DR. FRANK CRANE.

DR. FRANK CRANE has gone to that "strange bourne from which no traveler returns." Seventeen years ago his editorial sermons began to appear in the newspapers, and in a short time won recognition. He became famous and earned through his writings something like one hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year. The world was quick In the street saw a safe raised above to respond. He had something that the world wanted. He had the gift of expressing beautiful sentiments in a beautiful way, inspiring and inspiriting all of us.

Why give up?

Of course it is difficult for any one in comparative health and well being to give advice to sufferers. One is always open to the imputation of being supercilious. It is always easy for the philosopher to bear the toothache patiently when some one else has it. At the same time, and at the risk of being called hard names, I repeat the question, "Why give up?" Suppose you do give up. Will life be any easier to bear?

It is just as well to look squarely at the alternative.

When smee one told Tolstoy that many kind, virtuous, and honest people had a very hard time, he replied: "What about those that are unkind, not virtuous and dishonest? Look about you. Do the people like that whom you know have any easier time?
