of punts, the latter department being handled in fine style by Glen Sherer. Lex worked a series of lateral pass and delayed back plays that gave the fans a real thrill, for several first downs. Crockett Sprouls, Heppner quarterback, was one of the outstanding players, taking advantage of openings on several occasions and squirming his way to large yardage gains. Gene Doherty, at the center of the Heppner line, was a bulwark on defense as was also Frances Doherty at end. Von Luebken, Heppner guard and Clarence Bauman, Lexington tackle, were other outstanding linemen.

JOHN HARRISON BOWER.

John Harrison Bower was born in Sheridan county, Kansas, Nov. 19, 1888, and died Oct. 23d, 1927, at Albany, Oregon, aged 39 years.

The greater part of his life was spent in Morrow and Grant counties, taking up a homestead near Hamilton in the latter county, and while living there he was united in marriage to Minnie Awen on Nov. 18, 1914, at Corvallis. To this union two sons were born, Donald Harrison Bower, aged 19 years, and Charles Milton, 3 years old. With his family he moved to Jefferson, Oregon, 4 years ago from Grant county, and at that place became a member of the Evangelical church.

He is survived by the following: wife and two sons, mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Emry, two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Haines of Kings Valley, Oregon, Mrs. Mae Warren of Boardman, and one brother at La Grande, Oregon, and four step-sisters, Mrs. F. D. Fuqua of Portland, Mrs. Bert Bleakman and Mrs. Chas. McDaniel of Hardman and Mrs. Tom Ramsdell of Salem.

Mr. Bower was a devoted husband, son and father. His funeral was held from Fortmiller's undertaking parlors at Albany, Oct. 26, at 10:00 a. m., and interment was at Riverside cemetery in that city. He spent the most of his school days at Hardman, where he was well known and respected.

SOCIAL CLUB ENTERTAINS.

On Monday evening at Masonic hall the Eastern Star social club were hostesses to the husbands of the members, and a very delightful time was had. All decorations were in keeping with the time, it being Halloween. Several tables of bridge were in play and honors went to Mrs. Earl Gilliam, D. M. Ward and Harvey Bauman. Delicious refreshments were served. The regular meeting of the club was held on Saturday afternoon on which occasion Mesdames Earl Gilliam and Alva Jones were hostesses, preparing and serving a delicate luncheon. Bridge was the order for the afternoon and honors went to Mrs. A. H. Johnston and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

E. M. Huiden, formerly of this county and now residing near Blackfoot, narrowly escaped serious injury Tuesday when the automobile he was driving turned completely over. Going at quite a rapid rate of speed he came upon the car of Sheriff McDuffee who was on his way toward Heppner, a short way below Lexington, and evidently not noticing the car until too close to give alarm he attempted to pass on the wrong side. He narrowly missed colliding with the McDuffee car, but was forced onto a bank to such a degree that the car turned over. Aside from a broken window and a dented top the car was not hurt and Mr. Huiden escaped unscathed.

David H. Grabbil, pioneer lone resident, was attending to matters of business in this city the first of the week.

Allan Thomson, Butter creek farmer, was a visitor in Heppner on Saturday, looking after matters of business here.

W. O. Goodwin, Boardman Justice of the peace, is confined at the Morrow General hospital, suffering a sustained illness.

Heppner High Trounces Arlington High, 37 to 0

Heppnerian Reporter.

Last Saturday the Heppner high school football team added another league victory to their list when they defeated the Arlington team 37 to 0. The game started with Arlington kicking off and Heppner returning to their 40-yard line. Heppner continued making yardage, with a touchdown resulting within the first five minutes of play. During most of the game the ball was in possession of the local team, who scored six touchdowns, but made good only one try for point.

Although the game was somewhat crowded, there was plenty of thrills during the whole afternoon. The Arlington team, displaying much fight and determination, came near scoring when they completed two or three long passes. On another attempt to forward pass, the ball was intercepted by a Heppner backfield man, thus preventing a score being tallied against them. Much could be said of the good sportsmanship and fight of the Arlington team. In another year, with this year's experience, they will have a much better team.

The race for the championship of the upper Columbia Athletic league is proving to be a fiercely contested one. Thus far Condon and Heppner each have two league victories and no defeats; Ione has two victories and one defeat. They lost to Condon by the close score of 6 to 0. Arlington and Fossil have both lost all of their league games.

The Heppner student body and townspeople are sure to see two exciting battles when Condon comes here on Saturday, Nov. 5, and Ione on Friday, Nov. 11. The boys are looking forward to these two games with determination to win. Victory in either case will mean fight to the finish. If Heppner wins both games they will be the league champions.

The line-up for the Arlington-Heppner game was as follows:

Arlington	le	Heppner
F. Fletcher	le	K. Oviatt
C. McClard	lt	L. Slocum
W. Williams	ig	P. Jones
E. Salling	ig	H. Evans
J. Harford	rg	T. Bengt

W. Learn	re	C. Hayes
H. Holland	qb	H. Gentry
A. Taton	lhb	O. Parker
R. Van Nostern	rhb	R. Turner
J. McClard	fb	S. Thompson

Substitutions—Arlington: F. Erby for F. Fletcher; Heppner: H. Hayes for Oviatt; D. Brown for H. Hayes; Bengt for Slocum; Robinson for Bramer; R. Thompson for C. Hayes.

Good Ventilation Is Essential to Health

State Board of Health.

Good ventilation is necessary to insure comfort, efficiency and health. Overheated, poorly ventilated homes, offices and public buildings are responsible for an enormous percentage of the sickness that occurs during the winter months. Most of our homes are overheated with abnormally dry air in the winter time. When the air is too warm and too dry the skin becomes exceedingly sensitive to cold.

The essentials of good ventilation are: An even, moderate temperature, moisture in the air, and circulation of air. A temperature of 65 degrees F to 67 degrees with about 50 per cent of humidity and without too much air movement is ideal for school room and office ventilation. A room should never be heated above 70 degrees. The ideal temperature is 68. No schoolroom, office, or factory workroom should be considered as furnished and fit for human occupancy without a thermometer. Further, a thermometer is of no value without someone to read it; it should therefore be the duty of someone to note the temperature at definite intervals. Whenever the temperature exceeds 68, something should be done to remedy that condition.

High humidity with high temperature is detrimental to health. Whether low humidity with temperature below 60 degrees is objectionable is still a matter awaiting convincing evidence.

Nine-tenths of the problems of ventilation can be solved by the exercising of common sense along the following simple lines: Place a thermometer in every living room, school room, office and workroom and systematically note the temperature recorded.

Control overheating by moderating artificial heating sources such as radiators or registers. If overheating continues, introduce fresh, cool air by opening windows. The gravity window system admits air over deflecting surfaces such as are provided by slanting window boards. It will maintain a moderate current of cool air, far more pleasing and very much more healthful than the heavy stream of warmer air produced by the fan system. It is, in general, the ideal method for the ordinary schoolroom.

In schools so situated that dirt smells or noise prevent the opening of windows, gravity ventilation will not suffice and we must perforce turn to mechanical ventilation. The most elaborate of mechanical ventilation with automatic temperature regulators, must be watched to see that all its parts are in working order. Constant vigilance is the price of pleasant and wholesome air conditions.

Tickets Sell Good for Lyceum; Starts Tuesday

With the first number of Heppner's Lyceum course coming next Tuesday evening, an aggressive campaign has been waged this week for the sale of season tickets, the outcome of which has been announced as quite successful by Miss Hester Thorpe, chairman of the P. T. A. committee. The American Glee club concert to be here Tuesday, will be given at the Star theater, though the succeeding numbers will take place in the new school auditorium-gymnasium.

Single admission prices for each number will be 60c, making a total of $3.00 for the five numbers. Season tickets are offered at $2.00, making a saving of $1 for the entire course. Every number comes highly recommended and is a class of talent that demands a much higher price off the lyceum platform. Through the lyceum system the entertainment is made available to everyone.

Many articles have already been published by this newspaper regarding the entertainment for Tuesday evening, which, it is believed will be largely attended.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS.

The American Legion Auxiliary met on Tuesday evening, Nov. 1st, thirteen members being present.

Final plans were made for the dinner which the unit will serve on November 10th for the officers of the Elks lodge, and committees were appointed to have charge of the dinner. The membership drive is on! It is time NOW to pay your 1928 dues. Let us be among the first to get our 1928 membership dues in to department headquarters. Our president is offering a prize to the member who secures the most new members by December 1st. Then there is a membership trophy in District No. 2 for which we must compete. This is a cup offered by Mrs. Hugh Brady of La Grande and Mrs. H. E. Shesley of Hermiston, and is given to the unit in District No. 2 having the greatest percentage of increase in members by December 1, 1927. This cup is to become the permanent property of the unit first winning it for two successive years. Let each one of us try to be first to pay up. Your secretary will gladly accept your dues any time and any place.

If anyone has forgotten to bring their bundles of clothing, they may leave them at the Legion hall any time up to Friday afternoon.

The glee club will practice at the hall at 4:00 Friday afternoon.

Hostesses for the next meeting on November 15th will be Mrs. Geo. Clark and Mrs. O. B. Flory.

Okeh Says Coolidge. An Egg for Babe Ruth. An Old Engineer. Children and Sunshine.

President Coolidge, surveying national conditions, finds them excellent. As regards business and prosperity, Secretary Mellon says there is capital, in abundance, for all new ventures worth while, crops are good and automobiles are expected to set new sales records.

Secretary Hoover reports that our exports are increasing. This year is ahead of the same period last year and our exports have one pleasant feature. We are not paying England the high prices for rubber that we paid last year. You may reply to questions about the business outlook, as follows: Nothing the matter, if business does not become afraid of its own prosperity.

Perry Thomas, one of the oldest, most trustworthy engineers on the New York Central, was soon to retire—as soon as he had saved a little more money. Before the day came a head-on collision ended his life, and as he lay dying in the hospital the old engineer, desiring to free everybody else from blame, told witnesses the accident was his fault. He had run by a block signal in the fog.

This reminds the public how much depends upon the railroad engineers. They should be better paid than they are now. And they might well be retired on full pay, without waiting until age dims their sight and dulls their nerves. The public would be willing to pay for it.

At Omaha, Babe Ruth received as token of his greatness, an egg laid by Lady Norfolk, champion hen of the world.

It was the 150th egg laid or batted out by that hen in 170 days. Ruth remarked: "A hen's egg was the river's brim, a simple hen's egg was to him, and nothing more," and went on with his batting. It would surprise the idol of America to know that such a hen as Lady Norfolk is more important to the country than all its baseball players.

Reports from Maine, received out here on the Mojave Desert, indicate that voters must to keep the direct primary system for awhile, at least. Professional politicians will not be able to "deliver" nominations in pre-arranged conventions. And poor millionaires, determined to be somebody, will have to buy the direct primary first, and the election afterward. Hard on politicians, who have less to sell, and on office buyers that must pay high prices for an uncertainty.

The American Public Health Association, gathered at Cleveland, is told that today's greatest cause of death is heart disease. And repeated infections, such as "common cold," to which so little attention is paid, cause heart disease. The trouble starts often in childhood, with childhood's diseases, all of which might be avoided. This should interest parents of the dark ages type who think "the children might as well have measles and such little things first as last and get them over with."

Toronto University proves that sunshine will cure rickets, of which many children die. A German wrote more than 100 years ago, "God may forgive you for not giving to children bread that costs money. But He will not forgive you for depriving them of fresh air and sunlight that cost nothing." To prove that sunshine cures rickets does not mean much when millions of city children can not have the sunshine.

Power companies worth twenty-three billion dollars don't want the Government to harness the Colorado River. That might mean competition in the power business.

Twenty-three billions is less than $230 per inhabitant of the United States, less than the price of a small automobile. "Twenty-three billions" sounds big, but 115,000,000 human beings, all interested in Colorado River development, possess power also. The Colorado will be developed and power gentlemen will be glad when it happens. Learned bankers fought the Federal Reserve law, dreading interference with pleasant profits. It has saved them from black panic half a dozen times.

MALE HELP WANTED.

You see the advertisement often enough but do you notice the kind of men specified. There is something to learn there. This thought is the motive for the evening sermon at the Church of Christ.

The morning sermon is another character study, "Judas and the Money Bags."
