

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Snyder departed at noon Monday for their new home at Grangeville, Idaho. Mr. Snyder, who has resided here for many years, during which time he worked as harness maker in the shop of E. G. Noble, ran the Heppner Soda Works, and later was with E. N. Gonty shoe store, has purchased a shoe store and repair shop at Grangeville, and will enter business there. Before coming to Heppner Mr. Snyder had been a resident of Grangeville for four years, and he is not going to a strange place. In this new venture the Heppner friends of Mr. and Mrs. Snyder wish them much success.

Milton W. Bower, pastor of the Christian church, was in Pendleton over Sunday, where he filled the pulpit at the Christian church for Guy L. Drill. In the morning here James Pointer, state evangelist who is now in a meeting at Lexington, preached and at the evening service Eldon Wood, Lexington pastor, delivered the sermon. At this service the congregation was favored by having Mrs. Thomas Hughes lead the singing assisted by Mrs. Claud Neely at the piano. As a special number, these ladies sang a duet which was beautifully given.

Frank Harwood this week moved his stock from the Odd Fellows building into one of the front rooms of the Heppner Hotel building, where he will be located in the future. Following bankruptcy proceedings, the stock of Mr. Harwood, together with his store fixtures, had been locked up for several months, pending a settlement which was finally consummated. It is rumored that Sam Hughes has rented the room vacated by Mr. Harwood and will open up a grocery store.

Chas. A. Schoene and Gladys Ortega, young people of Ritter, Grant county, were granted a license to wed by Clerk Anderson on Friday. The couple were later joined in the bonds of matrimony by Justice E. R. Huston, immediately returning to their home near Ritter where they will continue to live.

Elmer Markham, formerly a resident of this county, when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Markham lived here, and also a student in Heppner high school, was a visitor here over the week end with old time friends.

Mr. Markham is now a very successful farmer in the Walla Walla country.

Jerm O'Connor reports the finest fall range in many years on his ranches on Rhea creek and Skinner fork. The abundance of rain has been just what was needed. Mr. O'Connor was doing business in the city Monday.

Frank Gilliam has been appointed guardian of the person and estate of Paul Hiler, taking the place of Helen Groshen McCullough, resigned. The qualifications of Mr. Gilliam were filed with the county clerk this week.

Mrs. E. R. Lovell of Portland, sister, and Mrs. Claud Neely of Eugene, sister-in-law of Mrs. Thomas Hughes, arrived at Heppner on Saturday and will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes until after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Wm. Ayers, widow of the late W. M. Ayers, has been granted by the county court of Morrow county a pension of $10 per month, payable out of the widows' pension fund. She has one dependent child.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer who live near Lexington were visitors here on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud White visited a while in Heppner Tuesday from the farm home out across Sand Hollow. Mr. White had a fine yield of wheat on his ranch the past season and states that there should be good crops in his neighborhood the coming season, as the lands are thoroughly well wet this fall—the best in many long years. Fall seeding has all come along well and the grain is making excellent growth.

Carl Peterson is one of the successful farmers of the Ione country. While in the city on Tuesday he informed this paper that it was too wet in his locality to get through with the seeding. Many had been delayed because of the excessive growth of weeds that had to be disposed of, and it looks now like some were going to have to abandon seeding until spring.

Andrew Olson, who was formerly with the Union Oil Co. here as local manager, but who now resides in Portland where he is employed with a firm dealer in automobile replacement parts, spent a day or so in Heppner the first of the week enjoying a visit with his numerous friends here. Mr. Olson was until recently with the Union Oil Co. at Baker.

Having completed their contract on the new auditorium-gymnasium building, Messrs. Reeves and Olson departed for Portland the end of the week. Mr. Olson had been on the job constantly for two months, and proved to be a "pusher" in moving the work along. Mr. Reeves was here only during the last two weeks while the job was being completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Lindhe of North Sand Hollow, were visitors in Heppner on Tuesday. That part of Morrow county is looking up well this fall, getting thoroughly soaked with moisture, and there should be another fine crop out that way next season.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter LaDusire moved into the Gilman apartments on Tuesday. They were living in the Ayers house, recently purchased by Mrs. Emma Gemmell.

County Agent Smith was in Heppner Saturday where he attended the meeting of the Oregon State Beekeepers' association, held there over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Strodman of Lexington spent a short time in this city on Monday. Mr. Strodman is manager of the Farmers Warehouse at that point.

Egbert Young, Eight Mile wheat-raiser, was doing business in the city on Tuesday.

Grant Olden, Rhea creek rancher, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Winter Apples—Plenty of good ones. Began picking Oct. 1st. Bring sacks. F. Burroughs, Jordan Siding. Straw, pasture and alfalfa hay for sale—good pasture. Ralph Butler on Al Henriksen ranch near Lexington.

NOTICE OF FINAL ACCOUNT.

Thanksgiving

THRIFT FOUNDED THE NATION

THREE hundred—seven years ago a band of Pilgrims first anchored on a wild New England shore.

Scarcely had these brave pioneers settled in their new colony when the terrible winter was upon them. Only half of the party survived the hardships and suffering of that winter.

Nothing daunted, those who were spared stayed on, and planted their crops. By economizing the winter economy they were able to live and prosper. These Pilgrims learned the value of thrift. Their method led us to a lesson that we would do well to follow.

You and your family will prosper and be thankful for opening an account in this reliable institution.

Practice thrift with your spare dollars—that is the surest road to wealth.

Camel

One of life's great pleasures is smoking

Camels give you all of the enjoyment of choice tobaccos. Is enjoyment good for you? You just bet it is.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
