Operetta
 In just another week, April 25, the operetta will be here, folks.
 Miss Ede has had the play postponed for a week in order to polish off the rough places and smooth out certain difficult lines of the cast. The Dutch portion of the cast are real Dutchmen. The Burgomaster (alias Clair Cox), and Hans (Ellis Thomson) furnish a big part of the comedy.

Remember, high school auditorium, April 25.

Student Body Meeting
 The regular student body meeting was held Wednesday, April 11, and it was decided that political parties would be formed for the election of student body officers for next fall.

Not more than three parties may be formed. Each of these must have a name and present a petition to the principal giving its platform and candidates.

All voting will be done in secret this year, and the ballot system is to be initiated.

Pep Meeting
 A pep meeting led by Jack Castiel and Hazel McDavid was held immediately following the student body meeting Wednesday, April 11. Speeches were given by Mr. Johnson, coach of the baseball team, and their captain, Gerald Sloum. The baseball boys lined up on the stage while the student body gave cheers for the success of the game with Ione the following Friday.

Ione Defeated 3-14
 The Heppner high school baseball team won their second game of the season from the Ione high team on the local field Friday, April 13.

Friday the 13th, seemed to be a lucky day for the local boys, as an excellent display of batting and fielding was shown throughout the entire game.

"Firm" Robertson, Heppner's pitcher, succeeded in holding down his end of the game during the six innings in the pitcher's box. Marvin Gammell finished the game with only a few hits off him.

Ritchie, Ione's pitcher was released at the end of the sixth inning by G. Swanson.

Heppner will play at Ione April 21.

BOARDMAN

Mrs. Ray Brown and daughter Mabel and Miss Helen Chaffee motored to Walla Walla for the week end. Mr. Brown has been up there for several days and he came home with them.

A baby daughter, 5 1/2 lbs., was born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stahl at Pendleton on Friday the 13th. Mrs. Stahl is a sister of Mrs. D. F. Ransier.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Goodwin spent the week end at Heppner with W. A. Goodwin.

Dr. Rowe of Hermiston was a project visitor Sunday.

Gay M. Anderson, candidate for county clerk, and family from Heppner were in Boardman on Sunday.

E. T. Messenger and family and Mrs. M. K. Flickinger shopped in Pendleton Saturday. Miss Mildred stayed overnight with her sister Nellie.

C. G. Blayden was home Saturday from Ione where he is bagging on the highway.

The time soon approaches for the annual ordeal of school election, C. S.

Calkins is the retiring director and he absolutely refuses to go again. Several names have been mentioned, among them L. G. Smith, Chas. Wicklander and Ray Brown. All are good men and any one could fill the position, difficult though it be.

The last P. T. A. meeting of the year was held Tuesday night, April 10, with only a small crowd present. Election of officers was held with Mrs. W. O. King selected president, Mrs. Marschat vice-president, and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie secretary. Mrs. Lee Mead re-elected treasurer, and Mrs. Jack Gorham appointed publicity chairman. Mr. Calkins gave a review of the accomplishments of the organization the past year which have been not only financial but physical, the largest return being the sponsoring of the tonnage tickets last winter. There is a balance of $30 in the treasury and the question of how to spend it was discussed at length and it was decided to appoint a committee of five men to see about getting swings and teeters for the small folk and also to see about the feasibility of hauling dirt to cover the rocks so that the youngsters might have a decent play ground, something they have never yet had. It is useless to rake up the rocks for after every wind storm a new crop appears. Messrs. Mead, Gillespie, Marschat, Hereim and King were appointed on the committee. After the business was transacted a most delicious vice-president and King treated, consisting of gold and white cake, chicken sandwiches and coffee. Mrs. T. E. Broyles was the chairman of the committee and assisted by Mrs. H. Weston, Mrs. Chas. Dillon and Mrs. J. H. Inus.

Alvin Wantland, an employee of the State Highway, was badly burned when he used a lantern to look into a tank of gas at Messner, Gaeco is the heavy duty ground, something it was being heated. Enough fumes had accumulated to cause it to explode when the lantern came in contact with them.

Some malicious mischief brought both grief and ill feeling last Tuesday when he administered a piece of mutton saturated with strychnine to the dogs of H. B. Calkins. A. P. Ayers and Walter Knapp, Mr. Ayers' boys, just trained his dog so he was of some assistance to him with the sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Stanford and family of Red Lake, Cal., were recent visitors at the Royal Rands home enroute to Freewater. Mrs. Stanford is a sister of Mrs. Rands.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gorham and Mrs. C. G. Blayden shopped in The Dalles Wednesday.

Miss Pearl Leathers of Woodland, Wash. visited with her cousin, Miss Lavelle Leathers Tuesday. She came with her uncle, Holly Leathers of Monument.

W. W. Kessler of Medford was a recent visitor at the Rands home.

Mr. Ellis, who has been in the Glen Brown place rented, is tearing the house down to make flood boxes. It was in a bad state of disrepair.

Mrs. J. B. Johnson and daughter Rachel returned Sunday evening from a pleasant motor trip to Portland, going down on Wednesday to do some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barlow, Mrs. W. H. Medford and daughter Evelyn, motored to Condon Saturday where they visited at the Albert Macomber home, returning Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Skoubo and family motored to Hermiston Sunday and visited Andy Andregg.

The I. O. O. F. lodge is issuing invitations for an old time dance Wednesday night, April 25, honoring the 10th anniversary of the order. Messrs. Olson and Ransier will play.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barlow are living in the Albert Macomber home.

Mrs. D. F. Ransier will be hostess for the Home Economics club at the next meeting April 25th.

Mrs. L. C. Conroy is proud of her new Haag Vortex washer which her husband purchased for her recently.

Buster Rands had some dental work done in Arlington last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Macomber, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gross, Miss Lavelle Leathers and Miss Mabel Chapman were guests at the Hereim home Friday evening for "500".

Milton Shane and wife of Arlington have rented the Kelly place. Mr. Shane is a nephew of Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Howard Packard went to Arlington Saturday for dental work.

Frank and Earl Cramer have been shearing sheep on the project.

Abe Hanson, the well driller, has moved his drilling outfit to Geo. Mitchell's place from the cemetery where he completed a well. This was 55 feet in depth.

Mrs. S. H. Boardman and children were dinner guests Monday evening at the Royal Rands home, honoring Buster's 17th birthday anniversary.

The Montague shearing crew from Arlington have been shearing Shane's sheep on the Island and will shear Johnny McNamee's this week.

Erna Broyles has returned to Hermiston for a further course of chiropractic treatments.

Robert Partlow came up Saturday from Klamath Falls and took his grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Partlow, back with him.

W. L. Brown and Mrs. Grace Cohoon and daughter Lois came down Sunday from Washington for a short visit at the Ray Brown home.

Miss Mabel Chapman went to her home in Hood River Friday night to be with her sister who had to undergo an operation.

Neal Bleakney and family of Echo were down Saturday to visit at the H. Weston home, returning on Sunday.

Miss Emma Agee who has been taking a course of treatments at Hermiston from Dr. Rowe, is reported to be much improved.

Janet and Mardell Gorham, Mary Anne Chaffee, Mrs. Gorham and Mrs. Chaffee, helped Donna Jane Rands celebrate her 2nd birthday recently.

The lower classmen are giving a Senior Frolic on Saturday night, April 21 at the auditorium for the benefit of the seniors. Old and new dances will be enjoyed. An orchestra consisting of Victor Hango, Eldon Wilson, Miss Henry, Nate Macomber and Mr. Wicklander will play. Invitations are extended only to Boardman residents.

Russell Mefford is driving the East End bus for the balance of the school year.

Miss Emma Agee, who is taking a course of chiropractic treatments for gonitis at Hermiston, is reported to be much improved.

Bert Richardson is at Hermiston under the care of Dr. Sears.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Broyles and family and Dr. Rowe and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Cosgrove, were dinner guests Sunday at the Chas. Dillabough home.

Mrs. Cosgrove is visiting her daughter Mrs. Rowe at Hermiston and enjoyed her trip over the project very much.

Ruel Knowlton left Monday for Portland where he will visit with his brother Charles for a time.

RHEA CREEK.
 Robert Burnside is now at the Morrow General hospital recovering from an operation for rupture. His wife and baby are staying at Bob Allstott's.

Shearing has begun at several places in this vicinity, and is about finished at the Hoskins ranch.

Friends of the Redding family will be sorry to hear that their son Earl is now at the Morrow General hospital suffering from a badly broken leg inflicted by the kick of a horse.

Victor Johnson has taken up the work of plowing on the Ray Wright place which was so recently laid down by Elmer McDaniel.

Mrs. Anna Hestey recently returned from Heppner driving a Chevrolet coach purchased from the dealers there.

It is reported that Marion Saling intended to move his family to Rhea creek and work for John McDonald. He is being congratulated on the arrival of a young daughter which has been given the name of Erna Lee.

All members of the H. E. C. are requested to attend the next meeting, on the 23rd, to consider matters of importance.

On Friday night, April 27, Rhea Creek school will give a program for the benefit of the school, one of the main features of which will be a play entitled "Folled by Heck!"

The characters are: Reuben Hanks, a nearly self-made man, Raymond McDonald; Mrs. Mattilda Hanks, who did the rest, Beth Wright; Irene Hanks, their perfectly lovely daughter, June Allstott; Clarence Codd, a hero in home-spun; Aley Fock; Olivia De La Vere, the plaything of fate, poor girl, Mary Allstott; Sylvester Brewster, with a viper's heart, Frank Owen.

Mrs. Laura Scott of Lexington was a visitor here for a short while on Saturday.

Harry Turner, in from Sand Hollow Saturday, reports that grain has been rather slow in growth, owing to continued cold weather, but the moisture content of the ground is good and there will certainly be something doing when the weather warms up.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson are over from Pendleton this week, being called to Heppner by the serious illness of their son, Ollie, who is suffering with pneumonia.
