The court room at the court house has been designated as the place for the meeting and it is strongly urged that all ex-service men and their families attend.

HOME TALENT PLAY TO BE GIVEN NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

A Prairie Rose Mingles Comedy With Heavy Drama; Auspices of Episcopal Church.

The play, "A Prairie Rose," which is to be given for the benefit of the Episcopal church in the high school auditorium next Tuesday evening, is about ready for presentation.

Although the parts are well balanced, and there is no distinctive lead, the burden of the story rests upon DeLoris Pearson as Prairie Rose, and Paul Gemmill as Dr. Raymond. The character of Prairie Rose, and Paul Gemmill as Dr. Raymond, and Paul Gemmill as Dr. Raymond.

Martha Wilson plays the part of Agnes Raymond, the Doctor's divorced wife, who is the obstacle in the way of Rose's love for the doctor and causes her deep heartache. Pat Mollahan touches the heart of all as Bill Briggs, the disappointed cowboy lover and pal of Rose's childhood days, when he, under false impressions, defends Rose and makes trouble for Dr. Raymond.

Dignity is added to the play by Philip von Lukken as Ralph Wilder, the wealthy father of Rose, who left her with her brother Silas in the time of her infancy and at the time of the play returns to claim her.

With this thrilling drama is mingled a comedy, which is furnished by the remainder of the cast. Archie Featherhead, the English dude, attempts the dramatic and achieves the ridiculous. Crockett Sprouls in this role will bring down the house with laughter.

F. B. Nickerson in the character of Mose, the negro servant, in his by-play with other comedians adds a touch of negro dialect and humor which is bound to bring a hearty response from the audience.

The public will also get the treat of their lives if they fail to see Ann Murray as Lizzy Jane, the old maid, who is bound to get a man in spite of Helen High Tide. The first victim is Archie, the last, Silas, who is the uncle of Prairie Rose.

C. J. Walker as Silas, the deaf old rancher, who is crude and uneducated, is comical, yet pathetic in his fatherly love for Rose.

Phillip Bryant, a young lawyer, and Dorothy, his sweetheart and wife, are characterizations portrayed by Jim Thomson and Mary Patterson and give a pleasing touch to the drama in a love story of their own. Jimmie Thomson takes the part of Phillip Bryant to perfection. He shows himself a good comrade of Dr. Raymond and the ideal lover, while Mary Patterson supports him well as his sweetheart, a sweet, adorable girl.

The whole cast has been well chosen and has worked very diligently and the play is an assured success. It has already been presented twice in the county with great success, and those attending may look forward to one of the best entertainments of the year. The price of admission is 25 cents for children, 50 cents for adults and 75 cents for reserved seats. Reserved seats are now on sale at Humphreys Drug Co.

BOOSTER EDITION POSSIBLE ISSUE FEBRUARY 16TH

If it happens that the big booster edition of the Gazette Times is delayed a week it will only mean that it will be so much larger, better and more accurate. In this work we have suffered many set backs and among the least of these we are glad to say were machinery breakdowns. Power sometimes was not available as all of our readers know, and it surely does take "power" both ways from Sunday to run a printing office and a newspaper in the same office on a business basis. We know that every man, woman and child in this county is looking for a copy of THAT BIG BOOSTER EDITION. And we well know also that if a vote of the people of this county were taken today and that if we could have it counted correctly before the issuance of this edition, that "YOU" as tax payers and voters of this county would in this instance be ONE HUNDRED PERCENTERS. If one single small part of this county is worth selling it is worth advertising. If one part is worth advertising to the outside world it is worth while for us to advertise the whole.

AND AGAIN WE SAY: CO-OPERATION MEANS SUCCESS. THE INTERESTS OF ONE ARE THE INTERESTS OF ALL. UNITED WE WILL EVENTUALLY MAKE MORROW COUNTY THE FINEST PLACE ON THE GLOBE IN WHICH TO LIVE. DIFFERING IN THESE IDEAS WE ARE LIABLE TO SLIP BACK INTO THE OLD RUT. WHICH SHALL IT BE? IT IS OUR COUNTRY. IT IS OUR CITY. LET US BOOST FOR ITS PROGRESS AND DON'T LET GEORGE DO IT.

It was stated a guarantee of $300 would be necessary before the proposal would be considered by the officers of the association.

Earl Gordon and Earl Hallock were appointed as a committee to ascertain the sentiment of business men in regard to the proposal and they found all willing to stand a part of the guarantee. It is therefore certain that Superintendent Burgess will go to the meeting at Pendleton Saturday, when the matter will be settled, armed with a guarantee and an urgent invitation from the entire city to have the tournament played here.
