

Local Happenings

Jason Biddle was home this week for a few days and spent Tuesday in Heppner. He and Mrs. Biddle have been spending the past two months at LaFayette, Ore., where Mr. Biddle's mother had her home for years. They were called there by the illness of his mother, Mrs. M. E. Biddle, who passed away December 11, at the age of 75 years. Mack Biddle, a brother of Jason, who has been suffering for many years with chronic asthma, has been very low for weeks at the family home at LaFayette, and Jason and his wife have been caring for him. Mr. Biddle expects to return to LaFayette in a few days.

Charley Barlow arrived home from Portland on Monday, bringing up from the city one of the new Ford cars, a sport coupe, which will be used by Latourell Auto company for demonstration purposes. The company has secured a large number of orders for the new cars and these have gone in, but they will not be able to make deliveries right soon, getting but a few cars out of the total number allotted to the Oregon territory, though the Ford factories are now on capacity production.

D. B. Stalter returned to Heppner the first of the week after having spent several weeks in Portland, visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Van Valkenberg. Mr. Stalter reports that Mrs. Ellen Buseick, who was recently crippled up in an auto accident, was quite well again but still limping. While riding with Mrs. Day, her sister, and several other women in the car of Mrs. Day was bumped by a truck that skidded into them and Mrs. Buseick being on the side of contact was the only one injured.

Mont Bundy, residing out north of Lexington, was in town Wednesday. He states that the frost is not out of the ground in his section, and as yet it is not possible to arrive at any definite conclusions as to whether wheat has been hurt by the freezing weather. Those who put in Federation may be hurt, but he is satisfied no damage has been done the winter varieties.

J. H. McFee and his stepson, Wm. Kerr are visiting this week at the home of Mr. McFee's mother, Mrs. Amanda Potter. About 30 years ago Mr. McFee lived at Heppner and during that time was an exceptionally good ball player and had a lot of sport playing with the Heppner teams for a season or two. He lives near Hillsboro, where he farms the old home place.

Alex Gibb, who for the past six years has been employed at the power house here, has taken over the plumbing business of Peoples Hardware company and will hereafter be following his old trade. Mr. Gibb has had many years of experience as a plumber and knows the trade thoroughly. He will appreciate any business you have in his line.

W. B. Barratt came up from Portland Wednesday and will spend several days here looking after business affairs. Calling on the Gazette Times, Mr. Barratt had some mighty nice things to say regarding our booster edition, for which we thank him.

Mrs. Ruth Barnett, accompanied by her son, Fred Windsor and her niece, Miss Gladys Bengé, drove over from Walla Walla on Saturday and spent Sunday with relatives here. Mr. Windsor, a Morrow county boy, had not visited the scenes of his boyhood for many years. Miss Bengé, a student at Whitman college, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eph Eskelson, while Mrs. Barnett and son were guests of the Eskelson and Bengé families, she being a sister of Judge Bengé and Mrs. Eskelson. They returned to Walla Walla on Monday.

Prof. Melvin Johnston departed of Lexington schools departed on Wednesday night's train for Corvallis, taking with him Jimmie Leach, president of the student body and Gwendolyn Evans, two of his pupils and will attend the students' conference at G. A. C. this week end. Returning from Portland, they will bring back Mr. Johnston's car which he was compelled to leave in the city during Christmas time.

Milton W. Bower, pastor of the Christian church, left on Monday for Wallowa, where he will be for two weeks, assisting the pastor of the Christian church there in a protracted meeting. He was accompanied as far as La Grande by Mrs. Sarah Parker, mother of Frank S. Parker, who will visit with sons living there and at Cove for a short time.

E. R. Lundell and family took in "Ben Hur" at the Star theater on Tuesday evening, from their home at Ione. Many people from over the county were attracted to Heppner by this wonderful picture, presented by Manager Sigbee for four nights this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Loney and children were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Parker. Mrs. Loney and Mrs. Parker are sisters. They returned to their home at Walla Walla on Monday.
