

FARM MARKET TRENDS

Cornwallis, December 12.—GRAIN. Domestic wheat and rye markets and the Winnipeg and Buenos Aires wheat markets were not quite so strong last week because of less active export demand which reflected commercial stocks and stocks afloat 50,000,000 bushels more than a year ago and increasing movement of Argentine wheat. European quotations, however, remained generally firm and light receipts of good milling wheat in some United States markets caused higher premiums to be paid. Pacific coast wheat markets were practically unchanged. Corn prices weakened somewhat, but oats and barley were firm. Eastern barley markets went higher again on good export demand.

POTATOES. Carlot shipments of potatoes for the week ending December 5 this year ran ahead of last year about 50 cars in the United States. In the Pacific Northwest shipments were 899 car loads for the week this year against 747 the same period last year. The increased movement was due to Idaho shipments. The movement from Oregon continued to run behind last year. The total movement to December 3 from Oregon, Washington and Idaho this year is reported as 12,707 car loads compared to 14,970 last year at the same time, or 2,263 cars less. Considering reported increases in production it appears that there are somewhat more than 20,000 carloads to be moved during the remaining months of the shipping season. A strong eastern demand is anticipated for western potatoes.

WOOL. The wool market continued on a firm basis.

LIVESTOCK. Cattle markets were generally steady with some widening of the spread between good grades and poorly finished stock. Hogs did not go so good again. Fat lambs were scarcely steady in eastern markets, too many overweight and poorly finished kinds being received. A larger number of lambs are on feed in Colorado and Nebraska than reported a month ago. It is now estimated that the total number of lambs on feed in the country is larger than a year ago, although eastern corn belt states and the states west of the continental divide will feed fewer lambs.

ALL HEPPNER GAZETTE TIMES subscriptions not paid in advance will be dropped from the mailing list. At the same time the bargain offer of 3 years for $5.00 will be withdrawn.

The reason for the adoption of our new policy has, we believe, been thoroughly explained. That it has met with approval is evidenced by the large number who have already responded. A considerable number still remain delinquent from whom we would like to hear.

It is our desire to have a live subscription list composed of bona fide subscribers. In times past we have sent the paper in good faith, believing that acceptance meant willingness to pay. In some instances we have found this not to be the case.

If you know yourself to be delinquent and want the paper to keep coming, may we hear from you before January 1st?
