DISCUSSING the subject of taxation from the standpoint of the ordinary business man and taxpayer and from the standpoint of better conditions for industries and producers from the soil, to make Oregon a better state to attract home-seekers, and to bring capital in for development, the Manufacturer and Industrial News Bureau of Salem, Col. E. Hofer, editor, sent out this week a bulletin, from which we take the following, under the above caption:

The state of Oregon has several reform organizations that are actively engaged in fighting further exploitation of the taxpayer, and by reducing taxation they seek to promote the development of the state. This is to be accomplished by the Greater Oregon association and the State Taxpayer's association. The state faces a two-million-dollar deficit this year in revenues, and the Greater Oregon association helped defeat $15,000,000 of initiatives on the special election ballot in 1927.

There are three ways open to any organization for the reduction of taxes on property, real or personal, and to reduce taxes on the homes, home-owning, land-cultivation and industries with payrolls. They are: First—Reduce numerous boards, commissions, regents, etc., and adopt the direct cabinet system where the Governor appoints heads of departments, (subject to removal for failure in economical or constructive policies). The sixty odd boards and commissions are nearly all engaged in swelling demands for revenues and join in increasing taxes and appropriations and cannot reduce the fixed charges of government.

Second—Increase the volume of state revenues by license taxes on dance halls, pool halls and all forms of nonproductive sports, amusements, luxuries not necessary to support of family life, that do not employ labor, but collect money every day, including Sundays.

Third—Vote down all devices for new forms of taxation on lands, improvements on same, homes, legitimate business or industries employing labor, and proposed state income taxes. The new commission to reduce property taxes, taxes in counties, cities and minor subdivisions is composed of a board of 35 created by the legislature. They are sincere in wanting reduction of taxes and overhead expenses, but agree that it cannot be done by inventing new forms of taxation in addition to all we have.

Revenue conditions in Oregon are such that ownership of property is becoming less desirable, and development of the state will be almost impossible, without material reduction in the general tax rates.

BUY AT HOME.

A COMMUNITY thrives when its merchants thrive. Home town buying and trading is as essential to a community's growth and progress as its streets, boulevards, churches and schools. It is the duty of every citizen of a community to make his purchases at home. Numerous "Buy At Home" campaigns have stressed this fact and have taught this important lesson, but still there are some people who go elsewhere than their own home surroundings when making purchases.

The truth is that as good merchandise can be obtained at home as can be secured through the mails from any large city; and as patronage increases, the quality of the local merchant's stock is bound to grow even better.

There are numerous reasons why you should patronize your home merchants. They have invested their money and their future in your town; they pay taxes in your town; they give employment to people in your town. The wide-awake citizen should boost his town in every way. He should take a lively interest in local activities of every nature, join the local clubs, attend the local theater. No need to go elsewhere; all the real pleasures of life are available right at your doorstep.

And, to put in a word for ourselves, it is a mighty good idea to be a regular reader of your local newspaper!

LET US HAVE A STATEMENT.

A number have expressed intention through the public prints of seeking office at the coming election. They have no quarrel with any of them. At the same time, however, we would wish for a more definite statement of policy particularly from those who seek the office of Sheriff. The liquor question is not only a live national issue but it is also a paramount local issue and the public has a right to know where the candidates stand with reference to it. And not only has the public this right but it has a right to see promises of law enforcement in the public print, right down in black and white where the promises may be compared to performance after election. If some one were in Umatilla County is ambitious to go to the legislature let them make the race for it within their own county and let Morrow County have her rights in the matter of the Joint Representative.

Dr. Frank Crane Says:

SINGING

People spend a vast deal of money every year in listening to singing. But the trouble is they simply listen to it. They are auditors and not singers.

We like to crowd the bleachers, watch baseball and football and tennis games, and we like to go to grand opera and concerts and vaudeville and hear them sing.

But the best part of singing is the reaction upon the singer himself.

We are notoriously bad singers. We hire choirs in churches to sing for us when we ought to be singing ourselves.

Do it yourself, is the best advice in physical culture.

Let us not have so many things done for us, but do them ourselves, and we will be better off. It may be pleasant to have a masseur or a masseuse work at you, but the best form of exercise is automotive.

Get out and take a walk or play a game or do something that starts the sweat and thus improve the sewage system of the body, something that circulates the blood rapidly.

Exercise should be taken judiciously, of course, but the best form of exercise is mild exercise which you do regularly. Irregular exercise or exercise once in a while is about as good as none at all.

Many people are constantly making spurs toward physical culture, but spurs are not what we need. We require regularity.

Take any form of physical exercise, any system, for they all embrace about the same points, only adopt some system that will bring the unused muscles of the body into play.

There is no better healthful exercise than singing, provided we do the singing ourselves.

Public school teachers tell us that almost any number of youths can be taught to sing, and it is an art that we should all cultivate.

There is no better music than congregational singing.

The Germans, at least, can sing their national anthem, and the British non-conformist congregations are vocal.

We alone are too much inclined to be mere auditors and not doers.

temperature and rainfall will be for months ahead.

If there is any such method, its discovery would be a firm relief of the best possible kind.

UMATILLA county now comes forward with one candidate, at least, for joint representative.

George Roberts of Pendleton, a farmer of that vicinity, has announced his intention of seeking the nomination for this office at the May primaries on the republican ticket, and will be in the running from now on. Mr. Roberts is highly spoken of as a man and citizen of his county, but he is not much known over this way. This gives us two candidates now seeking this nomination, as J. P. Conder of this city cast his derby into the ring by announcement in last issue of this paper. Just why Morrow county should be tacked on to Umatilla as a part of this representative district, we are unable to state, but it appears to us that it is an unjust arrangement and one that always places us to a disadvantage and practically denies us representation in the legislature, and makes it an uphill job for a man over this way to be elected. Arrangements have been entered into heretofore where Umatilla would keep out and give the Morrow county men a clear field, but this cannot always be worked out, and it will doubtless be impossible to make such an arrangement this year. So we repeat our statement of last issue that it will take a lot of hard work on the part of a Morrow county man to overcome the natural lead the Umatilla man has for the nomination.

Hildegard Schwinghammer won the nail driving contest at the University of Minnesota, so it appears there is something in a name after all.

Brevity, they say, is the soul of wit, and a woman's costume by this standard is funnier even than some people thought.

Public Opinion

GIVE MORROW COUNTY HER RIGHTS.

Heppner, Oregon, Mar. 19, 1928. To the Editor of The Gazette Times: Replying to your comment on the editorial page on the slogan "A Morrow County Man in the Legislature" you state, "It is not known at present whether he will have opposition, though there is talk of a man coming out over Umatilla county, and as the heavy vote is over that way, and the people there have a habit of standing by their man, it will take a lively campaign on the part of a man from this end of the district if he wins the nomination."

I am ready to make that lively campaign for I believe that I have the right thinking voter, from the lowest to the highest in the state of Oregon, will concede Morrow County should have a representation and recognition in the State Legislature. If Morrow County is ever to get anywhere in this matter, let her wake up, and put the matter honestly and intelligently up to the voters of the two counties and I am quite sure Morrow County will get the Joint Representative. If some one were in Umatilla County is ambitious to go to the legislature let them make the race for it within their own county and let Morrow County have her rights in the matter of the Joint Representative.

Men Made of Metal.

Generosity of Nature. Plant Idle? Certainly. A Good Italian Law.

R. J. Wensley, inventor of a mechanical man that unveiled a statue of George Washington, believes that men made of metal will liberate us from industrial slavery, as Washington liberated us from European tyranny.

Workers need not fear that mechanical "robots" will ruin the labor market. Long ago mechanical men and women made their appearance in machinery of all kinds, driven by steam and electricity. One machine does the knitting for ten thousand women, one locomotive pulls the load of a thousand stage coaches, replacing 1,000 drivers.

The perfected machine will not be an imitation man standing upright on two legs. That position man achieved to look out over high grass for enemies and prey, in the beginning, and to look up at the stars later. Mechanical men can be only an interesting curiosity, not an industrial success. Science improves on nature and does not imitate it, the ultimate flying machine without bird wings or methods will prove that.

From a big orange tree in Southern California the Riverside Chamber of Commerce sends 126 oranges to as many newspaper editors. The tree is one of two imported from Brazil by the United States Department of Agriculture. Those two trees are the father and mother of all the "Washington navel trees" that make up great groves in Southern California.

Similarly, a few cherry trees, brought by Lucullus from his wars in Asia, are the ancestors of millions of cherry trees that small American boys climb every year. Such are the wealth and generosity of Nature.

Mr. Rogers at Muscle Shoals inspects with his mournful cowboy eye a $150,000,000 plant built by the people to produce nitrogen to supply cheap fertilizer for farmers, and explosives in case of war.

Mr. Rogers remarks that such a plant lying idle is enlightening. It means that the Government isn't quite ready to deliver the plant over to the power trust.

And until the power trust gets it, that trust won't let anybody else use the Muscle Shoals plant.

Thanks to Mussolini's common sense, a new law compels merchants in Italy to mark prices plainly and stick to the prices. That will increase foreign buying, especially by Americans, who do not like to pay double or devote half an hour to bargaining over a trifle.

Merchants in Italy won't like it, but their business and prosperity will increase.

Machinery will be devised eventually to do the so-called back-breaking farm work that proud United States citizens, accustomed to their automobiles, no longer will do. But nothing should be done too suddenly, unless the Government is willing to precipitate hard times over a wide area.

Newspapers tell of a baby "dead ten times." Ten times in its short five weeks of life the baby's heart stopped beating in a struggle against pleuro-pneumonia. Ten times it was revived and it probably will live. The doctors did wonders.

There is just a line about the mother. Still weak, following the baby's birth, she gave her blood in transfusion to save her baby's life. Her name is Mrs. G. E. Olmstead, and what she did ten million mothers would do, gladly.

TODAY WE EXCELL IN SMALLPOX

(From State Board of Health)

"The United States has more smallpox than any country outside of Asia. There were 33,752 smallpox cases in this country in 1926. The reason is simple. We have more smallpox because we have more cheerful idiots opposing vaccination, which PREVENTS smallpox.

"In Europe, where vaccination is intelligently enforced, ten nations had not one single case of smallpox in 1926. Eighteen nations had only 1,000 cases among them. "It is enlightening to read that smallpox is more frequent where opposition to vaccination is strongest—southern California and northern England.

"We had in 1926 six times as many cases of smallpox as Russia, with more population than we have. And in Russia, before Catherine the second was vaccinated, scores of thousands died of smallpox every year. The little boy that supplied vaccine for the Russian Empress, by the way, was actually created Duke of Smallpox."

Blue lake, Campbell lake and Dead Horse lake, situated in Lake county, closed from September 1 to July 15 of each year for a period of ten years.

can the following item is a curiosity of ye olden days:

"September 17, 1885—Clark County is reported as follows: June deaths 22; July deaths 52; August deaths 260; total 324. Of these 270 were French Catholics; 27 Irish Catholics; 2 Scotch Catholics; 17 Protestants; 3 English Catholics and 4 unknown. Only twenty-six persons over 20 years of age died of smallpox in the three months mentioned."

The reason that smallpox is still prevalent and still spreads from state to state and city to city is a tribute to the power of prejudice and ignorance in face of a better knowledge on the part of everybody.

Smiles

"When I started in business," said the self-made man, "my motto was 'Get these behind me, Satan!'"

"Were you successful?"

"Well, there's nothing like a good backer."

"I say, Artimus, does she roll her own?"

"No, Cicereita, she just lets them slide."

Prude: "I don't believe in petting on general principles."

Rude: "Darn right! But did you ever try it on back-porches?"

Parson: "Brudder Johnson, does yoah daughter trust in God?"

Johnson: "She shoah mist, jedging from the company she keeps."

He: "What time should I come tonight?"

She: "Come after dinner."

"That's what I was coming after."
