EAST OREGONIAN

ESTIMATES by O. Lauregard, city engineer of Portland, are that electric power consumption in the northwest will have increased 63 per cent in the next five years.

The figures are no doubt conservative as engineering figures usually are. It is estimated by some engineers that power consumption doubles every five years.

The data shows that even at the present commercial rates there will be a demand for Umatilla rapids power before the power can possibly be made available.

But Umatilla rapids power does not look to the sale of power at present rates. If power can be generated at one and two tenths mills per kilowatt hour and wholesale by the government at two mills we should have lower rates.

Under the new era electricity will be used not merely for illumination and power purposes but also for cooking, heating and numerous other purposes.

There can be no question of the market for Umatilla rapids power should the government undertake the project. However, it is not necessary for anyone to rely on hopes or expectations.

May we not expect for the Oregon country the same consideration that has been extended to the southwest under similar circumstances?

Pedestrians these days are going ahead by leaps and bounds. The King of Arabia is having a motor car built large enough to take his twenty wives with him on tour.

Scientists have now decided that "excitement" is an emotion ranking along with love, anger, fear, hate and joy.

So We've Observed

The stunning coast-guard finds the path of duty Full of a most unpleasant one for him— He'd rather neck with some fair bathing beauty Than rescue the old maids who cannot swim.

Half Way Job

"Officer, I'm looking for a man with one eye." "Sure now, if he's a very small man wouldn't it be better to use both of them?"

Truthful Cass

Father: "How is it, young man, that I find you kissing my daughter?" Lizard: "Great! Great!"

Dr. Frank Crane Says

DON'T USE THE HEREDITY ALIBI

DOROTHY DIX had a good article recently on the heredity alibi. She pointed out that this is one of the most abused alibis in the world and one of which the weaklings are especially fond.

If a man has a hereditary leaning, for instance, towards liquor, why doesn't he leave it alone? I know a man who is prominent in politics, himself the Governor of a State and his father before him a Governor.

Likewise any man who achieves success is entitled to credit for it. Other people and events may have contributed to his venture, but they would have meant nothing without his cooperation.

The one thing that a successful man clings to is his sense of responsibility. He is the master of his fate and he ought to be the captain of his soul.

Our true heredity is from God and we all have in us the power to make something of ourselves. The Orientals deify their ancestors, but all we use them for is to put the blame of our actions on them.

Dr. Johnson once asked a woman to marry him and she replied: "Sir, I cannot because my condition in life is not equal to yours. Besides, I have two uncles that have been hung."

He answered: "As far as position in life is concerned, all men are born equal, and as far as ancestors are concerned, while I have no uncles that have been hung, I have several relatives that ought to be hung."
