As the bandits came through the car robbing the passengers, the confusion awakened the deputy sheriff, who was curled up in a seat near the rear of the coach. He watched them under his hat brim and, as he did not look prosperous, the bandits passed him up. After they passed, the deputy drew his revolver and promptly killed one and wounded and captured the other. The affair occurred on a train near Kamela, in the Blue mountains, years ago. The deputy is now George McDuffee, sheriff of Morrow county. Mr. McDuffee, who is in Portland until tomorrow, says that he is quitting the sheriff business because the salary isn't sufficient. The salary is $2000 a year. It isn't the work he objects to but it is the compensation, and there doesn't appear to be any prospect of sheriff's salaries being increased, so this year he refused to be a candidate.—Saturday's Oregonian.

Sheriff George McDuffee returned from Portland on Sunday afternoon. He had been spending the week in the city on business. Coming home with Sheriff McDuffee were District Attorney Notson and daughter, Miss Margaret, and Miss Elma White of Portland, whom Miss Margaret visited during the week, and who will be a guest at the Notson home in this city for a short time; also Robert Turner and Vernon Brown, two young men of Heppner who have been spending the past month at the citizens training camp at Vancouver.

Mrs. O. T. Ferguson, Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Mrs. H. R. Ramsey and Mrs. Andrew Olson were Pendleton ladies in the city on Tuesday. Here these ladies were joined by Mrs. Raymond Ferguson and proceeded to the home of Mrs. Vida Stickle in Blackhorse, giving her a birthday surprise party. Everything necessary in the way of good eats was taken along, and a fine birthday dinner was enjoyed. Mrs. Stickle being also remembered by a number of gifts. The Pendleton visitors returned home on Tuesday evening.

O. G. Boyd and son Phillip arrived early Wednesday morning from Caldwell, Idaho, to join Mrs. Boyd and daughters here, and to accompany them home. Guy remained over today for a visit with former friends, and will return home with his family Friday or Saturday. He is sheriff of Canyon county, Idaho, in which capacity he has served the past two years, and is a candidate for the office again. Mr. Boyd was engaged in business in Heppner some 25 years ago.

Mrs. O. G. Boyd and daughters Mildred and Louise, arrived here on Friday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smead. They are on the return home at Caldwell, Idaho, from a visit to Southern California with Elwyn Shipley and wife Mr. Shipley, who is the son of Mrs. Boyd, is located at Covina, in the midst of the Los Angeles orange belt. Mrs. Boyd and daughters will go on to Caldwell this week.

Mrs. Claude Huston returned from Dallas on Sunday. She visited the city to attend the reunion of the alumni of Dallas college. This is the first meeting of the former students of this college in 18 years, and Mrs. Huston reports a very enjoyable time. Another former student of the school attending this reunion was District Attorney Notson, who, Mrs. Huston states, was her first teacher.

Chas. Repass was in the city on Friday and Saturday from his home at Hardman. Mr. Repass is now enjoying good health again, having quite fully recovered from the effects of his serious illness of some months past, when it was thought that his recovery was very doubtful.

Andrew Olson, formerly of this city, now traveling salesman for an automobile accessory supply house, was calling on the trade here Saturday. Mr. Olson's home is in Pendleton now.

While absent at Portland the past week District Attorney Notson attended the meeting of the republican state central committee, where organization was completed for the coming campaign, both state and national. The congressional committee is scheduled to meet later, perhaps in Baker, when the campaign for congressman in the second district will be launched. Mr. Notson reports a very enthusiastic meeting of the state committee. He also took time to visit Dallas, where he attended the meeting of the alumni of Dallas college, and enjoyed the reunion of former students of that school immensely. When Mr. Notson attended this school it was known as La Creole academy. The college has not been in existence for a good many years.

Ray Simpson and family of Monon, Indiana, departed for their eastern home on Tuesday evening, taking No. 18 at Pendleton. They have been traveling for some four weeks, and spent two weeks here and at Hardman visiting relatives. Mr. Simpson is a son of Mrs. Emma Whetstone of this city and brother of Mrs. W. W. Bechtolt and Mrs. E. Jay Merrill of Hardman. Mrs. Whetstone greatly enjoyed the visit of her son and family while they were in the city.

The Rev. Thomas J. Brady, pastor of the local Catholic church, celebrated a solemn High Mass of Requiem for the repose of the soul of Michael Hetherton, who died in Ireland last spring and who was the father of Frank Hetherton. Rev. Brady was the celebrant, with Rev. Father Hugh J. Marshall of Hood River as deacon, and Rev. Father James J. Walsh of St. Anthony's Hospital, Pendleton, as subdeacon.

Chas. Jayne and sister, Mrs. Frank Elder, spent the week end at Heppner from their home at Umapine. While here Mrs. Elder was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David A. Wilson. Mr. Jayne has a small place at Umapine and is very much in love with that section of the country, where crops of all kinds this season are very fine.

Dan Hanshaw started his combine on the Sand Hollow ranch on Monday morning. He expects a good yield of grain, much of the crop yield will average near 40 bushels to the acre, from indications, though the total for the season will be somewhat shortened because of frost and drought. The grain is of excellent quality.

J. W. Becket, for many years a leading wheat-raiser of the Eight Mile section where he was a pioneer in reclaiming the bunchgrass lands and turning them into productive farms, is up from his Portland home visiting with his sons at Eight Mile, Walter and Charles.

Roger Morse and family were visitors here on Saturday, remaining here for a few hours while on the way from Baker to Vancouver. Mr. Morse and family are having their summer vacation and he will be in the service of Uncle Sam at the Vancouver barracks while off duty as county agent of Baker county.

Jake Young and son Glenn were here a short time on Wednesday. They are now in the midst of harvest on their Eight Mile farm and report their grain turning out much better than expected. Harvest is quite generally under way in that neighborhood now.

Ray M. Rogers and family are guests this week at the home of Mrs. Rogers' father, Chester Darbee in this city. Mr. Rogers is now having his vacation, and is enjoying a visit to the old home town. He is engaged in the mercantile business at Redmond.

George Grant, butter maker at Morrow County creamery, who has been absent in Portland for the past week, returned on Tuesday, bringing with him his family, wife and daughter, who will now make their home in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Case announce the birth of Janet Saville on July 16, 1928, at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland. Mother and child are reported to be getting along nicely.

R. B. Rice was in the city Wednesday from his farm north of Lexington. Mr. Rice has been suffering much of late with a severe attack of asthma and was in the city to get some relief.

Born, at the maternity home of Mrs. G. C. Aiken in this city, Monday, July 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carlson of Gooseberry, a daughter.

Harold Case returned Wednesday morning from Portland where he had been with Mrs. Case and their new daughter for a few days.

John McCullough, who has been spending the week here looking after business affairs, departed today for his home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smead had as guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Large, formerly residents of this city.
