HEPPNERIAN CONTEST ENDED.

The contest that was established for the writers in the Heppnerian staff and all others who wished to enter the contest, came to a close at the beginning of the second semester. The contest was won by Onez Parker, making a score of 211 points. The closest competitor to Onez was Virginia Davis with a score of 125 points. Virginia had worked very hard in attempting to win the contest, and deserves much honorable mention.

This contest is for the person who has the largest number of inches of paper clipping during a certain length of time. The winner received a valuable clock.

BRING HOME THE BACON.

The Lexington high school basketball team met with defeat when they clashed with the Heppner team Friday, January 20, the score being 10 to 7 for the Heppner boys and 20 to 19 for the Heppner girls.

The girls' team did not use any of their substitutes whom they brought along. At the end of the first half, the score stood 10-10.

The girls' line-up:
 HEPPNER (20) LEXINGTON (19)
 Hazel McDaid — F — Doris Wick
 Jane Alstott — F — Mary Slocum
 Harriet Morgan — Jc — Deloris Crowell
 Evelyn Swindig — Jc — Erma Duval
 Katherine Blaise — Jc — Elmer Tucker
 Rosella Doherty — Jc — Given Evans

The substitutions for Heppner, Alva McDuffee, Anna McDaid, Mary Beamer, Winifred Thomson; for Lexington, V. Bresciana, Peg Warner.

Carl Beach of Lexington refereed the game.

The Heppner boys have won two games and lost one, but they still have a chance to tie the winning team for championship. The boys are working hard passes and trying to master better shooting.

At Lexington the boys were unable to roll the ball in the baskets even from short shots at first, but they managed to come out of the game with the long end of the score. At the end of the first half the score stood 1-2 in Lexington's behalf. In the second half the gang came back strong and ran up nine points to Lexington's five.

Hiser was put out of the game near the end of the fourth quarter on four personal fouls and Miller also went out on four personal fouls. Hiser was high point man for Heppner with four counts, while Warner of Lexington had three.

The lineup:
 HEPPNER LEXINGTON
 Farley — F — McMillan
 Robertson — F — Warner
 Hiser — F — Lane
 Gentry — F — Miller
 Thompson — F — Hill

Beighle of Heppner was referee. Substitutions: Heppner, R. Thomson for Farley, Farley for Hiser, Robertson for Hiser and Hiser for Robertson; Lexington, Burchell for C. Miller.

NEW HEPPNERIAN STAFF.

Aspirants for this semester's Heppnerian staff met Monday afternoon to discuss plans for work.

There will be several changes on the staff. Mary Beamer, Jeannette Turner, Gay Anderson and Joe Swindig will replace Virginia Dix, Katherine Blaise and Evelyn Swindig.

Old members who will work again are John Conder, editor; Letha Hiatt, assistant editor; Rosella Doherty, business manager, and the following same reporters: Ella Thomson, John Parker, Onez Parker, Stanley Minor, Eva Hiatt, Hazel McDaid, Clarence Hayes has assumed work with the staff. He resigned last semester when junior class play practice and football occupied all his out-of-school hours.

Definite appointments have not yet been made to positions.

PEP MEETINGS.

The call for a pep meeting the past week was eagerly backed by the entire student body. On Friday the two high school basketball teams, who were to meet Lexington that night, were given some encouragement and cheer by a few of the well-known players responded with an ideal speech for the occasion.

And on Monday, Jan. 22, the new freshmen were honored by another pep meeting. The cheers that arose were loud and welcoming for the timid freshmen, who were somewhat embarrassed by the entrance on high school soil.

"H" CLUB INITIATION.

The "H" club boys held a meeting Monday at which time the following boys were accepted: Clarence Hayes, John Farley, Paul Jones, Harold Gentry, Fletcher Walker, Henry Robertson and Homer Hayes.

These boys became eligible to membership by having won a letter in athletics. At 3:45 Tuesday afternoon the above boys went through a strenuous initiation in the boys' locker room.

Owing to unavoidable circumstances, John Farley was unable to attend the initiation, but the rest of the boys were carried through the merciless proceedings. The "H" club has not been functioning very extensively this past year, but the group plans to do more this next semester.

GRADE NEWS.

Miss Case, third grade teacher, promoted 15 pupils to the fourth "B" and received eight new students from the second "A."

Nina Cox, third grade student, is quite ill at her home with appendicitis. It is hoped that Nina will soon be able to return to school and resume her former work.

Mr. Beighle, eighth grade teacher, graduated 12 students from the eighth "A" to high school, and promoted eight students from the eighth "B" to the eighth "A." The graduating class consisting of Pat Monahan, Mary Thomson, Ruth Turner, Lucile Beymer, Virginia Cleveland, Florence French, Evelyn Schula, James McNamee, Theodore Thomson, Earle Bryant and Homer Hager entered the high school Monday morning. Donna Brown was also a member of the graduating class, but will not enter high school until next term in September.

Betty Barnside and Lola Hiatt were absent from school the first of the week on account of illness.

Beatrice Thomson has been confined to her home for the last few days with a severe cold.

Twelve students were promoted from the sixth "A" to the seventh "B." New work was started for the classes last Monday morning.

Howard Cleveland motored to Portland last Friday and spent the week end in the city.

Lloyd Burkenhine, who previously attended school at Hermiston, enrolled in the fourth grade of the Heppner school.

Thomas Gonty, who's absence from school was caused by illness, was able to return last Monday.

ter's work last Monday morning with an enrollment of 25 pupils of whom 17 are in division "A" and eight in division "B."

Lyle Cowdrey, eighth grade student, who has been seriously ill at Hot Lake for three weeks, is reported to be improving. Lyle may not attend school again until next term.

The mid-term Freshmen were welcomed to the high school with much applause. The other students wish them good luck for goodness knows they will need it.

The following courses were given them: English I and II, World History I and II, and Chorus.

The class has the following members: Evelyn Schula, James McNamee, Ruth Turner, Florence French, Earl Bryant, Theodore Thomson, Homer Hager, Mary Thomson, Elmer Hake, Patricia Monahan, Virginia Cleveland and Lucile Beymer.

Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Burgess went to Portland last week. Mr. Johnson caught the train at Lexington and traveled the rest of the journey in company with Mr. Burgess. Both went down to bring home their cars that they had been forced to leave during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Burgess returned on Saturday while Mr. Johnson arrived here Sunday. These gentlemen state that the roads are in fairly good condition.

News reached here through the Portland Oregonian of the death of Miss Wright's mother, Mrs. O. C. Wright, in their Portland home last Friday evening. The entire school extends its deepest sympathies to Miss Wright and her father, in their bereavement.

Terrel Bengue went to Portland with his father who is attending a political convention. While in Portland Terrel will have his eyes tested.

Marvin Gammell was absent from school for two and a half days because of a bad cold.

Gerald Slocum, the president of the student body, has recently been ill.

Lucile Driscoll was absent from school Thursday and Friday to assist with work at home.

Office News.

Since the high school library has been moved into the new building, Mr. Burgess has placed a table in the assembly room for the express purpose of enabling the students to read current magazines. Each student has the privilege of taking a few minutes of spare time to look up important references. Mr. Burgess states that this plan will be acceptable only as long as it does not cause an interference with studies.

DEBATE.

On February 2 the local debating team will meet the Milton-Freewater high school and the Pendleton high school with the following question before them: "Resolved, that the jury system of the state of Oregon should be so amended that less than an unanimous ballot should convict a criminal."

Heppner's negative team will journey to Pendleton, and our affirmative will engage Mac-Hi in the local auditorium.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

Physical training classes are now permanently established under the supervision of Mrs. Smith and Professor Johnson. The girls and boys are each scheduled to report at the gym twice a week for their gymnastic work. At present, those pupils taking up basketball are exempt from the regular physical training classes.

BOOSTER CLUB NEWS.

The officers of last semester were re-elected at the meeting of the girls' booster club, Friday, January 20. They are, president, Eva Hiatt; vice president, Hazel McDaid; secretary, Letha Hiatt; treasurer, Mary Monahan, and sergeant at arms, Jeannette Turner. It was voted that the dues be 25 cents a semester rather than 50 cents, as has been heretofore. Preparations were made for the "hot dog" sale, to be held Friday noon.

The mid-year freshman girls have been invited to join the club.

GYM NEWS.

When the contractors for the new gymnasium finished the building, they did not enclose the electric apparatus or curtains in dust-proof or "tamper" proof cases. Since the completion this has been a source of constant trouble.

Several times recently the switches have been tampered with by students, and as a result, the fuse plugs were blown out. To remedy this, the school authorities have had box protectors built, and janitor Driscoll now has them under lock and key.

SOPHOMORES ELECT.

Officers for this semester were elected by the sophomore class, Friday. The results are: president, Roderick Thomson; vice president, John Parker; secretary, Mary Monahan; treasurer, Fletcher Walker.

HUMOR.

Gerald Slocum to visitor: "See that chap coming out of the chemistry lab? That is Johnson, the science teacher. He likes girls, but he is so bashful that he reminds one of litmus paper."

Visitor: "Why, how's that?"

Gerald: "When he is with a girl he turns pink, and when he is alone he gets blue."

John P.: "I want the life of Caesar."

Ruth F.: "You're too late. Brutus took it a long time ago."

Marvin G.: "The story of the discovery of rubber is very interesting."

Pat M.: "I suppose it was stretched a lot."

Johnson: "Name some liquid that won't freeze."

Velton O.: "Hot water."

ELLIS WINNARD PASSES.

A letter received the past week by A. M. Phelps, announced the death of Ellis Winnard at Klamath Falls on Tuesday, January 17, and burial there the day following. Mr. Winnard was at one time a resident of this section and followed farming, having the place of W. C. Lacy for a few seasons. He had been a sufferer with cancer for several years and it was from this disease that he died. He was a brother of Dr. N. E. Winnard.

SAFETY & SERVICE

THE DETAILS OF HOUSEKEEPING MADE EASY

Women who do not have a checking account are handicapped in looking after the many details of housekeeping.

They never have the right change.

They often misplace their money and lose a lot of time looking for it, invariably a little is put here and a little there, etc.

This is not good management.

Get your change together, come to our bank and start your checking account and handle your affairs in a businesslike manner and you will have a convenient, safe and satisfactory system.
