

BOARDMAN

Mrs. Royal Rands and Mrs. Brice Dillabough entertained at the Ladies Aid silver tea on Wednesday of last week at the home of the former. Christmas plans were discussed and the topic of "What Christmas Means to the World" was mentioned and several Christmas poems read. The missionary sewing for the hospital in Alaska must be done shortly. Mrs. Root's committee will entertain at the January tea. It was decided not to hold the second meeting this month since it comes so close to Christmas. Mesdames Rands and Dillabough served a lovely lunch.

W. H. Mefford and family left on Thursday for Palouse, Wash., to visit at the Max DeWeese home.

Mrs. Homer Cason and Wm. Harrington returned Sunday from Portland where they went to attend the funeral service of the son and brother, Charles Harrington who died very suddenly last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Spring spent several days in Portland last week. Boardman was visited by the first snowstorm on Friday, December 9. This was followed by a cold snap that brought out extra comforts, over-shoes, mittens and similar accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Spring and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Falter extended their hospitality on Wednesday evening to a congenial group of friends. Cards were the evening's diversion and at the close of the game it was found that Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith scored high. Consolation went to Mrs. Ransier and Royal Rands. Lovely refreshments were served. Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Ransier, Houghton of Umatilla, Randa, L. G. Smith, Gorham, Mrs. Marguerite Johnson of Portland and R. Wasmier. Elmer Westerfelt has a baling crew at Butter creek. Going from Boardman were Leslie Packard, Homer Cason, Chas. Nickerson and nephew, Milton Brown.

Boardman friends were pleased to hear of the arrival of Chas. Henry Messenger December 2 at Portland. He is a lusty young chap and weighed 94 pounds. His father, Uram Messenger, is a graduate of Boardman high school and of O. A. C.

Ona Imusa had one of her tonsils removed Saturday by Dr. Rowe of Hermiston. She will have the other taken out in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead entertained at a lovely dinner Monday night, December 6, having Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis and sons and Carl Doring as guests.

Mr. Wicklander and Mr. Nizer went to Hermiston last week where Mr. Wicklander had the splints removed from his arm which he broke some time ago while cranking a Ford.

Ruth Eleanor King's sixth birthday was celebrated on Tuesday of last week when her mother arranged a delightful party for several of her little friends. Many interesting games were played. The table was very attractive with bands of orange crepe paper, cunning pruned and raisin alligators, a dainty Japanese place card with a pruned turtle and a huge popcorn ball for each child as well as punch, pudding, cookies and the birthday cake. The guests were Elizabeth Kristensen, Catherine Mead, Helen Gross, Harry Humphrey, Mardell Gorham, Allen Dillabough, Orthon Herheim, Stanton Hadley, Stanley and Bobby King and the hostess. Mothers present were Mesdames Gross, Humphrey, Herheim, Mead, Gorham, and Hadley.

A tonsillectomy clinic was held in Boardman on Friday with nine children undergoing the operation. Dr. McMurdo of Heppner operated. He brought two nurses with him. The children all came through the operation in fine shape. The school house was turned into a temporary hospital with the kitchen for the surgery and the sewing room for the ward. As is customary in Boardman in time of need everyone who could assist in every way in nursing, in getting the necessary equipment ready, preparing delicacies for the youngsters, in transporting them to their homes. We know of no community that is more united, more kindly, more helpful than ours at a time like this. Patients were Ruth and Stanley King, Pete Farley, Betty and Nicholas Muller, Ralph and Edward Skobe, Roscoe Boyles and Roy Farlow. Last year physical examination of the school children showed 40 cases of bad tonsils. Some of them were taken care of during the summer but many yet are handicapped by diseased or enlarged tonsils. This clinic gave people an opportunity to have this done at a special rate. It is hoped that another clinic may be held later.

Mrs. J. H. Imus and her daughter Mrs. Geo. Gross, celebrated their birthdays together on Sunday with a fine birthday dinner at the Gross home. Mrs. Imus' birthday is the 12th and Mrs. Gross' the 11th.

Dale Cox spent the week end in Rufus with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie motored to The Dalles Saturday to do some Christmas shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gross motored to Hermiston Monday. Mrs. Gross, who has been under the weather for some time, consulted a physician.

Mrs. Eck Warren went to Hermiston Friday where she has been taking treatments. Mrs. Warren fell last summer and injured her spine.

"Teddy" Hango passed away Monday, December 12, from pneumonia. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hango. Charles Theodore was born August 10th at Brockett, N. D., and was eleven years old at the time of his death. He came to Boardman when but a baby and has spent practically all his life here. Teddy suffered from the same affliction as two of his brothers—a sort of creeping paralysis which grew worse as the years passed. One brother Arvid died about five years ago and the other brother, Wayne, passed away last August. The three brothers are all laid to rest in the Boardman cemetery. Although Teddy had not walked for several years he was always cheerful and glad to see company and liked to visit with folks. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. from the church. Boardman friends extend their deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Earl Cramer was called to Heppner for jury duty. He went over Sunday.

Grange met Saturday night and a fair sized crowd attended in spite of the bitter cold. Mr. and Mr. F. A. Fortier and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Imus were initiated into the order. A hot dinner was served at 7:00 p. m. After initiation election of officers was held. Chas. Wicklander was elected Master in spite of his protest. Other officers elected were Mr. Nizer, Overseer; Mrs. Ed Kunzle, Lecturer; Mrs. Nizer, Chaplain; C. H. Dillabough, Secretary; Bob Mitchell, Steward; Mrs. Brice Dillabough, Lady Assistant Steward; Paul Smith, Assistant Steward; Glen Hadley, Gatekeeper; the three Graces, Ceres, Pomona and Flora were Mesdames Hadley, Chaffee and Mitchell.

Ivy Olson returned home Sunday night from a pleasant visit with Blanche and Esther Imus at Pull-Wash.

Jack Gorham, John Brice, Alfred Skobe and E. Peck motored to Heppner Monday. Alfred was to get his first citizenship papers. Mr. Gorham and Mr. Brice were his witnesses.

The American Legion met Thursday night. Routine business was transacted.

The date of the annual Sunday school Christmas program has not been definitely settled. Announcement will be made next week. The program is in charge of Mrs. E. T. Messenger. Miss Beougher and some of the girls will make candy to be sold on Saturday of this week, proceeds to be used for the Christmas treat.

Brice Dillabough is having a well drilled on his ranch west of town. A driller from Bickleton is doing the work.

T. W. Cutsforth of Lexington was a recent visitor at the F. F. Klitz home.

Mrs. W. A. Price and son Billie went to Portland on Thursday for several days visit.

A few ladies gathered at the John Brice home last Thursday to tie a quilt which is to be sold by the Home Economics club.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Smith shopped in Portland Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Porter left Tuesday for Portland till after the holidays.

JONE MARSHAL ARRESTS ROBBER

A man registered at the Jone hotel under the name of Arlington, was arrested by City Marshal Frank after a chase down the creek, states the Jone Independent. Arlington was followed by the men from whom he had stolen a valuable watch and some other items of personal property. They located him at the hotel and when he refused to come out of his room, swore out a warrant for his arrest. While this was being done, Arlington climbed out of a window and attempted to escape down the creek. The marshal gave chase and after searching the brush along the creek and finding the fugitive's hand luggage where it had been hidden in the bushes, captured him in the open field and brought him back to Jone. He confessed the theft of the articles and was brought to Heppner and lodged in jail. He promised to secure the watch from the person to whom he had sold it and return it to the owner.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold their annual Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, December 19, in the parlors of the church, beginning at 2 o'clock p. m. Come and buy your Christmas gifts, 34-4f.
