

A Race to Help Him

By Albert T. Reid

BOARDMAN

I Skoubo and Bill Harrington shipped a carload of melons last week through the Irrigation association. Returns had not yet been received.

Arthur Schaffer is here from Portland.

Earl Cramer and A. T. Hereim Sr. were here from Zillah, Wash., for a few days over the week-end where they have been working in the fruit.

Mrs. Flossie Johnson and children left Saturday night for their home in Spokane, after an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ves Attebury.

Carl Wicklander who had his tonsils removed at the clinic, was the only patient who did not come through with flying colors but he had an infection and on Sunday was taken to Heppner to see Dr. McMurdo.

Clarence Berger is employed at The Dalles as a relief operator for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. King made a business trip to Pendleton Saturday.

A Buick sedan was burned on the highway near Castle Rock Saturday. The name of the owner was not obtained.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hendricks motored to Pendleton Saturday.

Bobby Smith is driving a classy new Ford sedan, purchased at Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow motored to Hood River on Saturday. Uram Messenger and wife and son, Chas. Henry of Portland, were recent visitors at the E. T. Messenger home.

Glen Garrett and Russel Wilson came up from Gold Hill and visited at the Mefford and Richardson homes. Garretts were former Boardman residents who are farming near Gold Hill at the present time. On Friday Mr. Garrett took Bert Richardson over to John Day to the Chinese doctor. Bert is much improved in health and went to Gold Hill for a visit at the Garrett home, leaving the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bowman and daughter, Trudy, stopped at the Faler home on their way back to Hermiston from a trip to Bend. They were called to Bend by the tragic death of Mr. Bowman's brother, Fred Bowman, who was killed by a bull at his stock ranch near that place. It seems that Fred Bowman farms with a partner who had gone away for three days, haying for neighbors, so no one was present at the time of the accident and it is not known how long he had been dead when found. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bowman are employed by Andy Andregg on his dairy ranch near Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie moved Sunday from Messer where they have lived the past year to the Harry Murchie house in Boardman.

Miss Katherine Brown is home from a week's visit with friends in Bickleton, Wash. John Graves spent the week end at Lexington. The Graves family have rented the Clarence Berger ranch. Mrs. Maggie Farley and Wm. Doherty were guests at Slevins on Sunday. It had been planned to hold mass at the Slevin home but the priest, Rev. Brady of Heppner, was ill and unable to come. Mr. and Mrs. Slevin have moved into the house on the Gorham ranch.

Eldon Wilson and Bob Partlow motored to Pendleton Sunday.

Ed Barlow has purchased the stock of Miller accessories from C. E. Parker of Ridgfield, Wash., and will handle that well known line of goods. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow have taken the rooms in the back of the Harry Murchie house.

Eldon, Gladys and Dallas Wilson and Bob Partlow were Heppner visitors the last of the week.

One of the most delightful parties of the season was that at which Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gorham extended their hospitality on Monday evening in honor of their 10th wedding anniversary. Four tables of 500 were in play and at the close of an interesting game it was found that Mrs. L. E. Marschat was high and A. T. Hereim low. A lovely two-course luncheon was served and each of the guests received clever little cap favors. Present were the Meads, Dillaboughs, Fortiers, Blaydens, Rands, Marschats, Hereims and the hosts.

Tom Hendricks is driving a fine new Graham Paige sedan.

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the P. T. A. it was decided to hold a "Get Together" meeting on Tuesday evening, September 25, in lieu of the usual teacher's reception. It is hoped that everyone will attend this meeting and take the opportunity to renew acquaintances with the teachers who have been here before and become acquainted with the new ones.

Mrs. Frank Cramer accompanied Glen Garrett and Bert Richardson to John Day last week and remained for treatments with the Chinese doctor there. She has been treating with him the past several weeks.

Alex Wilson made a trip to Heppner the last of the week.

Mrs. Mary E. Hiatt is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Royal Rands. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ingalls of Salt Lake were also guests at the Rands home. Mrs. Ingalls will be remembered as Mrs. Eccles, a sister of Mrs. Rands. The Ingalls drove on to Seaside from here.

Rev. Davidson of Malad City, Idaho, who was expected here to fill the Umatilla and Boardman pulpits, has been prevailed upon to remain in Malad, according to word received from Rev. D. A. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mefford had a house full of guests Sunday who partook of a sumptuous chicken dinner. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Macomber and baby of Olex. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barlow, L. V. Root and family and Tommy Knowlton.

There is an abundance of fruit on the project this year and Boardman housewives have been rushed with fruit canning. The Meffords had such a surplus of fruit on their place that on Saturday Mr. Mefford and Evelyn took a truck load to Arlington. It consisted of prunes, grapes and crab apples.

Royal Rands and family motored to Echo Thursday to visit relatives. Russell Mefford is home from Reith where he worked on the rock crusher. He plans to attend school but has not definitely decided as yet just where he will go. Russell graduated last year from

T. E. Broyles and daughter Irma motored to Colfax last week. Mr. L. J. Goodenough was a house guest Wednesday at the H. H. Weston home on his way to Lexington.

Performers Arriving For Pendleton Show

Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 12.—Queen Mary of the 1928 Round-Up will have for her attendants four attractive Umatilla county girls. They are Miss Editha Barthel and Miss Kathleen McClintock of Pendleton; Miss Lois McIntyre of Athena and Miss Roberta Morrison of Adams.

Queen Mary, (otherwise known as Mary Duncan, beautiful feminine star of "Our Daily Bread," now being filmed in Umatilla county) will with her attendants ride in all Round-Up parades, September 19, 20, 21 and 22. She will wear a truly regal costume of white buckskin, ornamented with black, and her maids will also be in cowgirl attire of white with black accessories. Judges of years' experience have been chosen for the show. They are R. S. Dixon of Prineville; Allen Drumheller of Walla Walla, and Dan Clark of Cheyenne. All three served last year, and in addition, Mr. Dixon and Mr. Clark served on three other occasions and Mr. Drumheller on two. They have proven most popular with performers and audiences.

These pre-Round-Up days are marked by the arrival of scores of performers. Charley Irwin and Eddie McCarty, two big outfits, will arrive next week. Charley will bring with him the following ropers and bronk riders: Ed Bowman, Carl Arnold, Mike Shelton, Roy Adams, Buff Brady, Shark Irwin, Everett Bowman, King Merritt, Breezy Cox, Ike Dude, and Claud Sawyer.

Shark won the bronk riding at Cheyenne this year and is the strong contender for the Roosevelt trophy as he was the high point man at the Frontier Days show.

Buff Brady won the trick and fancy riding and was a contestant in the roping at Cheyenne this year. Relay, Roman and trick riders will include Murph Palmer and Eoland Slaughter. Cowgirl relay riders are Mabel Strickland, who was queen of the Round-Up last year, and who besides her other accomplishments, ropes steers for exhibition; Pauline Sawyer and Josephine Wicks.

Irwin, among his livestock, will include Cal Coolidge and Fountain, two top bucking horses; even relay strings, roping horses, etc. For the derby he will bring Dotty, Lord Prim and Laura L.

Eddie McCarty's aggregation will include the following top hands: Bob Crosby, for two years winner of the Roosevelt trophy; Dick Shelton, Rene Shelton, Richard Merchant, Fred Lowery, H. O. Hayworth, Fred Hunt, Tuck Choate, Chester Byers, (a roper who knows so much about this stunt that he has written a book on the subject); Chuck Wilson and Lewis Kublitz. Eddie will have fifteen bucking horses, men and women's relay strings; a Roman team; two relay horses; a derby entry and four head of Brahma stags.

A taxicab company is considering going into the airplane business. We guess the company got the idea of high flying from studying the figures on its own taxi meters.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Newman of New York have named their new twin boys Alfred and Herbert. Evidently taking no chances on this election.

A man in Chile who had been married fourteen times died the other day at the age of ninety. He should be laid to rest with military honors.

THINKING OUT LOUD

By SAMUEL WAIN.

A taxicab company is considering going into the airplane business. We guess the company got the idea of high flying from studying the figures on its own taxi meters.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Newman of New York have named their new twin boys Alfred and Herbert. Evidently taking no chances on this election.

A man in Chile who had been married fourteen times died the other day at the age of ninety. He should be laid to rest with military honors.

William C. Durant offers $25,000 "for the best and most practical plan to make the eighteenth amendment effective." The best way would be to jail all the bootleggers and their customers, and then put all those who are left within one of the smaller states where they can be closely watched.

They are wearing rubber bathing suits at Deauville now. Probably a concession to the rubbernecks.

Three young men who set out for Spain in a thirty-two foot boat returned after going a short way because their water supply went bad. Well, they could have bathed in the ocean.

A man put in jail in New York recently has quite a problem. He is a strict vegetarian, and so will not eat any of the food supplied by the prison. It has got so all the other prisoners are afraid he will start chewing their cauliflower ears!

As to the talking movies, the companies that are advertising their first "sound" pictures may be making an idle boast!

Wilson's "A MAN'S STORE FOR MEN"

The students in public schools today are not being examined for "eyestrain," but are being tested for "good vision."

THERE IS A

WHALE

OF A DIFFERENCE

A child may, and frequently does, see at a distance better than the average that we call normal, and yet that same child may not be able to do close work with comfort for more than five minutes at a time—all because of EYESTRAIN.

Most of the headaches, head tilting, squinting, holding book too close, poor reading, nervousness, irritability, crossed eyes, are caused by eyestrain.

An eye examination will answer the question and perhaps save your child from failure and discouragement which often lasts through an entire lifetime.
