

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Propst of Ashland were visitors over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Davidson in Ione. Mrs. Propst is a sister of Mr. Davidson, and she and her husband formerly resided in this county, in the vicinity of Gooseberry, but have lived in Southern Oregon for many years. Mr. Propst accompanied Mr. Davidson on a visit to Heppner Saturday. His last visit here was at the time of the Heppner flood.

C. J. D. Bauman, commander of Heppner Post No. 87, American Legion, attended the meeting in Salem the first of last week and listened to the address of National Commander Spafford. He later attended the meeting of Grand Chapter of R. A. M. in Portland and returned to Heppner in time to officiate at the annual installation of officers of Heppner Lodge No. 358, B. P. O. E., on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Briggs enjoyed a visit on Saturday and Sunday with Clarence French and wife of Hollywood, Calif. Mr. French is a nephew of Mrs. Briggs and is on a trip to the Northwest to attend to matters of business at Portland and other points, and took advantage of the opportunity to make his relatives here a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. French departed on Sunday afternoon for Seattle.

Gay M. Anderson and family motored to Arlington Saturday evening to meet a sister of Mrs. Anderson who was on her way east by train. They returned home on Sunday, driving to Boardman and coming over to Ione in time for the ball game in which Gay took part. Mr. Anderson reports that crops along the road leading into Ione from Boardman are certainly showing up fine now.

Tilman Hogue reports pretty stormy weather the first of the week in the Gooseberry section, but farmers are pushing their spring plowing, regardless. The grain is growing fine and gives promise of a bumper crop, so there is little to complain of, though warmer weather conditions would be appreciated. Mr. Hogue was a visitor in the city on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. J. Nys spent the week end in Portland, enjoying a visit with friends. They were accompanied by F. B. Nickerson, who went on to Salem, where he was an invited guest at the Willos-Kelly "necktie party," which was suddenly postponed by order of Governor Patterson. Mr. and Mrs. Nys and Mr. Nickerson returned home Saturday night.

According to the Oregon Daily Emerald, U. of O. student publication, Miss Lucia Bengel of Heppner has been appointed chairman of the week-end entertainment at the university for Mother's Day, which will be fittingly observed on May 11. The students will look forward to a large attendance of mothers on this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Biggs of Hermiton were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Huston in this city Monday evening. Mr. Biggs came over to attend a meeting of Heppner Post, American Legion, and Mrs. Biggs is an old-time friend of Mrs. Huston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson are enjoying a visit with Mrs. Sarah Bennett, sister of Mrs. Patterson, who arrived recently from her home at Findlay, Ohio. Mrs. Bennett expects to remain at Heppner for several weeks.

Percy Jarmon of Butter creek was a visitor in Heppner on Friday. He reported that his daughter, Miss Helen Jarmon, who was very seriously injured in an automobile accident some two weeks ago, is quite well recovered now.

Mrs. D. T. Goodman visited over the week end with Mr. Goodman in Heppner. Mrs. Goodman will remain in Portland until the close of the school year.

Erik Bergstrom, wheatraiser of Gooseberry, was a visitor here on Friday, and reports his crops coming along fine.

Earl Redding, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Redding of Eight Mile, was kicked on the right lower leg Friday by a horse. Both bones were fractured. He was brought to the Morrow General hospital where the leg was x-rayed and put in a cast under gas anesthesia. Earl will be laid up about two months, states Dr. Johnston, attending physician.

The farming section surrounding Lexington is beginning to put on a very beautiful appearance as the grain is getting under good growth. Reports from there indicate a heavy wheat yield again this year, even though the season has been somewhat backward to date. There is no lack of moisture, and it still comes along with frequent showers.

Artie Patrick, buckaroo from Cheyenne, Wyo., was thrown from a horse Saturday at Rodeo field and kicked in the face, fracturing his left lower jaw bone. The jaw was wired together by Drs. Johnston and Farris. Artie will have to eat through a tube for some time.

Robert Burnside of Hardman was injured Thursday when lifting a sack of wheat and slipped and fell into the wagon. He was operated on Tuesday at the Morrow General hospital for rupture by Dr. Johnston. The operation was done under spinal anesthesia.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gammell of Helix were called to Heppner on Monday to attend the funeral of little Arthur Don Gammell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gammell. They returned home on Monday evening following the burial services.

Max Gorfke, Pendleton merchant and wool buyer, spent a few days here this week, interviewing our woolmen and gathering up some pelts. Mr. Gorfke has bought a large quantity of wool in this county already this season.

Henry Krebs, Cecil sheepman, was a Heppner visitor on Tuesday. Shearing at the Krebs ranch has been progressing quite satisfactorily, with the F. W. Turner crew doing the work.

Mrs. C. L. Sweek injured her left foot Friday when she hit it on the end of a rocker and ruptured a blood vessel on top of the foot. The injury confined her to the house for a few days.

Dr. Johnston was called to attend F. W. Volle on upper Rhea creek above the Hamilton ranch, who is ill and confined to his bed with dropsy and heart disease.

Mrs. Rachel Burchell, who recently underwent an operation at Morrow General hospital, was able to return to her home at Lexington on Friday.

Leon Logan of Cecil underwent a minor operation at the office of Dr. Johnston on Friday for carbuncle of the upper lip.

Mrs. Ralph Scott and baby boy, Ralph, Jr., returned to their home Sunday from the Morrow General hospital.

Harold Cohn departed for Portland Tuesday morning, going to the city on matters of business.

Percy Hughes, of Umapine, was a visitor here on Monday, looking after business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Olden of Fairview spent a few hours in this city on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson, who reside south of Ione, spent a portion of Wednesday in this city. Mr. Peterson reports the grain making good growth, regardless of the cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, residents of Social Ridge, were visitors in the city on Tuesday.

Jas. Carty, Tub Springs sheepman, was a visitor in the city Friday.

I'm building a garage
(Says Bill the Builder)—and I'll be gum swizzled if I'll park Henry under a tree for another night's lodging. Henry is a good, faithful steed, but he gets rheumatism in his universal joints from exposure to the night air. So it's a swell room with private bath and all modern conveniences for Henry, and I saved the price of two new tires and a wash and polish, because I bought my lumber from
