

Local Happenings

Mrs. R. W. Turner and son John, who left Heppner ten days ago for Hamilton, Illinois, where Mrs. Turner was called on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Henry Harrison, arrived at their destination in prompt time, having had a pleasant and safe journey. Mrs. Turner writes that she found her sister had been suffering with a very bad case of influenza, but she was much improved and would be able to be up again shortly. The Hamilton paper notes their arrival there thus: "Mrs. R. W. Turner and son John of Heppner, Oregon, arrived in Hamilton Monday evening for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harrison and other relatives. Mrs. Turner will be remembered as Mae Shepherd, a former Hamilton girl. It has been 23 years since she visited Hamilton."

The report of the very serious injury of L. H. Windsor, and 2 other men who were struck by an automobile while walking on the highway near Sacramento, Calif., on Friday last, was distressing news to relatives in this county. Windsor is a nephew of Judge R. L. Bengtson and Mrs. Eph Eskelson of this city, and was born on Social Ridge in this county, making his home at Lexington for several years. He is the son of Mrs. Ruth Barnett of Pendleton and is 34 years of age. His injuries were a broken back, fractured pelvis bone, broken leg and several broken ribs.

Superintendent and Mrs. J. M. Burgess motored to Portland on Friday afternoon, Mr. Burgess going to the city to attend a meeting of one of the committees of the Oregon State Teachers' association of which he is a member. They returned home on Sunday, being accompanied by Mrs. R. D. Gould, mother of Mrs. Burgess, who will visit here for a while.

Mrs. Helen Christensen, Mrs. Herman Hill, Mrs. Jack Little and son Dean, visited the past week with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hill of Lexington. Herman Hill is now in the employ of the Multnomah hotel at Portland. Mrs. Little, who is a sister of Mrs. W. O. Hill, will make an extended visit at Lexington and Heppner.

Otto Lindstrom was here from his home near Morgan on Friday. He reports spring work advancing rapidly in that part of the county now, with prospects of a good season ahead. The winter killing of wheat was very slight, as but little of the tender varieties of grain was sown. His own crops are coming along fine.

J. L. Tanksley of Lexington was operated on Monday at Morrow General hospital by Dr. Johnston under local anesthesia, one pint of fluid being removed from his left lung cavity, the result of pleurisy.

Mr. Baird has been ill with influenza the past week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. O. Hager, and though considerably improved is still very weak. Mr. Baird celebrated his 79th birthday on Monday.

Bryce Keene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keene of Ione, fell off a horse last Thursday and fractured his right elbow. After an x-ray the fracture was reduced and put up in splints, Dr. Johnston attending.

Walter Becket, Eight Mile farmer, was in the city Friday having some work done preparatory to getting into his fields for the spring plowing.

G. L. Bennett, who farms the W. B. Finley ranch down in the Alpine country, was in Heppner Monday looking after business matters. Mr. Bennett can state at this time that much damage was done to Federation wheat down in that part of the county last fall. On his own ranch there is a considerable acreage that is absolutely dead and will have to be reseeded. Some of his neighbors have also suffered a like loss because of the sub-zero weather the past winter. In parts of Umatilla county, especially out east of Echo, Mr. Bennett says there is a very large acreage that is now being reseeded. This land was all sown to Federation last fall.

The Willing workers will give luncheon on Friday, March 30th, in the Church of Christ dining room. The menu will consist of clam chowder, vegetable salad, brown bread and butter, pie and coffee. Price 50c. Will begin serving at 5:30 and continue until 7:00 p. m. An apron and cooked food sale will be held during the afternoon of the same date. You will find aprons for all occasions. 52-1

Chas. H. Latourell, president of the Heppner Rod and Gun club, was in Portland Sunday and took part in the Everding birthday shoot. Making a 24 on his first string of 25, his score was counted with the local club, his being one of the three high guns to be counted in the Oregonian State Telegraphic shoot. He returned home Monday.

Jess Lieuellen drove in from Walla Walla yesterday for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Padberg. He is a brother of Mrs. Padberg, and for many years was a resident of this county and lived some of the time in Heppner. He will return to Walla Walla today.

Dr. Clarke, of the Clarke Optical Co., 360 A. Alder St., Portland, Ore., EYE SIGHT SPECIALISTS, will be in Heppner all day and evenings, Saturday and Sunday, March 24th and 25th, at Hotel Heppner. SEE HIM ABOUT YOUR EYES. 51-2
