

BOARDMAN

Sorrow once more entered our community when death came suddenly on Tuesday, Nov. 29, to Charles H. Attebury as a result of heart trouble. Mr. Attebury had been in apparently good health and with his brother Ves was loading a car of hay at Boardman. He complained of a pain in the region of his heart and when the bales of hay ceased to come into the car Ves stepped out and found his brother unconscious. At first it was thought he had fainted but death had come suddenly and without pain. Mr. Attebury was 60 years of age the 13th of November. He was born in Fairfield, Ill., coming west twenty-three years ago and coming to Boardman about ten years ago with his two brothers, Ben and Sylvester and families. Several years ago he became a convert to the Adventist church and was a devout member of that faith. His widow, a step-daughter, Mrs. Nottingham of Portland, two brothers, Ben and Sylvester, a sister, Mrs. Ella Lewis of Illinois and Mrs. Clara Tilley of Bakersfield, Calif., two nephews and a niece are left to mourn his passing. Funeral services were held Thursday from the Adventist church, in charge of Elder Thompson of Walla Walla and Elder Watson of McMinnville. Pallbearers were F. A. Fortier, W. A. Price, Chas. Dillon, J. F. Gorham, R. Rands and Mr. Raley.

Mrs. Ingaard Skobo came home last Wednesday from Portland. She is getting along nicely after a recent serious operation.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat motored to Heppner Thursday to get little Nicholas Muller who was at the hospital there with a bad case of blood poisoning. His hand is entirely healed and young Nicholas came home with a fine new outfit of clothes purchased for him by the B. P. O. E. of Heppner.

Paul M. Smith was elected director from this part of the county of the Umatilla Dairy Improvement association which was organized last week at Pendleton. This is a cow testing association and is a step in the right direction in a dairying section. While Mr. Smith was absent a telegram came telling of the serious illness of his father, Oliver Smith at the Ellensburg hospital. Mr. Smith left the next morning for Ellensburg but another telegram came immediately after his departure telling of his father's death. The body was shipped to California for interment. The deceased was about 75 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Macomber and daughter and son of Grandview, Wn., came Saturday for an overnight visit at the home of Nate Macomber. On Sunday all went to Condon to visit at the Albert Macomber home.

Glen Carpenter was here for a few days last week. He and his family are living in Corvallis.

Glen Hadley and Earl Craner motored to Heppner Sunday.

C. Fowler and wife of Rufus were dinner guests Sunday at the J. C. Ballenger home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Imus were pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howk and two children and Mrs. Gerber of Eugene visit them on Monday and Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Howk and Mrs. Gerber are nieces of Mrs. Imus and it had been twenty-one years since Mrs. Imus had seen her niece Mrs. Gerber.

A good show was given Saturday night at the Boardman theater.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lavutz of The Dalles were visitors at the Geo. Gross home Sunday. Mr. Lavutz is the owner of the Albright ranch.

Services will be held on Saturday night at 7:00 o'clock in the Adventist church by Elder J. H. Martin of Spokane. His subject will be "The Only Remedy for Existing Evil."

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Johnson and two children left Monday evening for their home in Spokane after visiting at the Ves Attebury home. They were called here by the death of Mrs. Johnson's uncle, Chas. H. Attebury.

The meeting of the Home Economics club which was to have been held last Wednesday was postponed because of the death of Mr. Attebury. It was held Tuesday of this week at the Chaffee home.

If plans materialize the next meeting of the P. T. A. will be held December 13. Everyone is requested to bring a pie. It is unfortunate that we cannot get a crowd without refreshments but it is undeniably true; hence everyone is asked to bring pie. Also the money for your annual dues.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Faley and R. Wasmer motored to Lexington Saturday and visited at the Harry Schriever home. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Spring made the trip.

Mrs. B. B. Lewis and Mrs. R. S. Smith were visitors Friday at The Dalles.

Miss "Luelle" Leathers and Miss Alice Falk were dinner guests Thursday evening at the Hereim home.

John Koski visited overnight at the Olson and Hango homes, going on to Pendleton Sunday.

Charlie Harrington was found dead in his bed Sunday morning, Dec. 4, by Carl Ayers, a neighbor, at about nine o'clock. Mr. Harrington was a bachelor who farmed on the west end of the project. He had lived here since 1918, coming from Portland. He was born in Maryland and was 63 years of age at the time of his death.

Two brothers, William, of Boardman and Frank of Portland, and his mother, Mrs. Homer Cason of Boardman survive. Coroner Case took the body to Heppner and it was shipped to Portland for interment.

Mrs. Chas. Nizer who has been having trouble with her ankle for about three months, is slowly improving. Their dog bit her and the wound has caused much pain.

Chas. Hango returned home Saturday from Portland, Astoria, Maygar, Kelso and other places of interest where he visited relatives for about ten days.

Mrs. Amos Nottingham who came last week to be with her mother, Mrs. Chas. Attebury, will remain "for a time" with her. Mrs. Nottingham came up to attend the funeral services but was forced to return immediately afterwards.

Earl Clifford and Ray Olson were home over Sunday. They are all employed with the signal crew of the Q.-W. at various points along the line between here and Portland.

W. A. Price and son Billie motored to Heppner Monday.

Shane Bros. of Arlington, who have been running sheep on the island, sold the band recently to a man from Yakima. There were about 1500 in the band.

J. C. Ballenger has been loading hay from Blalock island.

The grange will meet December 10, this Saturday, instead of next. This meeting will be in the form of a home coming with a pot-luck supper served promptly at seven o'clock at Root's hall. There will be election of officers.

Mrs. Nickerson and daughter Edith went to La Grande Monday for a few days' visit. Mr. Nickerson and his nephew Milton Brown have gone to Butter creek to work with Westfeldt's baling crew.

The annual ladies aid bazaar was held Friday night at the school house. Chicken dinner was served by Mrs. L. C. Smith and her able committee consisting of Mesdames Boardman, Blayden, Price, Spring, Rands, Chaffee, Ballenger and Johnson. The crowd was larger than anticipated so some of the late comers lost out on the chicken part of the dinner. The Fortune Telling booth with Miss Henry as the seer or seeress, was exceptionally popular as was the "Hit the Nigger Baby" concession. Mrs. Marschat arranged both these concessions. Kenneth Boardman and Buster Rands were in charge and this was a popular feature. The Service Station with Mrs. Root and Mrs. Messenger in charge was a very busy place. Mrs. Faler, Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. Macomber and Mrs. Allen had charge of the fancy work booth.

Mrs. Marschat took care of the little folks in the sewing room and games of various sorts were played and they all had a delightful time.

Proceeds were about $85 with some expenses to be deducted for use of the schoolhouse, etc.

Dr. McMurdo of Heppner has consented to come to Boardman on Friday of this week to perform tonsil operations for the children of Boardman, many of whom are in sore need of having it done. We are so situated, away from a doctor, that we have a tendency to neglect such needed attentions. Dr. McMurdo will make a special rate which will be able to meet and it is planned to use the school house for a temporary hospital. The physician who made the physical examination of the children last year found 40 children with bad tonsils, a deplorable condition. Parents of the children were interviewed and with only a few exceptions were willing to have their children cared for either here or elsewhere. Tonsillectomy is not a fad—many children go through life seriously handicapped from diseased tonsils. If a child's tonsils are all right it would be folly to have them removed, but if they are enlarged or diseased or if on examination the doctor thinks they should be removed the opportunity will be presented to have it done at this time at a reasonable price.
