Leo Osmin, age 11, son of Albert Osmin of Balm fork, met with a serious accident at his home one day this week while chopping wood. The axe struck his thumb, and that member was split from end of nail to second joint and laid wide open. It required 15 stitches at the hands of Dr. McMurdo to close the wound. Mrs. Haguewood of Ione was brought to the office of Dr. Johnston on Saturday and treated for dislocated elbow joint. Mrs. Ha-guewood received the injury from a fall off a chair. An x-ray picture revealed a dislocation, and the injury is about healed now.

Mrs. Bernice Griffin has been quite ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Huston, suffering an infection of the jaw, follow-ing the extraction of a tooth. She is improving slowly.

Percy Jarmon, who spent a few days in the city this week on jury duty, reports that the winter has been just about right down about Pine City, and no complaint to make on that score.

LOCALS TASTE DEFEAT.

The Heppner High school basket ball team was defeated 14-13 by the Ione high team at Ione last evening. Both teams were fast and proved themselves worthy of han dling the ball. Being unsucessful at breaking the Heppner five man defense, the Ione boys resorted to long shots for their scoring. Lun-dell was responsible for most of the points on long shots. Both teams checked well, and very few close in shots were made, although Heppner managed to make more shots under the basket than Ione

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, JAN. 26 AND 27: Norma Talmadge in "KIKI" With RONALD COLMAN.

There's a lot of sadness—a lot of gladness in little Kiki who me from somewhere to fill the heart of the "best catch" in Paris. Kiki caught him all right. Caught him and held him. You'll love Kiki—you can't help it, because Kiki is Norma Tal-madge and Norma Talmadge is Kiki, Also Mable Normand in RAGGETY ROSE, a special three reel comedy that is different.

Here's an elegant combination, Norma Talmadge and Mable Normand on the same bill. A show worth fifty cents, but it only costs you the regular prices, 20c and 30c.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 28: LIONEL BARRYMORE and JACQUELINE GADSDON in "THE THIRTEENTH HOUR" With NAPOLEON, the Police Dog.

Every second a thrill. Every moment a surprise. Here's the greatest mystery film in years.

A King of Crooks, a young detective, an amazing dog, Napoleon, as his aid. A girl trapped in a house of a thousand terrors. The climax will leave you breathless. You'll never guess it until the final fade out.

ALSO A SPECIAL REEL OF THE HICKMAN CAPTURE, showing Lieuallen, Gurdane, the stolen car, the weapons, Hick-man himself, and a whole lot of details of interest to us in the country surrounding the place of capture.

Also KINOGRAMS NEWS REEL, showing the wreck of the O. W. R. & N. train near Multnomah Falls, and other live news
