STATE OF OREGON, COUNTY OF MORROW, SS:

I, Gay M. Anderson, County Clerk of Morrow County, Oregon, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct account of all claims allowed by the County Court of Morrow County, Oregon; the funds on which said claims were drawn and the amount of outstanding warrants not paid, for the six months' period ending June 30, 1928.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the County this 19th day of July, 1928.

(SEAL) GAY M. ANDERSON, County Clerk.

FARM POINTERS.

(O. S. A. C. Extension Service.)

It is almost time to cull the ewe flock, reminds H. A. Lindgren, extension specialist. Ewes are culled on age, health, ability as lamb raisers, and their wool production. Dry ewes or those that did not have lambs this season are marked. If they fail to produce for two seasons in succession, it is a good idea to get rid of them. Dry ewes in a flock reduce the percentage of lambs weaned. There are usually more of them present than the flock owner realizes.

Garden slugs are controlled by applying a combination spray and poison bait, says J. Wilcox, assistant entomologist of the Oregon experiment station. A Bordeaux spray of 4-50 strength is first sprinkled over the plants. Bait made of 1 ounce of calcium arsenate mixed with 1 pound of chopped lettuce leaves is scattered around the infested plants in small heaps. Cutworm poison bran mash, with calcium arsenate as the poison may also be used.

Lead arsenate may be used as a control of the rose saw fly which attacks all roses in Oregon says the experiment station entomologist. A dust made up of one part lead arsenate and six parts hydrated lime is used.

Some farmers in Oregon using irrigation for the first time do not realize the importance of cultivation following application of water. Thorough cultivation as soon as the soil is in condition to crumble is found beneficial by the experiment station.

Care to see that all animals and fowls are plentifully supplied with water during the summer months pays big returns.

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

On Sunday, August 19th, the children of the parish will make their first Holy Communion at the only mass on that day, at 8:30. A special sermon will be prepared by the pastor, applicable to both parents and their children. The children will be blessed individually and consecrated unto God and to religion. All children, babies, and infants in cradles are welcome. Parents may bring them along and fear nothing should the little ones make any noise or become weary. Let the worries from this point be all for the pastor. The cries of the little "tooties" will be just so many innocent, prayerful cries unto the Lord who always welcomes the little ones to His Sacred Heart. Parents are expected to receive the Sacrament on that day. Henceforth this will be an annual affair in the church. It would have taken place during the month of May but for the continued cold weather.

REV. THOMAS J. BRADY.

Morrow General Hospital News.

Mrs. Shelley Baldwin is confined to the hospital with a severe attack of bronchitis and influenza. Albert Akers of Ione received a badly injured thumb yesterday while working with the header. He was turning the header wheel and his thumb was caught, nearly severing it at the end. It was sewed back in place and will probably be all right.

Mrs. Jack Dosser underwent a minor operation Tuesday for the removal of a splinter under a finger nail.

Jimmy Valentine, who was severely injured recently when kicked in the face by a horse, is now able to be up and around.

Sam Lininger underwent a minor operation Tuesday for the removal of a piece of steel from his eye.

Mrs. E. S. Duran of Lexington, who recently underwent a serious operation, is now able to be up.

HEPPNER HOSPITAL NEWS.

Chas. Anderson of Lower Eight Mile is in the hospital suffering with a severe infection of the neck. He is doing nicely at the present time and well on the road to recovery.

Wednesday night, while driving in his truck one mile this side of Ione, F. J. Park fell asleep while the machine was making about 35 miles per hour and the truck left the grade and turned completely over, landing right side up in the ditch.

Mrs. Park was in the cab with him, and as the truck went over she was thrown out, receiving many bruises and fractured jaw. Mr. Park remained in the cab where he was held by the wheel, the top of the cab was torn off, and he escaped serious injury. They were brought to Heppner at 11 p. m., and the injuries were x-rayed and dressed.

D. E. Riggins of Portland, who was badly burned with gasoline at the Bayless service station Wednesday, is getting along fine at the hospital. He was badly burned on both legs and his left hand.

Mrs. Wm. McTrace, Jr., is very ill at this time at the hospital.

Dr. McMurdo was called to Ione on Wednesday to see Mrs. L. A. Ritchie who is suffering with pneumonia following influenza.

Francis Griffin, Eight Mile farmer, was attending to business in the city on Saturday.

Bert Stone is ill at his home, having suffered a sudden attack of influenza.

The train had finally emerged from the blackness of a long tunnel. The conductor noticed a young couple both of whom were apparently quite flustered, and the young woman was nervously rearranging her disheveled hair.

Thinking to put them at ease, the conductor remarked pleasantly: "Did you know that the tunnel we just passed through cost $12,000,000?"

"Did it?" inquired the girl. Then she added after a pause, "well it was worth it."

Safe in His Cell!

Yonkers, N. Y.—Mrs. John Keegan, 300 pounds, asked City Judge Charles W. Boots, to free her husband, John, 120 pounds, from jail so she could beat him to cure him of the drink habit.

Girls Wear Trousers

London.—British women athletes are now wearing trousers in order to keep warm during waiting periods between events at athletic meets. The popularity of the trousers among the women is due to the full-length leg covering provided compared with the scant protection given by a mackintosh or coat.
