

FAIR VOTE IS CAST IN PRIMARY HERE

Notson Runs Strong at Home; Bauman and Anderson Win.

Morrow county does not have a voting machine alibi, but in spite of the perfect weather hardly more than a 60 per cent vote was cast at the polls Friday, when the democratic and republican voters declared their choice of candidates to go into the general race in November.

Complete county returns show the following favorites for county offices:

Republican—Commissioner, L. P. Davidson; Clerk, Gay M. Anderson; Sheriff, C. J. D. Bauman; School Superintendent, Lucy E. Rodgers; Coroner, M. L. Case; Justice of the Peace sixth district, T. A. Hughes.

Democratic—Commissioner, Hanson Hughes; Clerk, Gay M. Anderson; Sheriff, Walter Matteson; School Superintendent, Lucy E. Rodgers; Justice of the Peace sixth district, E. R. Huston.

In the republican congressional race, the latest returns gave Bean 489, Boyd 683, Butler 2,947, Notson 1,112, Palmister 1,318, Rittner 1,980, Wiley 1,678, Pierce 317. Report was received in Heppner yesterday, however, that a mistake of some 700 votes had been made in compiling the Palmister vote, which would put Notson in fourth place.

In the first district republican congressional race W. C. Hawley was nominated two to one over his opponent, J. W. Mott.

Hoover received the republican endorsement for president with a total, at last returns, of 96,992. The same returns gave Smith the democratic nomination with a total of 15,550.

John H. Hall received majority of republican votes for vice president.

John L. Rand and George Rossman were assured nomination for justices of the supreme court, while Hal Hoss with a lead of 7,861 and holding his own was conceded the republican nomination for secretary of state.

In the lead for delegates to the republican national convention, state at large, were Carter, Cook, Koser, Stanfield, Thompson, Kiddie and Hawkins; first district, Adams and Patton; second district, Mahaffey and Temple.

Delegates in the lead for democratic national convention were, state at large, Dickson, Haney, Manning and Curry; first district, Cannon and Fry; second district, Hill and Burns.

Under separate heading will be found the tabulated vote by precincts for Morrow county.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

At the request of Grant county authorities, the sheriff's office here took Fritz Rader and Buck Padberg in charge on Wednesday of last week, and upon arrival of deputy sheriffs Bert Keeney and Clay Porter of Long Creek the men were given into their custody and taken to that place where they had a preliminary hearing. It is reported here that Rader took all responsibility for the horse transaction and that Padberg was released. The animal alleged to have been feloniously removed from the custody of its owner in Grant county was located at the ranch of D. Cox on Hinton creek. The men are said to have been shipping quite a number of horses out of the county at points along the branch and main line, and most of the stock came from the interior.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

Rev. Thomas J. Brady, Pastor. There will be a low mass next Sunday in St. Patrick's church at 8:30. There will be no other mass at any of the missions. Next Sunday would be the Sunday for mass in the Sands or Juniper, but owing to the physical condition of the pastor this previously announced mass will be postponed until a more favorable time. Confessions will be heard before the 8:30 mass next Sunday, but there will be no sermon.

ENTERTAIN AT BRIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Van Marter and Mrs. P. M. Gemmill were hosts at a very pleasing bridge party at the Van Marter home Monday evening. Nineteen tables were in play. High honors went to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam, high couple; Mrs. J. F. Lucas, high lady; O. B. Flory, high gentleman, and Mrs. W. O. Dix, consolation. Refreshments of delicious strawberry shortcake were served.

All Wool at Heppner Practically Disposed of

For the season of 1928 the Heppner wool market has been practically closed. We are informed that there remains in the warehouses here, unsold, only about 40,000 pounds of the present season's clip, and this will likely be taken over by the buyers soon. The market has been very good here this season, the average price ranging around 35 cents, with the fleeces cleaner than in other years.

Henry Cohn of this city, and Max Gorffle of Pendleton were among the heaviest buyers, these gentlemen having over the greater portion of the Morrow county clip. Shearing of sheep in the Heppner vicinity is going along rapidly and the season will soon close. Shearers are at the D. O. Justus and John Kilkenny ranches this week and these clips are moving to the warehouse at a rapid rate. Some few bands remain to be sheared in the Butter creek country but these do not aggregate a very large number of sheep. The season has been fine, especially during the past several weeks.

PIONEERS ATTENTION!

Registration books are now open at Gordon's confectionery in Heppner for the Pioneer Reunion and all pioneers, anyone in Morrow or adjoining counties who settled in Oregon prior to 1888, are entitled to register and receive reserved seat tickets for the pioneer meeting and chautauqua numbers. Registration may be made personally, or by personal representative, or by letter if it is impossible to call in person. Due to the absence for some time of the chairman of the Pioneer committee, S. E. Notson, this registration has been delayed and the committee wishes to apologize for any inconvenience that anyone has been put to in this matter. Prompt registration will aid the committee in carrying out its plans for the occasion.

MEMORIAL SERVICES TO HONOR VETERANS

Memorial Day, Wednesday, May 30, will be observed this year in Heppner with two services. The first, at 11 o'clock, will be held in the Star theater, the second following immediately thereafter will be held in the cemetery. The program at the theater will be featured by musical numbers, readings and an address by Earl W. Snell of Arlington.

Mr. Snell is a prominent ex-serviceman of the eastern Oregon district and is a speaker of exceptional ability. Following is the program: Song, "America," Audience Invocation. Legion Auxiliary Reading, "In Flanders Fields" Mrs. P. M. Gemmill. Harvey Miller General Logan's Memorial Day Orders E. E. Gilliam. Address Earl W. Snell.

The services at the cemetery will follow the usual program which includes the placing of flowers on the graves of veterans, the Women's Relief Corps ceremony and music. Additional features this year will be the American Legion Memorial Day ceremony and the firing of a salute over the graves. The last, however, may be omitted as the rifles ordered by Heppner Post have not yet arrived and there is some question as to whether they will get here in time.

Memorial Sunday services will be held this year at the Christian church, Rev. F. R. Spaulding delivering the address. It is expected the G. A. R., W. R. C., American Legion and Legion Auxiliary will attend in a body.

LOSES FINGERS BY SAW.

Harry Hayes suffered the loss of three fingers of the left hand while at work with a circular saw at the ranch of D. O. Justus on Saturday afternoon. He was using the saw in sharpening fence posts, and in moving some of the sawdust and chips away from the saw and using a piece of bark for that purpose, the bark broke letting his hand slip. The middle, third and little fingers were clipped off instantly by contact with the rapidly revolving saw, and Harry has nothing but stumps of these digits left. He was immediately brought to the Morrow General hospital in this city where his injuries were treated by Dr. Johnston. Mr. Hayes has been an employee at the Justus ranch for the past 30 years, and he expects to be back on the job in a short time again.

THE DAY OF PENTECOST.

Next Sunday is Pentecost Sunday. Since it is also Memorial Sunday the Church of Christ will celebrate Pentecost at the evening service. For this a full attendance is earnestly desired. It will be the time for the presentation of a two year program of work leading up to the 190th anniversary of Pentecost in 1930. The evening sermon will deal with the theme, "Pentecost." Bible school and Christian Endeavor will be at the usual hours. MILTON W. BOWER, Minister.

LEAGUE DIRECTORS OVERRULE PROTESTS

Wasco Here Sunday; Two Game Series With Arlington June 2-3.

WHEATLAND LEAGUE STANDINGS table with columns for Team, W, L, Pct. Includes Condon, Wasco, Arlington, Umatilla, Heppner, Ione.

Last Sunday's Results: Heppner 1 at Condon 8; Wasco 6 at Ione 5; Umatilla 3 at Arlington 4.

Where the Teams Play Next Sunday: Wasco at Heppner, Ione at Umatilla, Arlington at Condon.

With four games to play, the Wheatland league standings remain unchanged by action of directors at Arlington Tuesday night, when they voted to let the games protested by Heppner and Umatilla stand as reported. After voting to allow both protests and count the games as "no games," to be played over, the directors rescinded their action to promote harmony in the league, which it is felt, has been the most successful of any ever formed in this section.

As the result of this action Condon and Wasco are tied at the head of the percentage column with 666 each. Arlington and Umatilla are each a game behind with 500 and Heppner and Ione, keeping company in the cellar, still have a chance for the pennant with 333.

Sunday's game at Heppner holds special interest as the locals again meet Wasco, the opponents in their contested game. Heppner undoubtedly will make a supreme effort to dislodge Wasco from their top perch with Wasco just as determined to make the locals sorry that they ever instigated a protest. Then Heppner fans will have an additional treat the following week on June 2 and 3 when Arlington comes for a two-day series. This arrangement was made to give the chautauqua crowds a chance to see some good ball games, though the Sunday game only will count in the league standings.

The local club is offering no alibis for their ignominious defeat by Condon Sunday. They just naturally got off on the wrong foot, Schroeder feeding the Condon boys some fat ones that they connected with mercilessly, and the heat affecting many of the fielders, resulted in considerable laxity in that department. Condon plays a return game here in three weeks, and Ione comes here to close the league season the week following, giving Heppner all the remaining games of the schedule at home.

All the directors were present at the Arlington meeting Tuesday. In addition to their action on the protested games they voted that all future protests must be made to the umpire-in-chief at the time a disputed play is made, and the game finished under protest, the umpire-in-chief to announce this is the case. They also voted that the present officers would hold over till the beginning of the season next year to call the organization meeting. The officers are Dean T. Goodman, Heppner, president; Earl W. Snell, Arlington, vice-president; Jasper V. Crawford, Heppner, secretary-treasurer. Directors present were W. H. Ortmann, Arlington; Bert Hollen, Condon; Earl Gordon, proxy for D. A. Wilson, Heppner; Guy Cason, Ione; H. B. Hull, Umatilla, and Mr. Castee, Wasco.

Heppner Places Second In Tourney Shoot - Off

Heppner Rod and Gun club tied with the Lane County Sportsmen's association of Eugene for second place in the shootoff match of the third annual Oregonian state telegraphic trapshooting tournament at Portland Saturday. These two clubs with 478 each were nosed out by just three birds by the Klamath Gun club, winners of the cup.

Heppner placed the same team in the match that won the first shoot-off two years ago, with the exception of Chas. Vaughn, replaced by Earl Warner. Vaughn broke his gun the day before while participating in the third annual Pacific coast zone divisional handicap shoot. Coquille, last year's champions, placed sixth among the nine competing teams. Scores of the local team, 100 birds each, follow: Chas. Latourell 98, L. Van Marter 95, A. D. McMurdoo 96, Albert Ewker 97, Earl Warner 92.

In its write-up of the shoot the Oregonian says: "The outcome of the team race was in doubt up to the time Heppner, the last squad to shoot, finished on trap four. Heppner was tied with Klamath when the former was part way through its final string of 25, but the eastern Oregon gunners dropped three birds in the final round which kept them from their second shootoff championship. Heppner won the championship two years ago."

WORKERS NEEDED!

Anyone—men, boys, women or girls—who would care to donate their services in any manner in helping out with work connected with the Chautauqua celebration next week, are asked by the directors to kindly report to Albert Adkins at the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company office at their earliest convenience.

Mrs. John C. McEntire died at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton last Thursday afternoon, following an illness of some three weeks from high blood pressure. Mrs. McEntire was born in Longford county, Ireland, October 15, 1881, and was the widow of the late John C. McEntire, a prominent sheepman of this city.

Funeral services were held at Heppner on Saturday afternoon, being largely attended by friends and relatives here. Rev. Father Kern and Rev. Father O'Conner of Pendleton conducted the services and interment was in the family plot at Masonic cemetery. Mrs. McEntire leaves five small children, Kathleen, Elizabeth, Anna, Eleanor and Margaret, besides one brother, James Sheridan, residing at Heppner.

SCHOOL CLOSES; 22 RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

Margaret Notson Winner of Norton Winnard Memorial Cup.

With the graduation of a class of 22 pupils, the Heppner public schools closed the work of the year, and yesterday saw most of the faculty on their way to their respective homes.

The graduation ceremonies this year were held in the new auditorium-gymnasium, and although simple were very effective in their pleasing dignity. At exactly 8 o'clock, Miss Mary Beamer began the procession and the class marched in, accompanied by members of the school board, the Rev. E. Stanley Moore, Professor Victor Morris, speaker of the evening, and the superintendent of schools.

Following the invocation by Rev. Mr. Moore, Superintendent Burgess introduced Professor Morris to the students of the class and the patrons of the school. Professor Morris, who is a member of the department of economics of the state university, gave a fine, interesting and instructive address to the class.

Taking as his topic "The Great Adventure," he first pointed out the great achievements of mankind in the course of the past centuries, and then held out to the class the ideal of still more achievements that are possible in the future.

Although pointing out the value of a higher education to the members of the class, Professor Morris did not urge its members to indiscriminately enter college, but to pick their future with care, and once embarked upon it, to stay with it. Professor Morris' address should have been of inestimable value to the patrons of the school as well as the students of the class.

Following the presentation of the diplomas by Mrs. E. R. Huston, president of the board, Mrs. P. M. Gemmill presented Phyllis Jones with the American Legion Auxiliary medal for scholarship and patriotic interest.

Superintendent Burgess then presented the Torch Honor Society pins to members of the high school and the graduating class who were entitled to them. Then, acting as spokesman for the committee, Mr. Burgess presented the Norton Winnard memorial cup to Margaret Notson, for the year 1928-1929. Margaret is the second holder of the cup, and the first girl to whom this honor is awarded.

The program for the evening closed with congratulations and an informal reception to the class, held on the stage.

LEGION MEN NOTICE.

A special meeting of Heppner Post will be held Tuesday evening, May 29. All members are urged to come and bring with them their service uniform or so much thereof as they may still possess. This is important.

Barratts Buy 8000-Acre Ranch at Parkers Mill

A deal was closed this week whereby W. B. Barratt and Son, of this city take over the Parkers Mill ranch of 8000 acres from Mrs. Ada M. Ayers. This deal includes the mill site and all lands adjoining. We did not learn the consideration. Messrs. Barratt and Son will improve the place, making a summer home of it for some of the sheep and cattle, and it will be an excellent addition to their present extensive land holdings beyond Sand Hollow, where they can take much of their stock that will not go into the high mountains for the summer, thus relieving the range for that period during the summer months at the home place.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The following committees have been appointed to look after the various duties in putting on the Chautauqua celebration next week. If any are unable to serve they are asked to kindly notify the chairman of their committee: Grounds committee: Albert Adkins, chairman, Frank Turner and J. O. Hager.

Committee on Pioneer picnic lunch: R. W. Turner, chairman, Lester Matlock, W. G. McCarty, Jeff Jones and W. T. Campbell.

Reception committee: Mrs. F. W. Turner, chairman, Mrs. C. J. Walker.

HAVE CAR COLLISION.

The cars driven by Lowell Turner and James Hager collided at the intersection of May and Main streets Monday evening, resulting in considerable damage to both cars, though occupants were uninjured. Marshal Devin ruled that drivers were equally at fault. This was the second accident to the Hager car within three days. A couple of days before it caught fire while being driven to Lexington. It had been washed in the afternoon, and to protect the engine from water some sacks had been placed under the hood. These had been forgotten and remained inside the hood, catching fire when the engine became overheated.

FIRST COUNCIL FIRE HELD.

The Nowetompanion Campfire group held its first council fire Friday, May 18. The girls of this group are now eligible to become wood-gatherers, the first rank, at the next council. During the meeting impromptu talks were given by Jeanette Turner, Katherine Bisbee, Harriet Morgan, Evelyn Swindig, and the guardian, Mrs. Walter Moore. Besides those mentioned above, Reta McRoberts and Frances White were present.

Saturday night, May 19, Mrs. Moore entertained the cast of the play, "The Call of the Woblo." First prize in naming the brands of a given number of advertisements was won by Evelyn Swindig. Donna Brown received first prize in the game of "Travel." "Coo-Coo" was also played. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, punch, cake and ice cream were served. After a very enjoyable evening the guests departed.

MAJESTIC DEMONSTRATION.

Beginning Monday noon and continuing for the week, there will be conducted a range cooking demonstration at Gilliam and Bisbee's. A professional cook will demonstrate the new enameled Majestic range, while doing various kinds of cooking. Demonstrations will be held every afternoon during the week and Morrow county housewives are especially invited to attend.

LONE ROCK WOOL COMING.

F. R. Brown, local warehouseman, has been trucking in the J. E. Huddleston wool from Lone Rock the past week, bringing in a load of 18 sacks on Tuesday to complete the haul. He reports that there will probably be four more clips of wool come into their warehouse from that section this season.

Dean T. Goodman will leave tomorrow for Portland where he will join Mrs. Goodman, and together they will go south to California points on their delayed wedding trip. The Goodmans expect to spend some two weeks on their journey before returning to Heppner, when they will take up their abode in the Glen Jones residence.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank all those who helped in the time of sickness and death of our dear mother, Rebecca Jane Warren. The Children.

Mrs. W. V. Crawford and Mrs. Alva Jones were taken to The Dalles Saturday by Mr. Crawford, where they were met by their sister, Mrs. Jess Deos whom they accompanied to her home at Lyle, Wash., for a visit. Mr. Jones went down Sunday and returned with his family while Mrs. Crawford and children will remain at the Deos home for an extended visit.

D. A. Wilson and Dr. A. H. Johnston left Tuesday evening for East lake on a fishing excursion. They expected to stay in Madras the first night and investigate the condition of the Deschutes river, which, if found favorable they expected to fish on the way.

Earl Warner, Ed Kelly and stepfather of Lexington, J. W. Hiatt and Earl and Len Gilliam composed a party of fishermen leaving for East Lake near Bend yesterday morning.

BIG CELEBRATION STARTS THURSDAY

Details Completed; Whole County Expected to Visit City.

Next Thursday evening the curtain rises on Morrow county's free Chautauqua, with the Pioneer's reunion on Friday and Grange day, Saturday, when it is expected Heppner will be the mecca for one of the largest crowds in the history of Morrow county. Final details of the entertainment are now being looked after, the big tent to be in place by Wednesday when everything will be set.

The morning program on Friday and Saturday featuring Pioneers and the Grange respectively, will begin at 10 o'clock. Evening chautauqua programs start at 7:30, the Friday afternoon program at 2:30 and the Saturday and Sunday afternoon programs at 1:30. The last two programs are set ahead in order to give all who wish a chance to attend the ball games at Rodeo field on these afternoons between Arlington and Heppner.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock there will be a union service by the protestant churches of the city in the big tent, with Milton W. Bower, pastor of the Church of Christ, delivering the address.

A speaking and musical program featuring pioneer days and old time songs, will be the order for Friday morning. In view of the fact that Hon. Stephen A. Lowell, announced last week as the speaker, was called to Portland on court business this week and may not be able to be here, other speakers are being contacted and the committee is not in position to announce definitely who the speaker will be. They assure that this part of the program will be well taken care of, however. A big picnic lunch in the fair grounds grove will be the order at noon. For this the chautauqua association will furnish coffee, sugar and cream, and the public at large are urged to bring their own basket lunches, cups and other utensils needed. This is expected to be one of the biggest reunion features and the participation of everyone who possibly can, will lend a great deal to the sociability of the occasion.

C. A. Minor is the sponsor for a souvenir to be presented to each pioneer who attends the reunion, the nature of which is being kept secret to surprise recipients. It is something real worth while and will be cherished by all who receive it.

The program for Grange day has not been announced, but that the seven granges of the county have been busy at work for the past several weeks in its preparation is sufficient assurance that it will be mighty fine. This, at 10 Saturday morning, will also be followed by a picnic lunch in the grove at noon.

Registration books for the pioneers are now open at the Gordon confectionery store where all pioneers may register and obtain reserved seat tickets for the pioneer meeting and chautauqua numbers. Subscribers whose names are on the list may also obtain their reservations at Gordon's now.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings Fletcher's band will furnish music for dancing at the fair pavilion following the chautauqua programs. Fletcher's band has been engaged by the chautauqua committee to furnish music also on Friday and Saturday mornings. Their reputation as accomplished musicians is well known here and it is needless to say they will be an attractive feature.

The chautauqua programs this year present the most imposing array of talent to be brought to the big tent here. A play, musical girls revue, minstrelsy, electrical demonstration, music and novelty skits and an up-to-the-minute lecture are featured in the seven performances, and will leave lasting pleasant memories in the minds of all who attend. There will be absolutely no admission charge to any chautauqua features and everyone is invited to come and have the time of their lives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carmichael and two children of Weston were visiting Morrow county relatives and friends on Sunday. Mr. Carmichael, a graduate of '08 from Oregon Agricultural college, was a college mate of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Brown of this city and enjoyed meeting them while on the trip.

Osmin Hager, Chas. Thomson, W. E. Frym and Lou Bisbee departed yesterday for Nevada. They were called there to attend a meeting of stockholders of a mining company in which they are interested.

A party of two carloads, members of Heppner chapter O. E. S., visited the Ione lodge Tuesday evening, enjoying a fine time. Initiation and a bounteous supper were features of the evening.

F. A. McMenamin, Portland attorney, was transacting business here Tuesday.
