Official Paper for Morrow County. Foreign Advertising Representative AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

THE FIRE SITUATION.

MORROW COUNTY is suffering an untold loss from fires now raging in the forests within her boundaries. Hundreds of acres of timberlands have already been covered and the end is yet uncertain.

Officials are appreciative of the cooperation received on every hand by local people who have helped a lot in the fighting. True, this spirit of cooperation is commendable, and it cannot be carried too far.

In the final analysis, our forests in Morrow county are probably our most valuable resource. From lumbering they may not bring such a great sum, but as a watershed and range protection, they are of untold benefit.

TRAGEDY.

CARRANZA, good will flyer, has passed to his reward. And in the midst of mourning for the brave flyer, citizens of both Mexico and the United States were shocked by the news of the assassination of General Obregon.

The honors paid to Carranza in New York were impressive and beautiful. While airplanes cruised the skies overhead, a long, solemn funeral procession marched the streets.

that day. On and on moved the procession, with slow, measured tread, to the music of Chopin's funeral march, un mindful of the burning heat.

May we quiet these alarmists by pointing out that while the movement from farms to cities still continues, it has, according to recent statistics, considerably abated? On the other hand the number of persons leaving the cities for the farms is constantly increasing.

However, there has been so much improvement in the educational and recreational facilities of small towns and farm districts that already the movement to large municipalities is somewhat checked.

General farm electrification means more rural advancement on a sound economic and progressive basis. "Grace, why did you refuse him?" "Well, Gertie, he said he'd die for me and I'm curious."

Dr. Frank Crane Says:

THE BEST CONDITIONS FOR WORK

I suppose every writing man or any successful man is constantly in receipt of letters asking him about his personal habits. The correspondents all want to know under what conditions he does his work best.

One of these correspondents once wrote to Bill Nye, asking what clothes he wore and how he dressed. He answered, "In the morning I wear morning dress and in the evening I wear evening dress and at night a night dress."

About the best rule for doing your best work is to find those conditions that suit you best, wherein the brain functions most effectively. What these conditions are varies in the case of different people.

Elie Metchnikoff, the little Russian Jew who became one of the famous "microbe hunters" and discovered that in the human body are cells hostile to disease microbes, said he could always carry on his experiments best when pretty girls were close by.

Paul Ehrlich, another experimenter, used to have the grindorgan musicians play dance music outside of the laboratory. He said that his best ideas came when he heard gay music like that.

Dickens always had to have the same kind of slips of paper, blue ink and a quill pen when he wrote. Stephen Foster, an American song writer, composed his melodies in a silent room with heavy carpets and draperies.

Newspaper men, used to the ceaseless noise of typewriters and the bustle of a copy room, sometimes find they can not work so well where all is quiet.

REAL FARM ADVANCEMENT.

The farmer is just entering the most progressive era in modern agricultural history. The revolutionary influence that will give him a practical way to increase his efficiency and prosperity is farm electrification.

This development is still in its infancy, but its success is indicated. Speaking of what it will mean to rural life Matthew S. Sloan, president of the Brooklyn Edison company, said recently: "As electricity has taken the back-breaking drudgery out of factory work and greatly increased factory production, at lowered unit cost, so it is taking the toil, the muscle work, out of farming and reducing cost of crop production."

"That is one of the remaining frontiers which electricity is breaking down, and I do not think of any one piece of work ahead of the electric industry which is more important in its social and economic implications. My personal belief is that farm electrification will contribute as much to farm relief as collective marketing or any scheme of government aid which could possibly be adopted—perhaps a great deal more."

"It is a far cry from an old-fashioned farm with its endless drudgery to a modern farm with electric service—with an electric range, water pumped by electricity, home and barns and outbuildings electrically lighted, electric hay hoists, milking machines, electric refrigeration for general utility purposes. All that electricity has done for the city home and for the factory it is coming to do for the farm and the farm home."

General farm electrification means more rural advancement on a sound economic and progressive basis. "Grace, why did you refuse him?" "Well, Gertie, he said he'd die for me and I'm curious."

smoothly, will be Lord Northesk, whose wife, formerly Miss Jessica Brown, is now divorcing him. "How does she do it?" young ladies ask. How did Helen of Troy do it, or Cleopatra?

Oregon Industrograms

Here's a little romance of a Pacific Northwest industry, illustrating the fun of winning and losing in Opportunity Game!

A Vanished Bugaboo.

Dread of big business fades. Raskob, financial head of the four billion dollar General Motors company, is Democratic National Chairman.

William Jennings Bryan, where he dwells in bliss, doubtless shudders at all this. But these are practical days; big business is practical, and it is well to recognize things as they are.

Some Calvinists, it seems, are still Calvinists like old John Queen Wilhelmina, of Holland, will not attend the Olympic games. Calvinists in Holland are urged to stay away from what stern preachers call "a carnival of the flesh."

Dutch Calvinists say the Olympic games turn men away from Gogoltha to Greco-Roman paganism. A majority of human beings have abandoned the John Calvin theory, which included the burning alive of Dr. Servetus on slight provocation, believing that the good Lord wants people to enjoy themselves occasionally.

Crime organization seems to reach almost everywhere. One Sunday morning two dangerous man-killing gunmen escaped from Sing Sing Prison.

The same morning two Sing Sing Prison guards were arrested accused of blackmailing motorists on the highway.

No wonder prisoners escape when the jailers by night are highway blackmailers by day. A fine example to the prisoners, in "reforming" prison atmosphere.

Jeritza will talk and sing in a "talking movie." "These Talkies" make a good start with this artist. The singer will get $10,000 a week or more.

Dr. Ira S. Wile says the population is "growing older." It lives longer, the birth rate is lower. But old people, he says, are no longer proud of their age and little reverence is paid to them.

Age is nothing to be proud of, since we grow old in spite of ourselves. But to be hard at work when you are old, and EFFICIENTLY at work, it is something.

Young ladies that "don't seem to get any proposals" will marvel on hearing that our Peggy Joyce is about to be married again.

This will be her fifth husband and her second nobleman. Once Miss Joyce was the Countess Gosta Moerner, but she gave that up. The Commoners had "good money." Happy No. 5, if everything goes International Sunday School Lesson for August 5.

PAUL IN A PAGAN COUNTRY. Acts 14:18-20

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D., Associate General Secretary of the World's Sunday School Association. Mighty purpose to continue his ministry possessed Paul. He was not a quitter as John Mark had been at Perga. This young man might not have faced up to trouble as Paul and Barnabas did at Iconium.

The usual approach in the different cities was through the synagogues services but none appears to have been established at Lystra. Meetings were accordingly held in the open, wherever a group could be assembled. Among the listeners there was one who heard Paul's words with particular eagerness.

As he heard he began to believe. That faith manifested itself in a changed countenance, which when Paul noted, encouraged the preacher to command in His name, "Stand upright on thy feet." Instantly the cripple leaped up and walked.

The throng standing about recognized that a wondrous miracle had been wrought in their very presence. The healed man was a well-known character, always to be seen in the market place as a beggar, because he was a life-long cripple.

Jealous Jews came from Antioch in Pisidia and Iconium, places from which Paul had recently been driven out—to stir up the Lystrians against these men to whom sacrifice had nearly been offered. A mob was soon incited to stone Paul, who was then dragged outside the city, where he was left as dead.

Paul by another miracle rose up in full strength. The city was quietly entered and the next morning both Paul and Barnabas went forward on their God-called mission.

Crime organization seems to reach almost everywhere. One Sunday morning two dangerous man-killing gunmen escaped from Sing Sing Prison. The same morning two Sing Sing Prison guards were arrested accused of blackmailing motorists on the highway.

Jeritza will talk and sing in a "talking movie." "These Talkies" make a good start with this artist. The singer will get $10,000 a week or more. And while she rests the film will go on singing, millions hearing it. Wonderful invention, time and labor saving.
