

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Copenhaver, who were visitors in the city on Saturday, reported that their son, Lawrence, who resides at Chula Vista, Calif., was very seriously injured recently when struck by an automobile, the driver of the machine going straight on. A Chula Vista paper states that Copenhaver is in the hospital with what the doctors pronounce one of the worst forms of leg fracture. The broken bones were protruding from the flesh when he was picked up. The driver speeded on after dragging Copenhaver 50 feet along the gutter. Several others besides the driver were in the car, but no one was close enough on the street to get the license number. Copenhaver is 19 years old, and was employed in the store of H. C. Masters of Chula Vista, who has offered a reward of $100 for the apprehension of the driver or owner of the car that struck the boy. Chula Vista is just south of San Diego, Cal.

Parties in the city from Ione Saturday express the opinion that the recent freeze did no damage to wheat in that part of the county. Ed Lindgren, who farms the C. T. Walker land, expressed some fears that his Federation might be hurt, and was in Ione the last of the week to take out 300 sacks of seed wheat, to be prepared in case that the Federation on the place was killed. Our informant stated, however, that Mr. Lindgren would use the wheat for spring seeding in any event.

Winter conditions have been just right in the vicinity of the Big Butte creek ranch of John H. Hayes & Son. There was a solid month of cold weather before the break-up, but this was not severe and stock prospered right along, is the statement given us yesterday by Joe Hayes, who was in the city on business affairs. Mr. Hayes further stated that sheep and all stock were never in better condition than at present, and he looks forward to a prosperous season for 1928.

Albert Smith, who has the contract for the surfacing on the L. A. Vinson gap, and who was compelled to lay off on the work for the period of bad weather, was in town Friday. He thinks that the present open spell will permit his finishing about 600 feet of surfacing remaining on the road. Should weather conditions permit, he will then return to the work on the Heppner-Spray road.

T. J. Humphreys made a trip out to the mining district the first of the week. He is one among many of the Heppner folks who have fled locations in the new Morrow county Eldorado. Judge Bengt and Roadmaster McCaleb are others. Whether these men have decided to abandon their present jobs and turn miners is not yet made known, but anything may happen.

W. W. Bechtold and son Archie, of Hardman, spent a few hours in the city on Monday.

David Hynd brought in some of the men from Rose Lawn ranch in Sand Hollow on Tuesday evening to see the war picture, "The Big Parade," at the Star theater. Other help on the ranch came in Monday evening with Billy Hynd, and this arrangement made it possible for everyone out that way to see this greatest of all war pictures. At the Hynd ranches every one is busy with the sheep right now. In Sand Hollow lambing will begin about the first of March, and the Cecil flocks will start much sooner. Mr. Hynd is authority for the statement that sheep and stock on the Hynd ranches is in the pink of condition, and prospects fine for a splendid lambing season.

Dan Barlow was looking after business in the city on Saturday from his Rhea creek ranch. He is milking quite a herd of cows these days and expects to add more milk stock later. A fine lot of turkeys were marketed from the place this winter, and preparations are being made to raise a large drove next season, but Dan thinks the milk cows are the best paying proposition and he finds dairying on his alfalfa ranch the ideal industry.

According to Echo News, flood conditions on lower Butte creek were feared the past week, owing to the heavy snow in the upper country, and the sudden melting by the chinook winds. An ice jam in Butte creek above Otis McCarty's place caused water to flood the McCarty yard and cellar, and blasting had to be resorted to in order to break the jam. The cellar and yard about the O. F. Thomson house was also flooded.

Wm. Kummerland was in town Saturday, having been somewhat shut in for a few weeks on account of the cold and the subsequent melting of the snow, which made getting out difficult. The mail route out his way was tied up for a considerable time, also, by the wash-out of a bridge that made it impossible for the rural delivery man to come by his place.

W. P. Mahoney, Frank Gilliam, J. G. Thomson, H. A. Cohn, D. T. Goodman, Gay M. Anderson and La Verne Van Marter were among those who went to The Dalles the first of the week to attend the trial of H. A. Duncan. Mr. Duncan's case was called for Tuesday, and his attorneys are C. L. Sweek of this city and S. E. Van Vactor of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Barlow of Eight Mile have moved to Hermiston and will occupy the R. C. Canfield house on Gladys avenue, after some repair work has been finished on the building. Mr. Barlow is a relative of Mr. and Mrs. Tilson in the Columbia district and will be local agent for a washing machine. —Hermiston Herald.

Oscar Keithley, Eight Mile wheat raiser, who also grows some mighty fine turkeys as a sideline, was doing business in the county seat on Saturday.

District Attorney Notson arrived home Sunday from Portland, where he spent several days the past week attending the convention of judges and district attorneys of the state. Mr. Notson reports a fine meeting. The sheriffs of the state were holding their convention in Portland at the same time.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert French of the Lena district were visitors in the city on Monday, accompanied by Charles Hiri, brother of Mrs. French. Herbert states that the winter conditions have been ideal on upper Butte creek, and all stock is doing fine. No snow out that way now.

John Healey was up from his Butte creek ranch Tuesday, and reports his sheep in the best of condition. They came out of the mountains in the fall in excellent shape, and good weather and feed have kept them coming along well.

Henry Krebs spent a short while in the city from the Krebs ranch at Cecil on Saturday. The Krebs sheep are all doing fine this winter and it will not be long before lambing and will be in progress in the Cecil section.

Frank Griffin spent a few minutes in the city Saturday while on his way out to Hardman to attend a meeting there of the I. O. O. F. brethren. Others in his party from lone were W. W. Head and Ollie Kincaid.

Reports from Hot Lake state that Sheriff McDuffee is improving quite rapidly from his recent severe operation, and his family here are expecting him home the early part of next week.

French Burroughs and Ed Musgrave were Jordan Siding farmers attending to business here on Saturday. They report the winter weather just right in their section.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gerard, son Earnest and daughter Myrtle, were visitors at Heppner on Tuesday. Mr. Gerard was called to attend to some business at the court house.

Martha Washington tea, given by the Willing Workers of the Christian church, will be served from 3 to 7:30 o'clock on Feb. 22, at the church parlors.

Chas. Allinger stepped in to have a few words with the G. T. man while in the city for a short time on Saturday from his Ione home.

Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo spent Sunday at Pendleton, visiting with their young son, Scott, who is attending school there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Valentine, daughter and son were in the city on Saturday from their home near Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris P. Brown were shopping in the city Saturday from their farm west of Heppner.

Good work stock and farm equipment for sale. Wait Rood place, 5 miles west of Heppner. Phone 14F11 or write P. O. Box 592, Heppner, 43-5.

Ture Peterson, proprietor of Ione meat market, was looking after business here on Saturday.
