

BOARDMAN

The Sunday school program will be given Sunday evening in the church. There will be no services in the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Joodwin made a business trip to Arlington Monday. Mrs. Claude Coats and Mrs. J. F. Barlow motored to Hermiston Monday.

Mrs. Lee Mead shopped in Portland on Saturday going down Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barlow of Athena spent the week-end at the Barlow and Mefford homes. Ed, who has been having attacks of appendicitis, is better.

Boardman is becoming a miniature Roseburg and hundreds of pounds of turkeys have been shipped out of here this week. Knauffs, Joe Curran, Wicklander, Falers and others shipped for the Christmas market. W. J. Mefford took down a truck load, Joe Curran accompanying him. Mr. Pruter also took a truck load of birds. Mrs. Lily Stevens went with him. Mr. Wicklander went to Portland to see about disposing of his turkeys. Knauffs sold 48 of their birds for breeding stock. They have six large gobblers yet to dispose of. The climate is ideal for raising of birds. A bulletin from the county agent states: "If interest justifies it, a school where all phases of the turkey industry will be discussed by experts, will be held at some centrally located community in the near future."

Boardman friends are pleased to welcome Mrs. Ella Shell after a long absence. She returned last week from California where she has been for an extended time.

The Home Economics club meeting has been postponed until January 11. This meeting will be with Mrs. Brice Dillabough.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Schnitzer were house guests at the Nick Faler home for a few days last week. They returned to their home in Portland Sunday. Mrs. Geo. Spring accompanied them. On Tuesday Mrs. Faler and Mr. Spring went to Portland. The Springs are expected to return the last of the week and Mr. Wassmer and Mr. Faler will go down for Christmas.

Boardman friends of Ted Roy of Pilot Rock were interested in hearing his song over the radio which brought him second prize in the Atwater Kent national contest. This was quite an honor for Oregon.

Arthur Goodwin of Weston visited several days last week with his father, W. A. Goodwin.

Miss Mamie Hango returned to Pendleton to her work last week. She was called here by the illness and death of her brother, Teddy.

Leaster White of Lexington, an O. A. C. student, was a visitor at the Ballenger home the early part of the week.

Catherine Berger came home Wednesday from Monmouth where she is attending Normal. Mr. Berger went as far as The Dalles to meet her.

Mrs. Ray Brown plans to motor to Cleveland, Wash., Friday to get Catherine who is teaching there.

Pete Farley is putting up a barn on his ranch.

Ona Imus has had her second tonsil removed at Hermiston and is getting along nicely.

"Toots" Montague and wife of Arlington and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mead, of PeEll, Wash., were recent visitors at the Robert Wilson home.

The high school students are to give a dance Friday night to dedicate the new gymnasium. The Twilight quintette will furnish the music and dancing will start at 8 o'clock. There will be some carnival features and supper will be served. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the school gymnasium fund for purchasing equipment.

A great many Boardman people were shopping in Pendleton Saturday. Among them were the J. R. Johnsons, Marchants, Miss Alice Falk, Charles Bagnes, Miss Beougher and Miss Henry, the Messengers and M. K. Flickinger.

The Boardman basketball teams journeyed to Umatilla Friday night for a double header. The Boardman boys defeated Umatilla to a 21 to 13 score. The girls were not so fortunate and met defeat with a 13 to 9 score. The line-ups, boys: Robert Berger and Eldon Wilson, forwards; Russell and Alvie Mefford, guards; Ray Barlow, center; Buster Randa, substitute. Girls: Rachel Johnson and Helen Chaffee, forwards; Gladys Wicklander and Mildred Messenger, centers; Nellie Dillon and Ruth Pees, guards.

Roy Duncan has been here from Willow creek demonstrating a grinder for which he has the agency. This is run by engine of a car.

Mr. Hampton and Mr. Hag, furniture dealers of The Dalles stopped in Boardman Saturday night on their way to Pendleton. They were here in the role of Santa Claus, bringing two beautiful upholstered miniature chairs for Maxene as a gift from her parents.

John Curran, prominent sheepman of the Butter creek section, was on the project visiting his uncle, Joe Curran, whom he had not seen for several months.

Prof. R. S. Bease of O. A. C. will give a demonstration on keeping farm accounts at Boardman on January 6. Books kept by farmers on the project during 1927 will be used as a basis for the discussion. Account books will be furnished all those attending the school and instruction on keeping them correctly will be given according to a statement from the office of the county agent.

Boardman patrons of whom there are many, will be pleased to learn that Montgomery Ward plans to establish a branch house at Pendleton.

Miss Dorothy Boardman is expected home Saturday night from Salem to spend the holidays with her parents.

A candy sale was held Monday at Jack's store, $7.65 being raised. Proceeds go toward purchasing the Christmas treat for the Sunday school. Miss Beougher's class made the candy.

J. F. Deas, lower Willow creek farmer, was a visitor in Heppner on Tuesday, attending to business affairs.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

The basket social given by the endeavorers at the Christian church parlors on Friday evening, though not largely attended, was a very enjoyable occasion. A number of lively games were played, in which everybody joined heartily, then a short program of music and readings, followed by the sale of the baskets. This latter ceremony was in charge of G. L. Bennett of Alpine, auctioneer, who got rid of the baskets at a lively rate and at good prices. A neat sum was realized for the piano fund of the Endeavor society. Two car loads of people came in from Alpine to attend the social.

B. F. Swaggart was a visitor in town Tuesday from his Swaggart butte ranch. He reports that his son, Grover Swaggart, who has been very ill for the past five weeks at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, suffering an aggravated case of appendicitis, for which he underwent an operation, is now somewhat improved, but it will be sometime before he will be able to leave the hospital, and it may be necessary for him to undergo another operation before he fully recovers. Mrs. Swaggart has been in Portland for several weeks at the bedside of her son.

Miss Marjorie Clark arrived home Monday evening and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark. Marjorie is in her freshman year at the University of Oregon, Eugene. Her sister, Miss Mary Clark, who has been ill from typhoid fever and in the hospital at Eugene, has recovered sufficiently to make the journey home and Mrs. Clark will meet her in Portland this week-end, returning to Heppner in time for Christmas.

LOST OR STOLEN—Have reason to believe they have been moved away. If stolen, I will pay $100 for evidence leading to arrest and conviction, and recovery of these two animals: one brown mare and brown horse colt, mare has hind foot damaged; thoroughbred. Last seen between Wynd Bros. ranch and Barney Doherty's on Sand Hollow, leading behind a car going north, on or about Nov. 5. EASTERN OREGON STOCK FARM, B. F. Swaggart, tf.

Martin Lovgren of Eight Mile was a visitor in the city Tuesday. They are experiencing some winter weather out his way, but no complaint is made as to the quality of it, as no damage is being done from the freezing.

"THE LOST WORLD"

Star Theater, Sunday and Monday.

Win SUCCESS IN BUSINESS AT

TRAVEL

Many of our graduates find it easy to travel, because business college training equips them to hold positions in cities they visit.

Write for FREE SUCCESS Catalog. Enroll any time. Often we can help students who need part time "jobs" while attending school.

Behnke-Walker
BUSINESS COLLEGE
Portland Oregon

GILLIAM & BISBEE

Stop and look at Gilliam & Bisbee's Christmas Window and then go in and be surprised to find out how far your money will go.

Community Silverware at a 50% discount.

Inspect our Pyrex cooking ware.

A complete stock of West Bend Aluminum. Made for service.

China and Fancy Glassware.

Winchester and Remington cutlery.

Flash Lights and Batteries, Thermos Bottles and Fillers, and lots of other items.

GILLIAM & BISBEE

Walter Eubanks, who was in the city Monday, stated to the editor of this paper that he had sent his last shipment of turkeys into Portland on Saturday, Howard Lane of Lexington taking them down. He did not expect to find as good a market as at Thanksgiving time, expecting to get around 35 cents per pound for his birds.

Dave Cantwell, brother of Mrs. S. A. Wright, has been a visitor here during the past ten days, a guest at the home of his sister. Mr. Cantwell resides in southern Oregon. He was formerly a resident of Morrow county, owning a farm in the Eight Mile country.

The Misses Laura Williams and Freda Akers, young ladies of Eight Mile, who are students this year at the state normal school, arrived home from Monmouth on Friday and will visit with the home folks during the Christmas holidays.

Miss Beth Bleakman, a student the first part of the year at Oregon State Normal school, returned home Saturday. Miss Bleakman has finished her work at the normal and was among the class of graduates at the close of this semester.

Roland Humphreys, teacher this year in the university at Eugene, is taking advantage of the vacation season and enjoying a visit with the home folks at Heppner. He arrived here on Friday for a stay of two weeks.

Vawter Parker, law student at University of Oregon, is home for the holidays, having arrived from Eugene on Friday. He is enjoying a little farm life at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker.

Sam Devine, father of Joe Devine and Mrs. Geo. White of Lexington, is here for a visit with his people. Mr. Devine came up from Portland where he lives, on Friday last and will spend several weeks here.

Miss Luola Bengt arrived from Eu-

Harris Transportation Co.
PORTLAND-HEPPNER AND WAY POINTS
Portland Office: Foot East Washington St.
H. H. CULP, Local Agt., City Garage

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.

Miss Ethel Moore, student at Oregon State Normal, arrived home Saturday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Attorney John Kilkenny, of the firm of Raley, Raley, Warner and Kilkenny, Pendleton, was a visitor here Saturday, looking after business for his clients.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Lone, spent a few days in Heppner the end of the week, while getting some dental work done.

gene on Saturday and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bengt. Miss Bengt is in her third year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hutchcroft, of Morgan, were Heppner visitors on Tuesday. They were accompanied to the city by A. L. Troedson, these people being called to the city on matters of business.

Harland Glasscock, son of Roy Glasscock of Mt. Vernon, who was a visitor for sometime at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. W. W. Smead in this city, returned to his home the end of the week.

Miss Gladys Bengt, student this year at Whitman college, Walla Walla, arrived home for the holidays Saturday and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, for two weeks.

Miss M. Gilliam, who has been spending several months at Heppner, visiting at the home of her cousin, W. L. McCaleb, departed on Friday last for her home at Dallas.