J. B. Huddleston and sister, Miss Bess Huddleston, left for their Lone Rock home Saturday night after a visit of a couple of days with Heppner friends. On arriving home they learned that their sheep range in Rough canyon and on the Morphine ranch south of Parkers Mill was afire. It necessitated some lively action on the part of Mr. Huddleston and his men to get the sheep in the clear, and Mr. Huddleston took charge of combating the flames until the forest officials could get organized. A crew of 25 men was put on the fire by the federal men Sunday. Half of Mr. Huddleston's summer range had been consumed by that time.

From the "50 Years Ago" column in Tuesday's Oregonian, we learn: "J. W. Reddington and Frank Parker, two of General Grant's scouts, arrive at Malheur City with dispatches. They rode all night, making 70 miles in seven hours." Reddington is remembered by pioneers here as one of the early editors of the Heppner Gazette, while Col. Parker was the founder and editor for many years of the Walla Walla Statesman.

Stanley McCoy of Burley, Idaho, and niece, Miss Marie McCoy of Eskridge, Kansas, completed a visit last week at the home of Mr. McCoy's sister, Mrs. M. L. Oney of this city, leaving by way of Portland for their various homes. This was the first time Mrs. Oney had seen her niece, now 21 years of age, and she enjoyed the visit very much. It was Miss McCoy's first trip west.

Lotus Robison was down from Hardman on Monday. For many years Mr. Robison engaged in the cattle business, but last season he sold out all his cattle and is now running sheep, having about 1100 head of ewes. He is making delivery here of some more lambs for eastern shipment this week.

Edward A. Lindken, tractor farmer of the Ione section, was doing business in the city Wednesday morning. He narrowly escaped having a field of wheat catch fire following the electrical storm of last Thursday. The grass on the edges of the field caught but was discovered before the fire got under way.

W. P. Mahoney and Walter Moore, vice-president and cashier respectively of the First National bank, made a personal tour of inspection of part of the forest fire area Sunday, visiting the Morphine fire and Tupper ranger station, and returning by way of Ditch creek.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Clark returned home the end of the week from Canadian points, Mrs. Clark meeting Mr. Clark there on his return from Montana where he finished the shearing season. They departed again Monday for California on a vacation trip.

Bernie Gaunt, who finished the sheep shearing season in Montana, returned home the end of the week. He reports a very rainy season there that delayed clipping of the wools considerably. It took 28 men in one crew 42 days to shear 52,000 head.

Miss Luola Bengtson arrived home Sunday morning from Eugene where she has been a student the past year at the U. of O., attending the summer session following the close of the regular school year.

Phillip Mahoney returned home Saturday from Seattle where he attended summer school at the U. of W. following the close of the regular term. He has been engaged in hauling firefighters this week.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo attended the meeting of the Eastern Oregon Medical association at La Grande Saturday, going over in the morning and returning in the evening.

W. L. Copenhaver was a Heppner business visitor Tuesday morning from his Sand Hollow farm where he is in the midst of his wheat harvest.

Chas. Allinger departed from Ione on Sunday night's train, his destination being the place of his nativity in southern Indiana. He expects to be gone for some time and may visit other states before returning home, having an urge to see parts of Florida and Missouri where he resided in former years.

C. W. Lueallen of Walla Walla arrived at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Padberg, last Thursday for a visit of a few days, departing Tuesday morning.

J. B. Huddleston laid off fire fighting for a while Tuesday and with his sister, Miss Bess Huddleston, made a hurried trip to town on business.

Vawter Parker returned home on Friday from Vancouver where he attended the summer training camp of the R. O. T. C. as a cadet officer.

George Bleakman, county commissioner, has been assisting in combating the forest fires in south Morrow county since Friday.

Dr. F. E. Farrior returned Sunday from Portland where he took a week's work in a special course in dentistry.

There are more laughs than bricks in "McFadden's Flats," Star Theater, Sunday and Monday.

INTERNATIONAL ANTI-CRIME CONFERENCE.

The Northwest Association of Sheriffs and Police will hold the eighth International Anti-Crime Conference at Boise, Idaho, August 16, 17 and 18. The officers of the association are making strenuous efforts to secure the attendance of a large number of law enforcement officials at the conference.

The governors of the several states, all sheriffs, police officers, district attorneys, circuit judges, mayors, city attorneys, and other law enforcement officers are entitled to membership in the conference.

Some able judges will be on the program. There will be lectures by expert criminologists. Many plans for combating crime will be discussed. The matter of criminal procedure will also receive considerable attention.

We are hoping to have 125 officers from Oregon in attendance. Those who may be planning a trip to the Yellowstone National Park may be able to arrange their trip at that time and take in the convention, either going or coming. The citizens of Boise are planning to give the delegates a royal good time.

FIRE! Contagious!

Nothing is more "catching" than fire. No one knows when and where it will break out. Nor how long a course it may run.

Communicated fires are responsible for a large share of the enormous total annual fire-loss. And the innocent suffer along with the careless.

Your final protection against monetary damage by such fires is adequate insurance in a good, sound company. We can furnish it.

WHEREVER THERE ARE FLIES USE FLY-TOX

Kill the FLIES

You Can't Keep Your Food Under Glass

FOR health's sake the food must be kept fresh, clean, pure. Flies must be killed. They taint everything they touch. Disease germs drop from the maggoty ooze of the fly's filthy feet. That poisons food.

Use Fly-Tox. It is stainless, safe, sure. It costs little—half-pints fifty cents—and can be bought at your retailers. A trial sprayer is free with each small bottle.
