EVERYBODY VOTE.

THIS week winds up the campaign I preparatory to the primary nom-ination election on Friday. Because of the numerous candidates in the field for the republican nomination IN MEMORY OF THE to the office of representative in WRIGHTS. congress from the second district, there has been a greater interest among the electorate than is commonly the case, and this should be usual significance has been unthe means of getting out a larger veiled.

Every man and woman in Morrov county of qualified age should take time on Friday to go to the polls and cast their vote for the candidates they desire to see nominated. There are some contests on the re-publican side, and a number of good men are desiring the favor of the We are not making any ommendations as to the county ticket, as our only interest is in the nomination of good men for the various places, and we are sure this will be the result.

As to the congressional race, naturally Morrow county people should stand by their nome man. Mr. Notson is in the race and right among those in the lead for this nomination. No republican of this county should feel that he is making a mistake in giving him his support, be-cause his chances of winning are just as good as any of the others, and local pride should prompt us to boost for the home man. His plat-form is sound, and as to his ability to carry out his promises, there can be no question. Another consideration, also, is the fact that Uma-tilla now has a United States senator, and Wasco has had the rep-resentative for the past fifteen years and more, and one of the smaller counties should be entitled to recognition, especially when they offer a man for the place that is right up in the forefront as to abil-Notson should receive at least lot, so don't forget to write S. E. of these great pioneers. Notson and place the X before it on the blank line that will appear in the proper place on the ballot for this purpose.

W. O. Staver of Pilot Rock is a candidate on the republican ticket for joint representative of Morrow and Umatilla counties. Because of the entry of Roy W. Ritner in the congressional race, and his subse-quent withdrawal from the race for the legislature, Mr. Staver was in-duced to allow his name to go before the people for this nomination.

In this instance, also, if you desire to cast a vote for Mr. Staver, it must be done by writing in his name. Mr. Staver is recommended a man well qualified for the legisla-ture, and it is expected that he will receive a large vote in his home

The Pendleton East Oregonian uses much space in showing why Roy W. Ritner should have the support of the republicans for repre-sentative in congress. One of the main reasons advanced is that he tilla Rapids project. This is a great project for this immediate part of This descendant of Roman gladithe second district, but there are ators. Umberto, Torrino, ls artistic many other interests perhaps of equal importance, and the man for the place of representative should be one that can get beyond the bor-cal and mental opponent for Tunders of his own home bailiwick, and grasp the problems of the entire ject than is the Umatilla county man; and a man, also, that will be able to get what he goes after. We would not detract from the honor thusiastically passed by the Senate that Mr. Ritner has achieved as a There are elections coming. The question in our mind is: can he beat Walter Pierce in the fall campaign? Of Mr. Ritner has a record along some lines, gained through official action, that will be hard to down. Better make sure and cast your vote for a "candidate without a weakness." A vote for S. E. Notson now is a vote for a republican victory in No-

And this Age of Intellect is having an expected results. The old-time prize-fighter, and many other oid-time exponents of variour sports, had only strength. The prize-fighter with the largest biceps, longest reach, steadiest legs and the best punch was the idol of the populace. Now a prize-fighter is excity, and a good scientific know-ledge of the fistic game. In addition we have come to expect our prize-fighters to know a little, even more than a little, about things which belong in the realm of art.

Witness the coming to this country of Italy's champion, Umberto Torriani. Not half as much fuss s being made about Umberto's nuscles as is being made about his muscles as is being made about his classical education. Umberto is proud of being a deep student of Shakespeare, Homer, and the entire range of classic literature.

Our own Gene Tunney-whom Umberto would like to meet both in the ring and as an opponent in an intelligence test—knows not on-ly the art of the uppercut but has been a good reader all of his life and only a few weeks ago addressed an audience of college students on the subject of Shakespeare. And he made some pretty wise remarks about the Bard of Avon, too.

In all sport, and in many other lines of activity, the participants today have more in their craniums than a cynic would expect. This is an age where brain-power dominates.

For many months after the first flight of Orville Wright, the world refused to believe that it had actu-ally taken place.

Even as late as 1905 and 1906, when the Wrights were constantly making short flying trips, persons all over the country jeered at them for believing that man could fly. Scientific articles tried to "prove" that flying was impossible. People did not believe even the evidence of eye-witnesses.

Not until 1908 were the adven-tures of the Wright brothers given credence.

They were the forerunners of Lindbergh, Captain Wilkins, the German-Irish flyers, and all the other brave souls whose air exploits have aroused the applause and fired the enthusiasm of the nation.

Dr. Frank Crane Says:

WAR TALK

GERMAN leader, Dr. Paul Oestreich, declares that America and England will certainly be driven into war. They will both woo Germany for an ally, and in this way Germany will rise in the council of nations.

We have had among our own people men who predict that war is certain. They say that human nature cannot be changed and that war is inevitably due to ensue.

Lloyd George says: "In every country it is part of the business of the fighting staff to work out a plan for defense against all conceivable enemies. They gloat over their efficiency and, like every inventor, yearn to put their machine to a test, until possible war soon becomes likely and a likely war gradually glides into

From time immemorial nations and tribes have sought to "protect" themselves by increasing their armaments. A considerable portion of the press is urging the United States greatly to increase armament on sea and land in order to "protect" itself. There never was a nation that could so protect itself. Greece tried it, and Rome and Spain and Germany and Russia, and they The protection for a nation is for it to form some kind of combination with other nations which public sentiment will endorse that shall abolish war as a final arbiter. The most hopeful sign today is that people are finding out that war not only costs them money and valuable lives, but destroys property and sets back business It would be a good thing if every boy and girl in the country were compelled to serve two years under the tutelage or army officers in constructing great public works, such as the Boulder

Dam and the Mississippi Reclamation projects. There is no objection to universal conscription if it is universal, and if it is not primarily for the purpose of fighting. These boys and girls would be potential soldiers in case we were ever attacked, but their employment upon constructive works would not be in the nature of a provocation of war to other nations. Some way or other we must give up our arms and defer questions of international dispute to some other arbiter than crass nationalism.

One hopeful sign is that plans of peace are openly discussed in international councils. The late Pan-American Congress was full of peace talk

And peace-talking brings peace, just as war talk brings war. The question after all is one of public opinion and the sooner that public opinion is turned away from causes of war and toward the efforts of peace the better will be our prospects.
