

BOARDMAN

A number of Boardman fight fans attended the smoker at Umatilla Friday night.

Bert Richardson, who has been ill for a number of months, was brought home Friday from Hermiston where he has been under the care of Dr. Sears. He is quite ill. "The Big Parade," a famous movie, was shown in Boardman on Friday and Saturday nights to good houses.

Dr. and Mrs. F. Gunster of The Dalles were recent visitors at the Royal Rands home.

Supt. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat were guests at a lovely dinner at the C. S. Calkins home on Monday evening.

Erna, the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Skobo, was kicked in the stomach by a horse and knocked unconscious one day last week. She was ill for a few days but is apparently well again. On Thursday Harry Humphrey, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Humphrey, fell off the wagon and one wheel passed over his leg. It was bruised but not injured badly.

Dr. Donnelly of The Dalles was up recently, a guest at the Sanders home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. King, her father, Mr. Fagg, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Price and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorham and Miss Alice Falk were guests Thursday evening at the Hereim's. Five hundred was played.

Mrs. W. A. Price and her committee entertained Wednesday at the regular Silver tea at the Price home. The house was prettily decorated with white lilacs, tulips and iris and had yellow and white streamers from the chandelier to each corner of the room. The same color scheme of yellow and white predominated in the luncheon room and dainty yellow and white nut cups were given as favors. Hostesses: Mesdames Price, Allen, Flickinger, Boardman, and Kunzie. Mrs. Kunzie was unable to be present at the meeting.

Mrs. Jess Allen is pleased to have her mother, Mrs. Kelly of Clearwater, Neb., with her for a visit.

The church was crowded to capacity Sunday evening, May 6, at the annual baccalaureate services. The program was as follows: hymn, congregation; invocation, Rev. A. D. Swogger; hymn, congregation; selection, high school quartette; sermon, Rev. G. G. Price of Pendleton; hymn; benediction.

This has been a busy week with various school activities. The seniors have been much feted. A pleasant party was that given Wednesday night at the teachers' cottage with the faculty members honoring the seniors. "Bug" was the evening's diversion and is an hilarious and exciting game. Nice refreshments were served. Present were the faculty members, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Calkins, Mr. Z. J. Gillespie and Mrs. W. O. King and Mrs. L. E. Marschat, and members of the senior class.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gross arrived home Monday morning from a pleasant motor trip to Spokane where they went on both business and pleasure. They were absent a week. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Imus stayed on the ranch during their absence.

Howard Ellis has purchased a classy little Ford roadster. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mefford were up from Portland over the week end.

Honoring Miss Ethel Beougher and Miss Ellen Henry, both of whom have been of much help in the Sunday school and church giving freely of their time and talents, the Sunday school teachers gave a sumptuous chicken dinner Sunday at the J. R. Johnson home. Seated at the beautifully appointed table were Mrs. S. H. Boardman, Sunday school superintendent, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Messenger, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Calkins, assistant superintendent, Mr. and Mrs. Jess M. Allen and Mrs. Kelly, mother of Mrs. Allen, Rev. A. D. Swogger and family, the Johnsons and the honorees. Miss Beougher who has been the popular home economics teacher here for the past three years, has been faithful in assisting in the church work all during her stay. She goes to Toledo, Ore., next year and Boardman's loss will be Toledo's gain, as she takes an active part in community and church and Sunday school as well as being a very capable teacher.

C. G. Wagner of The Dalles has been buying wool on the project. Donna Jean Rands has been sick with what was feared was Trench Mouth.

Mrs. E. B. Richardson and daughter Viola of Salem spent several days at the Bert Richardson home last week.

To the Republican Voters of Morrow County:

Write in the Name of

S. E. Notson

Republican Candidate for Representative in Congress

Second District. To Succeed N. J. Sinnott, Resigned.

Primary Election May 18, 1928

There will be a blank space on your ballot under the heading "For Representative in Congress—Second district." In this blank space write in the name "S. E. NOTSON" and put a cross in front of it, thus:

FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS— Second District: Baker, Crook, Deschutes, Gilliam, Grant, Harney, Hood River, Jefferson, Klamath, Lake, Malheur, Morrow, Sherman, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, Wasco and Wheeler Counties. Vote for One

X S. E. Notson

In discussing the candidates for nomination for Representative, the Oregon Voter said concerning Mr. Notson:

"S. E. Notson of Heppner has a war record and a record in office and in politics that makes him a formidable contender. His war record consists not only in the contribution of two patriotic sons, one of whom enlisted before a state of war was declared and the other immediately thereafter, but in his capable energy in war work. What Notson did in war drives will not be forgotten by those who were associated with him. He was on the job day and night, with industry and fervor, and showed capacity for leadership. IF ELECTED, HE WOULD PROVE EFFECTIVE IN CONGRESS."
