

BOARDMAN

Mrs. O. B. Olson and Mrs. Chas. Hango will entertain the Ladies Aid at the next Silver Tea on March 7th, at the Hango home.

The value of fire drills in public schools was again demonstrated last Wednesday. A passing motorist noticed that the school house roof was afire and reported it to Mr. Barlow. A phone call to the school, the signal for a fire drill and in 3 minutes the building was empty and the blaze extinguished in short order. Damage was negligible.

A Valentine party was held in the church last Wednesday. The room was effectively decorated in the Valentine motif. Games were played, an interesting talk on Patriotism and Missions was given by Mrs. Boardman, and Mesdames Allen, Messenger, Johnson and Boardman served a dainty lunch.

W. A. Goodwin, who has been ill for the past year became worse and was taken to the hospital at Heppner this week.

The Auxiliary sponsored a good movie Saturday night, "In Old Kentucky" and an "Our Gang" comedy. The house was full. Proceeds are to be used in constructing a tennis court in town.

Mrs. L. C. Cooney was the honor guest at a shower on Friday, Feb. 17th at the home of Mrs. Glen Hadley. About thirty-five were present and many beautiful gifts were received by the honoree. A lovely lunch was served by the hostesses.

Mrs. J. W. Bennett and F. H. Edmunds of Ridgefield, Wn., arrived Friday for a visit at the John Brice home. Both Mrs. Bennett and Mr. Edmunds own ranches here and are having the alfalfa seed threshed, having left the entire acreage for seed.

Donald Bower, the small nephew of Mrs. Alec Warren, had his tonsils removed Friday at the Shriner's hospital. Donald, who has been crippled from birth, had an operation on his leg at the hospital some time ago and still reports there periodically for examination.

The Boardman boys' basketball team has acquired the habit of victory and the girls of defeat, and the game Friday night with Ione was no departure from the general rule. The boys' game was a bit slow the first half but they pepped up toward the last and came out winners 28-13. There was no high point man, several having scored the same number of points. The girls' team was badly handicapped by the absence of Rachel Johnson, one of their best players and two of the other girls were just recovering from attacks of flu, so the score of 30-4 does not seem so portentous when one knows conditions. The next game will give basketball fans a real thrill for the teams will play Arlington on the home floor. This will be the last game on the Boardman floor and it will also be a deciding game. So far the boys have lost none of the league games.

Clem Smith and wife departed on Sunday for their home in Seattle after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gross and family. They will stop at Cecil for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Iman.

Jay Cox and family were over Sunday visitors at the Barlow home. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Campbell of Hermiston were visitors at the F. A. Fortier home Sunday.

The store formerly owned by Mr. Burton on the highway was entered one night last week and a number of things taken. The store was closed by creditors long ago but the stock remains.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Willbank of Ione were dinner guests Sunday at the Geo. Gross home as were Mr. and Mrs. Clem Smith of Seattle.

Chas. Barlow of Heppner was in Boardman Sunday demonstrating one of the new Ford cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coates moved into the Carl Doring house at Messner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell, Stanfield were visiting friends on the project Sunday.

H. Hoikka and two daughters of Centerville, Wn., were guests at the G. A. Harju home overnight last week. Mrs. Harju and son were visitors there a week while having some dental work done and Mr. Hoikka brought them home.

Boardman friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schriever of Lexington will be interested to learn of the arrival of a baby daughter Friday, Feb. 17 in Portland. Mrs. Schriever was formerly Myrtle McNeil and taught here for three years.

Mr. Veto Clossio and family came last week from Bluff on the Deschutes branch to live at Coyote where Mr. Clossio will be section foreman taking Nick Gaglia's place. A number of local people attended the dance at Umattilla Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. P. Rutherford of Arlington have rented the Hatch place for a year.

Milton Shane and wife of Arlington were guests at Robert Wilson's Sunday.

The P. T. A. is sponsoring a Specialty dance Saturday night, February 25 at the school to raise funds for the treasury. O'Sullivan's orchestra of Pendleton will play and both old and new dances will be enjoyed. A large crowd is anticipated.

On March 3 an old time dance will be given at the school house. Proceeds will be used for the well to be drilled at the cemetery, which reminds us—in writing up the history of Boardman recently we found it difficult to get many of the dates accurate because no record had been kept. This really is a grievous error for as the years pass the records become of greater importance. Apropos of records, we wonder if any record has been kept of the dates, ages, etc., of those sleeping in our local cemetery. We suggest that this be done if it has not already been looked after. Perhaps the secretary of the cemetery association could see to it.

The Auxiliary served a fine chicken dinner Sunday at Root's hall to the Legionnaires who cleaned the lot and made preparation for the building of a tennis court. This will be located on the lot adjacent to the Highway Inn. 27 were served at the feed which was greatly appreciated.

Rev. Brady, Catholic priest of Heppner was an overnight guest Saturday at the Peter Farley home and the people on the project of that faith attended mass at the Farley home on Sunday.

Golf is becoming quite the thing again and after a winter's idleness the old clubs, balls, knickers and what have you are hauled out. The course is in good shape and everybody happy.

Mrs. Chas. Dillon was taken to Hermiston Monday to be under the doctor's care for a few days.

A well is being drilled on the Bates ranch.

The annual meeting of the Farm Loan association will be held Saturday, February 25 at 2:00 P. M. at the school house.

There is an acute shortage of good milk cows on the project. The demand greatly exceeds the supply.

Stewart Wilson of Portland came up last week to look at his property which is known as the Asmus ranch.

Messrs. McCabe and Bullard of Ione were in Boardman Sunday looking for trees to plant on the Masonic grounds at that place.

An interesting relic belonging to Casons was brought to light this week. This is a copy of the Ulster County Gazette, published at Kings-ton, Ulster county, near Mt. Vernon on Jan. 4, 1800. The paper, which seems to be of better quality than the newsprint of today, is exceedingly well preserved. It contains four pages of four columns each, the outside page containing political news, the inside page has the columns bordered in black and contains an account of the funeral cortege and burial of Gen. Geo. Washington; also a poem "written by a Young Lady." It contains the report of the American Congress of Tuesday, December 10, 1799, the motion to suspend Congress and an advertisement of a "good healthy negro wench for sale." S. H. Boardman used the paper in his talk to the student body on Feb. 22, the natal day of the famous patriot.

An interesting Washington Day program was held Wednesday morning, February 22, at the school

Distinguished Easterner Will Be Guest Teacher at University Music School

THEODORE SCHROEDER, who comes to the University of Oregon as guest artist instructor for a period of six weeks commencing June 18, is internationally recognized as vocal instructor, pedagogue and artist's coach. He has for many years been eminently identified with the musical life of Boston, where at his studio one finds artists and teachers working with him from all parts of the country, Canada, Mexico and the provinces.

Mr. Schroeder advocates the principles of Bel Canto singing. Freedom of tone production, clarity of technique, distinct diction and elegance in style are salient qualities always evident in his artists, a few of whom are:

Mme. Landers-Carniaux, operatic soprano, Paris; Mme. Underwood-Solberg, Paris; Giovanni Lazarini, operatic baritone, leading Italian opera houses; William Richardson, foremost American colored baritone; Lionel Storr, eminent New York city basso; Mme. Waterman-Stockwell, American concert soprano; Mme. Etta Bradley, distinguished Boston soprano; Mme. Breene-Thompson, American soprano; Clinton White, concert tenor; Louise Biedenharn, eminent contralto; Jue Fong, (known in Eugene as Frank Jue), Chinese tenor; John B. Siefert, head of the voice department of the University of Oregon school of music.

Theodore Schroeder, of Boston

Mr. Schroeder has been devoting his time to making singers in his Boston studio, and his visit to the coast is being anticipated. He is one of a group of distinguished and discriminating musicians who are building up musical life in this country which makes the European sojourn for the training of the voice merely a matter of option, not necessity.

house. Music, recitations, and talks were enjoyed and Bobby Smith took his radio to school to get the radio program broadcast from Reed College at 9:30.

(Too late for last week.)

The Ladies Aid will give a home talent play Tuesday evening, Feb. 21. The next day is a school holiday so the children can come without interfering with their school work. The Economic Boomerang is the name of the play. Several other good features will be presented. You'll want to see the kitchen orchestra and the old push album. Don't miss it, Tuesday night, 28c and 35c.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gaglia and children leave this week for Oneonta where he has been transferred as section foreman. The children will attend school at Bridal Veil, being transported on the bus.

W. A. Price was a dinner guest at the S. H. Boardman home Sunday. Mrs. Price is in Seattle with her mother who has been quite ill but is improving.

The P. T. A. met Tuesday night at the school house with a large attendance. The program was excellent, continuing the health topic of the month previous. Mrs. Claude Coates was chairman of the program committee. A little health playlet with the Tooth Brush Brigade, the various germs, the huge set of teeth, dentist nurse, "Don't Care" and "Take Care," was well rendered. The musical numbers were good, the health movie was shown and Mr. Marschat spoke on Health of the Community, Physical and Mental, and later a typical child's school lunch was served by the committee, Mrs. Duggan and Mrs. Bobby Smith with others assisting. This meant much work for the committee, but was delicious. Clam chowder was served for the hot dish, with bread and butter sandwiches, fruit, health cookies and milk making a balanced menu suitable for a child's lunch.

Any woman who has tried to dry dishes at school without enough tea towels will be glad to contribute one tea towel to be left at school. Please work it plainly "P. T. A." Mrs. Robert Wilson is chairman of the program committee for the next meeting along with Mr. Berger and Miss Beougher. Mrs. Ralph Humphrey, Mrs. O. B. Olson and Mrs. Geo. Gross are the refreshment committee. The program and lunch together made it quite late for the children on a school night.

MORGAN.
Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Ely were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Hynd of Cecil Sunday.

J. A. Harbke and Fay McNabb of Portland were calling on Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardesty Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely and W. F.

Palmtree were called to Estacada Tuesday last by the death of their uncle and brother-in-law. While there they visited Mr. and Mrs. Harbison and found Mrs. Harbison much improved while Mr. Harbison was still very low.

Mr. Porter is busy building a new hen house and brooder for Martin Bauernfiend at Morgan. Watch Morgan grow.

A farewell party was given Mr. and Mrs. L. Funk Friday evening before they left for Wasco where they will make their home. The evening was spent in conversation and games and refreshments were served late in the evening.

Mildred Morgan of Ione spent Monday night with Edith Ely. J. Hardesty and Bert Palmtree were calling in Ione on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Funk and daughter left for Wasco Saturday where they will engage in farming. Rood Eckleberry went off the grade near Horseshoe Bend, wrecking his car, but he came out without a scratch. Lucky for him. Quite a few young folks attended the dance in Lexington last Saturday night.

Mrs. Pat Medlock has been ill for the past week. We are glad to say she is some better now.

Thrilling and Fascinating Romance of Modern Piracy in the South Sea!

Darkness; impenetrable, sinister, intimidating!

Then a flash of light—and into being sprang a vivid, savage face. Wild, copper-hued, great mat of hair, fierce staring eyes, grinning lips drawn back from two rows of square teeth that clamped upon the blade of a ten-inch knife!

It was not the face of a white man. It was the face of—
