

Wreckage Supplies Coffins for Storm Dead

This photograph, taken at Belle Glade, Florida, shows men making a coffin from the wreckage of one of the homes there. With more than 3,000 dead, there was a demand for coffins in which to bury the dead. Rough caskets were made from the wreckage of houses.

BOARDMAN

Of interest to Boardman friends are two announcements of new arrivals this week. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen of Condon have a new baby boy. Mrs. Jess Allen and her mother, Mrs. Kelly, have gone up to be with Mrs. Allen. A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger at their home in Athens, Sept. 26. The Messengers have a small son who is pleased to have a sister. Mrs. Messenger will be remembered as Leta Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barlow. Pomona Grange will meet Saturday, October 6, at Irrigon and the Boardman team will exemplify the 5th degree work. Ex-governor Walter M. Pierce will be the main speaker. Mary Chaffee will give a reading. Everyone is invited to attend the even session Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead and three children were entertained at the Brice Dillabough home Sunday at a lovely dinner.

C. P. Mallory of Olympia was a house guest at the J. L. Jenkins home this week. Mr. Mallory is a brother-in-law of Mr. Jenkins.

Catholic services were held here Sunday at the Pete Slevin home with Rev. Brady of Heppner in charge. The Catholics are contemplating the erection of a small church here shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jenkins and Elvira and Rachael and Glen Berger motored to Hook Saturday for a visit.

T. E. Broyles made a business trip to Palouse this week.

Some low-down lazy malefactor robbed the chicken roost of F. L. Browns one night last week, taking every bird. Two men were seen to run and jump into a car. One of them wore hob-nailed shoes. An inspection of shoe soles on the project might reveal some surprising things. Anyone mean enough to steal turkeys or chickens deserves a good dose of buck shot.

Gloria Wicklander, Kenneth Duggan and Delbert Mackan came home Friday from a wonderful trip to Salem where they attended the state fair by virtue of their points scored in the year's club work. Kenneth Duggan was selected as the outstanding boy in club work for the year from Morrow county. They were accompanied by Mrs. Brown of Ione.

Mrs. C. Emmett and daughters Doris and Evelyn stopped for a short visit at the Royal Rands home on their way from Hood River to their home in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat motored to Pendleton Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Brice Dillabough and children were guests Saturday evening at a turkey dinner at the Royal Rands home.

Bill Harrington had excellent success with a patch of onions this year, about a quarter of an acre in size. He sold $120 worth of onions to the Pacific Fruit and Produce company. Let us see $120 from a quarter of an acre. Almost better than raising alfalfa, isn't it? Dan Ransier has stopped riding ditch but the meter will not be turned off until October 15th.

Mrs. Dan Ransier entertained at a lovely party Thursday, Sept. 27, honoring Mrs. Frank Otto. Forty-five ladies were present. A dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Ransier and assistant hostesses who were Mesdames Claude Myers, Ed Kunze, Glen Mackan and E. Duggan.

Mrs. Ray Brown and daughters, Katharine and Mabel, and Mrs. A. E. Chaffee motored to Pendleton Wednesday. The girls left the last of the week to resume their work at Washington State Normal at Elensburg on Saturday.

Mrs. Nick Falier left Thursday for Portland for a fortnight visit, going down with Mrs. W. J. McNeil, Gordon McNeil and his fiancée, Miss Gertrude Swertz who stopped for a visit at the Falier home after a marvelous three months motor trip to Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jenkins took Mrs. Robert Wilson and daughters, Phyllis and Ruby, to Heppner on Sunday to be under the doctor's care. Both have been quite ill with dysentery as a result of eating over-ripe melon, it is supposed. The doctor was called Wednesday night for Ruby. They are with relatives at Heppner and are reported to be improved.

Miss Rachael Johnson is nicely settled in Portland, and started her business course this week at Behne-Walker Business college. She is staying with a cousin in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel and two small children have come to make their home on the project and will have charge of the Mrs. Lottie Attebury ranch which was purchased by Mrs. Daniel's father, F. H. Denison. The latter's son, Walter, will make his home with his sister. He is a student at the Boardman high school. Mrs. Attebury is a house guest at the W. A. Price home for a time before leaving for Portland where she will make her home. The estate of her husband, the late Chas. Attebury, comes up for settlement October 5 at Heppner.

Mrs. Ella Shell was pleased to have her brother, C. W. Short and wife of Cliffs, Wash., for a short visit. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Arch McFarland of Umatilla.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Price returned to their home in Portland after visiting at the home of their son, W. A. Price and family.

A number of Boardman folks attended the Rodeo at Heppner and enjoyed the sports and carnival features and the general good time extended by the neighboring city. Noticed there were M. K. Marshall and daughter Kathleen, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Farley, Johnny McNam

HOOPER, THE FARMER.

Herbert Hoover was born on an Iowa farm. He spent his boyhood on a farm. He knows what it is to be a chore boy on a farm. His experience in this line extends to three states, Iowa, Oklahoma (then Indian Territory), and Oregon. He has not forgotten the experiences of those days, for no boy ever forgets his early life on a farm.

Herbert Hoover owns a farm of 1280 acres near Bakersfield, Calif. At the close of the world war this land was a barren sage brush waste. He carefully planned its development. He put down nine 500-foot wells for irrigating this land. He had this done under his immediate supervision. Now, upon that farm, there are 300 acres of vegetables, 250 acres of cotton, 420 acres of grapes and 220 acres of fruits. He has had only general oversight of the farm during the time he has been secretary of commerce, but he knows what is going on on the farm. He studies the marketing problems at first hand. He knows what the farmer has to contend with.

Notwithstanding the misrepresentations of the newspapers and speakers opposing Mr. Hoover, it has been shown by the record that he was a friend of the farmer during the dark days of the war, and at the close of the war he did a magnificent work in Europe, which was of incalculable benefit to the farmers. As secretary of commerce, he has done much to open markets for the farmer. Is it not evident that farmers have in Herbert Hoover a tried and true friend?—Contributed.

Mrs. Frank Cramer came home Tuesday from John Day where she has been for three weeks treating with the Chinese doctor there.

Chas. Goodwin, Geo. Agee and O. H. Warner motored to Heppner Saturday and attended the Rodeo, returning Sunday.

Gottlieb Sturm left for his home in Tigard after five weeks at the M. K. Flickinger home.

Claude Myers has been suffering with a painful carbuncle on his arm.

It is planned to have Rev. James Aiken Smith hold a series of revival meetings here this fall. Rev. Smith spoke here two years ago and was a very interesting and capable talker but was here during the extremely cold weather of midwinter, so had only small audiences.

RHEA CREEK.

Rhea creek and vicinity have received a nice rain the latter part of the week which ought to make it safe to start fall seeding.

Ernest Cannon is delivering a band of lambs this week.

The Golden West school give a nice little program of the best of their week's work every Friday afternoon and it is well worth going to hear.

Rhea Creek Grange will meet

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 7.

The meeting will begin promptly at 11 o'clock, and Ex-Governor Walter M. Pierce will speak at the lecture hour beginning at 2:30. The public is cordially invited.

The Golden West school are having hot lunches now, and we are sure the children will enjoy and be very much benefited by it.

Lawrence Redding, Eight Mile farmer, was transacting business in the city yesterday.

SHEEP FOR SALE.

Will sell one to four cars full mouth ewes, bred to Hamp bucks for February lambing, or one to four cars aged ewes, same breeding. Priced right. Also about 100 small mixed black faced lambs. Also will sell 30 head registered two-year-old Delaiae rams. Tom Boylen, Jr., Echo, Ore. 29-31.

Wm. Barnett, Lexington merchant, was a business visitor here on Tuesday.

Better—Not Bigger Farms Needed

Groups, Associations and National organizations working with Agricultural specialists have effected a revolution in the methods and machinery of farming that enable operators of small acreages to increase production without increasing overhead.

Not the least of such agencies for the improvement of practices in Livestock farming, Dairying and Agriculture is the Pacific International Livestock Exposition, the 18th Annual of which will be held at Portland, Oregon, November 3-10. Yearly more than 120,000 persons see and study the exhibits of pure bred Beef and Dairy Cattle, Horses, Sheep, Hogs, Goats and Foxes competing for the $100,000.00 offered in prizes. Combined also are great Dairy, Land and Manufacturers' Products, Wool and Mohair Shows, and Industrial Exposition. Because of its educational value, greater size and increasing quality of exhibits we, here at the First National Bank, recommend attendance at this year's Exposition.
