T. W. Cutsforth, visiting in Morrow county from his home at Salem from which place he arrived the first of last week, was in Heppner Saturday. He believes the prospects to be excellent at the present time for a fine yield of wheat in the county. The grain is doing well on his home farm north of Lexington. Mr. Cutsforth strongly recommends turkey red for his section, finding that over the period of years he has been raising it, it has been a good yielder, winter hardy and a "sure bet." He says he has had his experience with sowing spring wheat in the fall, and answers "never again." The valley has been "plenty wet" this spring, and he takes responsibility for bringing the heavy precipitation to this county that arrived the same time he did and has been continuing at intervals since.

Pete Curran, who has been at the Bowman ranch on Butter creek for the past two months, working through lambing, was in Heppner a couple of days this week for a visit with his family. This is one of the John Kilkenny places, and Mr. Curran states they handled a band of 3400 head of ewes, beginning the first of February and just finishing during the past week, and the yield of lambs exceeded 100 per cent. The ewes were lambed on hay, as the range was frozen up the most of the time and there was no grass. Pete will continue to work for Mr. Kilkenny, by whom he has been employed during the past four years. Lambing is now proceeding satisfactorily on the upper Kilkenny ranches.

Bert Mason and E. J. Bristol, lone merchants, were going business in this city on Wednesday forenoon. These gentlemen express the opinion that there is plenty of moisture in the wheat fields of the lone country right now to bring the growing crop to maturity, and should June rains prevail there will be a bumper crop in that part of the county again this season.

Everett Hayes drove over from his home at Joseph on Friday, and remained until Sunday morning, when he and Mrs. Hayes and their young son, Leland, returned to Joseph. Mrs. Hayes and baby had been spending a month here, visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmateer and Mr. Palmateer's father, W. F. Palmateer of Morgan were visitors here on Saturday. Bert reports plenty of moist weather around Morgan and the fields are being well wet; grain is coming along fine and another good crop is in prospect.

Mrs. W. G. McCarty returned from The Dalles on Sunday, where she was called earlier in the week by the illness of her son, Willis McCarty, whom she reports as much improved in health when she left for home.

The primary department of the Episcopal church will hold their Easter party in the parish house at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Parents of the children are invited to attend.

About 500 dozen more fresh eggs wanted. Heppner Bakery. 3.

H. A. Lindeken, who with his family was visiting in Heppner from the lone section on Friday, is resuming his entire fall sowing of soft Federation wheat. Mr. Lindeken recently leased the Fricwald estate land of 800 acres north of Lone and will have 1400 acres in crop this method of farming, and de-known as the Walker farm south of Lone, which he works entirely with a "cat" tractor. At the present time the tractor is going a double shift when the weather permits. Mr. Lindeken is thoroughly sold on this method of farming, and declares he hasn't a head of work stock on the place. His son Carl, however, is not adverse to the livestock game, raising a bunch of Chin Chilla rabbits and belonging to the Lone Rabbit club.

At their meeting on Monday night the city council closed a deal with Latourell Auto company for a 1-1-2 ton Ford truck which will be used to replace the present truck used in the fire department. On this new truck will be placed the fire apparatus, and the old fire truck will be used for hauling the city water sprinkler.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Olden of Eight Mile were Heppner visitors yesterday. Mr. Olden, with a number of other residents of his section, was attending the session of county court and working for a change in the road leading out to Eight Mile. This has been a pretty live question out that way for some time.

H. R. Smith, Rock creek sheepman, was a visitor in Heppner on Wednesday, looking after summer range for his flocks. Weather conditions have been pretty severe out his way of late, but range is good and grain over on the west side of the county is coming along fine.

Alex Wilson was up from his Boardman home the end of the week. For many weeks past he has been suffering from blood poisoning in his arm, but is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. French Burroughs of Jordan Siding were visitors in this city for a short time on Wednesday.

M. R. Morgan of Lone was a visitor here Wednesday, attending the meeting of the county court.

Paul G. Balsiger, leading garage man of Lone, was transacting business in the city Saturday.

August Liebel, extensive wheat raiser of the lone section, was a Heppner visitor Saturday.

Ernest Lundell, garage man and auto dealer of Lone, was a business visitor here on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. French were visitors in this city from the Gurdane home on Tuesday.
