

Local Happenings

Gus Williamson spent several days in the city the past week preparatory to leaving for the mountains with the Bob Thompson sheep of which he will have charge during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Mather and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney and daughter Patricia departed Tuesday morning for the Puget Sound country. They expect to camp there for a few weeks before Mr. Mather enters the University of Washington summer school.

To attend the Eastern Oregon convention of the Christian church, in session on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week at Baker, Mr. and Mrs. V. Crawford, Mrs. F. S. Parker and Mrs. W. J. Beamer departed on Tuesday morning in the Crawford car.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Farrens were in Heppner on Friday from their home at Hardman. Mrs. Farrens will be a delegate this year to the Grand Assembly of Oregon Rebekahs, in session this week at Roseburg, representing Mistletoe Lodge of Hardman.

J. O. Kincaid and family returned the past week from a visit to relatives at Portland and Silverton. Mr. Kincaid's mother lives at Silverton and sisters of Mrs. Kincaid reside in Portland.

Frank Harwood drove up from Portland on Friday and spent a few days here. He will leave this week for Greenhorn, accompanied by D. B. Stalter, who is going over to the Mayflower mine of Heppner Mining company, to remain for a while, possibly putting in the summer there.

Work of cleaning and repairing the American Legion swimming tank was undertaken on Saturday, and the pool will soon be open to the public.

David Hynd departed for Portland Saturday morning, being accompanied by his sister, Miss Annie Hynd. Miss Hynd has been somewhat indisposed of late and she will remain in Portland for a time in hopes of bettering her health.

Homer Green, who farms in the Eight Mile country, was a visitor in Heppner on Saturday. He has placed an order with the weather man for a good big shower of rain, as it is beginning to be needed out that way.

Claude White, extensive wheat-grower of Sand Hollow, was in the city on Saturday. Like many others in his locality, Mr. White is getting anxious to have some good showers of rain on his fields.

Miss Helen Wells, who has been teaching the past year in the Ione school, returned home the end of the week, following the close of school at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McMillan of Lexington spent a short while at Heppner Saturday afternoon.

At Hotel Ione, George Ritchie is still making some substantial and needed improvements. During the past week or so he has been busy in laying new linoleum in the office and lobby, and with the other improvements made, the hotel now presents an attractive appearance on the interior.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Clark were Eight Mile farmers in the city on Friday. Noah thinks a good rain out his way would be just about the proper thing now.

C. E. Carlson reports that his grain is holding up well on the ranch in the Gooseberry neighborhood, yet a little anxiety would be relieved by a general good rain over the wheat belt.

W. B. Barratt was up from Portland the end of the week, attending to business here. He reports that his daughter Margaret was recently operated on for appendicitis, but was recovering nicely.

Roy Neill, Butter creek ranchman, was in the city from his home near Pine City on Saturday. Good growing conditions for alfalfa has been the order out his way for the past couple of weeks.

Walter Luckman, Lena stockman, was a visitor here on Thursday. He reports conditions of stock and range very good in the Butter creek hills.

H. O. Ely of Morgan came in Saturday forenoon with the returns from Cecil election precinct. The vote there was rather light.

LADIES WANTED: Sell Mary Rose Flocks. Wonderful proposition. Write Rodasi Co., 40 N. 10th St., Portland, Ore.

William Pedro, sheepman of Cecil, was a visitor here on Friday.

Hints for the Home by Nancy Hart

A Summer Meat Course For the meat course of a quickly-served summer dinner, try jellied meat loaf prepared from the tinned fish, chicken or tongue that should be on every proper shelf.

Quick Cup Cakes 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine, 2 eggs dropped in cup with the shortening, fill cup with milk. Sift 1 cup sugar, 1 1/2 cups prepared cake flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder in the flour. Pour mixture in center of flour, add flavoring, beat well and bake in muffin tin.

Three Syrups for Canning This year when you preserve, remember that there are three kinds of syrup to choose from—depending on the kind of fruit used.

A Note About Cloves In using cloves for pickling or preserving, the blossom end should be removed, as it darkens the liquids.

Removes Grass Stains Pretty hard to keep little folks up off the grass just now. But never mind. Grass spots will come out easily if washed in alcohol.

A Good Floor Polish To put a high and lasting polish on hardwood floors, use a pint of beeswax to two pints turpentine, dissolved in a saucepan on the range until a paste is formed.

On Ironing Day Instead of sprinkling clothes by hand, use a whisk broom dipped in water and shake it over the clothes.

To Mend China A splendid cement for broken china may be made by mixing plaster of Paris with white of egg until it is creamy.

To Clean Enameled Tubs Practically all scouring powders dull the polish of enameled tubs and lavatories.
