ritory has had a prosperous season, as the statements come at the mid-year turn-over of the sheep industry; and second, that a much better showing can be expected when the next call of the comptroller comes, as by that time rewill be coming in rapidly from the splendid wheat harvest. and the totals should exceed the present showing by several hundred thousand dollars

Banks are said to be the index of a country's prosperity, and it is with pride that we can point to the showing the two banks of this city make at this time The county is getting on its feet again, financially, in good shape. The crop of last year was a big help as following the "cashing in" on that harvest many a note and mortgage was lifted. This fall should then be a season for further rejoicing along this line and the wiping out of much indebtedness remaining will no doubt be the order. As to the showing of the banks, we only refer to the items of de-posits and total resources. The former figures total $1,323,169.26, and the latter $1,564.478.83. These figures are the highest since the war period.

Dr. Frank Crane Saus:

CONVERSATION

Grenville Kleiser, well known author and writer, gives some good advice about talking

An immense amount of time and energy is constantly wasted. he says, by useless talking,

Some of the essentials that he mentions for a good conversationalist are as follows:

The first condition of good talking is clear, well-ordered thinking. If your thoughts are in confusion your speech is liable to be non-effective

Talking should not be a verbal nor vocal contest, but a mutual exchange of ideas. Monologues are tiresome

Don't give advice. Advice costs nothing and is usually worth what it costs.

Don't exaggerte. It is easy to let your desires and feelings overcolor your views. Give the impression of under statment rather than over statement and what you say will have more effect.

Keep your voice low. A low voice is not only an excellent thing in a woman, as Shakespeare says, but it is good for anybody. Many people are trying to talk to, because they constantly bawl so loud. They drown out their opponent with sound.

Don't tell unduly long stories. Don't make a reputation for being a "funny" man. This will put you in the class of lightweights. Stories are like seasoning or salt. They should be very judicially intermingled, and it is easy to get too many of them.

Do not interrupt another. Wait quietly for your turn to speak

Don't relate lengthy personal experiences. A thing may be interesting to you because it is about yourself, but it is usually bore some to other people. Don't be impatient. When you observe that your listener does not wish to be convinced change the subject. Speak clearly. Do not mumble.

Conversation is more than idle exercise or ornamental superfluity. Its purpose is to keep the other party amused and interested. It is the wire upon which runs the current of your electric personality.

If you don't know how to talk, learn. Devote a certain part of your time to intelligent and diligent practice in the art of small talk. It pays.

which is SELFISHNESS.

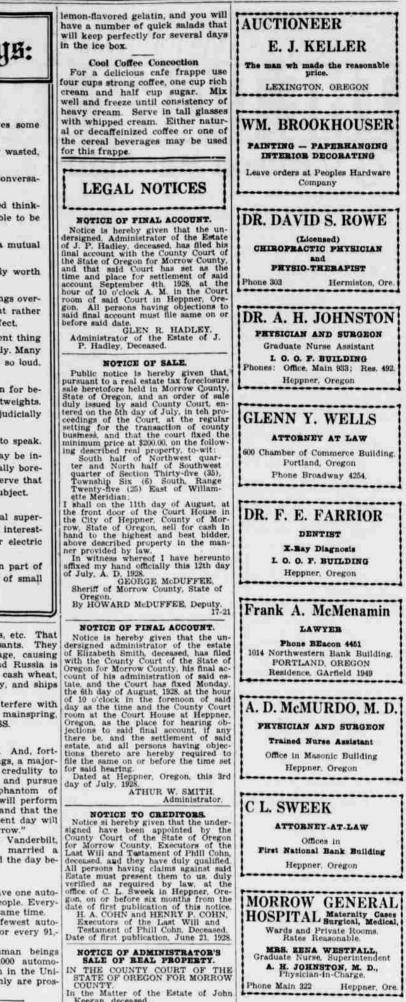

Hope springs eternal. And, fortinately for human beings, a majority of us "listen with credulity to whispers of fancy and pursue with eagerness the phantom of hope; expect that age will perform the promises of youth, and that the deficeincies of the present day will
