A man should never be ashamed to own he has been in the wrong, which is but saying in other words that he is wiser today than he was yesterday.— POPE.

WHY NOT A CARAVAN?

WITH the announcement of dates for the Gilliam county fair set a week apart from those of the Heppner Rodeo, it will be possible for more people from our section to take in the event at Condon this year.

With hard-surfaced highway now covering the gap between here and Condon, it takes but a couple of hours to travel the distance by automobile. The coming of the highway has brought the towns closer together, motoringly speaking.

WHO EVER HEARD OF SUCH A PLACE?

APROLONGED and highly interesting discussion of the origin of the name "Oregon" has been taking place in the "letters from the public" column of the San Francisco Chronicle.

Dr. Frank Crane Says:

Moses and the Ten Commandments

MOSES was a Jew, the great grandson of Levi, the great grandson of Jacob, who was the first Israelite, and the great-great-great grandson of Abraham, who was the first Hebrew.

In China they boast of pedigrees thirty centuries long; the only people that can show anything equal to this are the Jews. The proud Jew of this day can look down with contempt upon the Hohenzollerns, the Romanoffs and the Guelphs of Europe.

Time has a grim humor. The monarchs of Egypt are today only known as contemporaries of Moses. The Czar of Russia will be known as the contemporary of Tolstoy.

Moses goes up into smoking Sinai and has a conversation with the thunder and lightning. What did they say to him? He shows us when he comes down. There on a stone slab are graven the Ten Commandments.

Whether he really spoke with God, or whether he had a hypnotic fit up there in the thunderstorm, the fact remains that in some way he got hold of the toughest, most everlasting and fireproof bundle of truths any son of man ever found.

The Ten Commandments are the most important words in history. They were given by Moses to the Jews, but they have been generally accepted throughout Christendom as the foundation of all law and morals.

They are the basis of society in the civilized world.

There is no other instance in history where a rule has been recognized and obeyed by the mass of the most intelligent people for over three thousand years.

They function in the home, the market, the street and office. They hold in the wild places of the earth and in the farthest seas.

KEEPING THE CAMPAIGN CLEAN.

WE HEAR considerable about keeping the national campaign on a high plane and it seems to be quite a job. Just now followers of Governor Smith are loud in their protests against what they term a vile and slanderous "whispering" attack.

The whispering attack is as old as the government. Washington and Jefferson were victims of it. So were Jackson and Lincoln, Cleveland and Roosevelt, Wilson and Harding.

THE FARM TOOL OF ALL WORK.

OF ALL recent inventions for the farm, the tractor has been the most revolutionary. It has brought cost reduction, time-saving, and increase in efficiency.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP IN A NUTSHELL.

THE weakness of government ownership and operation is the tendency to suppress individual initiative, to hamper it with laws and rules of departments.

VACATION IS OVER.

THE GLAD summer season of play is over for our children, and they are again creeping, as the Immortal Bard of Avon phrased it, "unwillingly to school."

understand how he came to use that word "unwillingly."

THE INCREASING NON-VOTING CLASS.

ORGANIZATION on political party lines called "get-out-the-vote" clubs, are being pushed for the November election.

In six states the last chance to register is already past and in 37 states registry rights expire 30 days before election.

The enormous volume of state and federal laws relating to naturalization, registration, primaries and elections proper, have all tended to increase the non-voting class.

Doing away with manhood suffrage and increasing the obstacles, difficulties and voting requirements cause uncertainty and chaos with the result that in many instances a minority of voters control election results.

EXTENDING HUMAN PROSPERITY AND HAPPINESS.

SUPPLYING electric light and power to a community is not merely a business. It is a public service that forever frees men from the tyranny of excessive burden.

Every time electrical service is extended every line there is a new labor-saving device introduced in the home or in the factory.

A GREAT TRIBUTE.

THE Unknown Soldier whose tomb is under the Arch of Triumph in France has received a perfect tribute.

Many have been the decorations of this tomb, but none more sincere, none more touching, than that placed on it by the farmers of Rheims.

This Week

If War Vanished. Pain and Suffering. Abolishing Poverty. Padlocks for Homes?

That pact outlawing war is signed, and for the present, nations seem to take it seriously.

Suppose the improbable SHOULD happen, and all nations suddenly abandon war. What would happen?

Earth's population has been regulated by WAR, DISEASE, FAMINE.

Machinery and better government have practically eliminated famine.

Science has almost eliminated the plagues that killed wholesale. No more "Black Death." With war gone what would prevent growth of population greater than the earth could sustain?

Divine Wisdom, ruling the earth, is probably able to solve that problem as it has taken care of others, including the most difficult, how to keep populations GROWING in spite of war, plague and famine.

The Rev. Dr. Auer, who teaches philosophy at Tufts College, says men should not seek to AVOID pain and suffering but to UNDERSTAND both.

That is better than the old theory that God actually wanted men to suffer.

When anaesthetics were first used, the clergy of Britain denounced them as interfering with God's wishes.

God wishes us to suffer when we have our legs cut off, and men must not interfere with His plans by using chloroform, thus cheating the Lord, said the preachers.

An ingenious doctor answered, to the confusion of clergymen, quoting the Book of Genesis, asserting that the Lord was the One to use anaesthetics when He "caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam" before removing one of Adam's ribs to make Eve.

Men should understand pain and suffering, of course, as the reverend philosopher Auer says. But they should also concentrate on eliminating both by scientific means, and especially by abolishing poverty.

The best thing in Herbert Hoover's speech of acceptance, the best thing said by any Presidential candidate since Lincoln, was his statement expressing the hope that by giving every man a job, well paid, poverty may be made to disappear.

In Minnesota prohibition officials threaten to padlock wet homes.

Quite a surprise for the Minnesota ploughman homeward plodding his weary way, or children from the public schools to find the front

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School Lesson for September 16.

PAUL WRITES TO HIS FRIENDS IN CORINTH

I Corinthians 1:10-13, 3:5-11, 21-23

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D., Associate General Secretary of the World's Sunday School Association.

What Paul wrote has been of continuing influence, for his letters form a part of the Bible that is the world's best seller. Millions of copies of the Bible come from the presses every year.

Some letters of Paul are lost but we have at least thirteen in the New Testament that were written by him. As this is the first lesson in the series that deals especially with Paul's letters you should give special attention to each of the epistles.

In your Bible dictionary, teachers' helps or other reference books search out all you can about where each was written, to whom, why, and make an analysis of its general content. I and II Thessalonians were written during the second journey, I and II Corinthians, Galatians and Romans on the third journey. During the first Roman imprisonment the world received Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians and Philemon. Then came I Timothy and Titus during the days of freedom and II Timothy was written just before his release, during the second imprisonment at Rome.

The Bible is always a book of human interest. Paul was at Ephesus, some member of the household of Chloe, from that city, had spent a while in Corinth and on returning told just how matters concerning the new church were progressing in the Isthmian city. It seems that in general there was marked progress, but old fashioned human nature was also running true to form. Factions were being formed.

Those who claimed that they were converts through the special work of some individual. Some belonged to the Pauline party, others claimed Cephas or Apollus, while another group was frank in saying that they belonged to Christ and it was not at all vital through whom they learned of Him; the new life was the essential factor. It was to correct the erroneous thinking that Paul prepared this first letter to the church at Corinth. Of course he added much that was constructive. Now read the entire letter. You can note that the lessons for September 23 and October 14 are also taken from this most helpful epistle. Then read the first four chapters a second time as that portion is of general content for this lesson study. Every week you should get the full context in Scripture as well as the few verses indicated for particular study.

Because Paul was seeking to build up a Christ-centered Kingdom and not a man-centered party the people in Corinth were urged to think the matter through. Each one who had visited that city had been working for the one great purpose and had not sought to establish an individual following. Each had a real part in this Kingdom-building but always "God gave the increase." Every worker was just a minister-servant of the Christ. Every bit of self interest is ruled out as all are styled "God's fellow workers." This is partnership indeed. The truth is enriched when another term is used—"God's husbandry."

Full credit for foundation is given in verse 11 a Jesus Christ is named. "Other foundation can no man lay." It is the part of each one who will care for his own life and be useful in the lives of others to refer to this essential foundation. Peace, unity and the true brotherhood of man are proclaimed in the Golden Text "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!"
