NEW RESERVOIR STARTED AT ONCE

Contract Let Tuesday;
Two Bridges to be Built
Also By City.

Heppner's water system will be augmented by a large new reservoir, the contract being let at a special meeting of the city council Tuesday morning to Hartenbower Brothers Co., of La Grande, on the bid of $12,295.25. The signed contract calls for completion of the project by March 15 next. Construction of two bridges was assured at the regular meeting Monday night, when T. G. Denisse, local contractor, was awarded the contract on a bid of $4,164.00 for the two. These will replace present bridges, one across Hinton creek on Elder street and the other across Willow creek on Morgan street. Both bridges will be wood spans on concrete abutments.

Five bids were received on the reservoir and three on the bridges. The reservoir bids, besides the successful one, were: Parker-Schram Co., of Portland, $15,439.90; A. Ritchie & Co., Baker, $12,905.38; T. G. Denisse, Heppner, $12,244.70; C. G. Hedges, The Dalles, $12,746.35. A noticeable feature of the reservoir bids was the closeness of the amounts with the exception of one.

L. R. Stockman, hydraulic engineer of Baker, has been contracted with by the city to supervise construction of the reservoir. All construction work will be under his constant supervision. Stakes for excavating have already been laid, and when the excavating is completed, Mr. Stockman must give his ok before further work can be done. Then, after the forms have been made, he must again give his ok before work can be proceeded with. From then on his office will have a man on the job constantly, checking materials and work, and when the reservoir is completed it must again meet his ok before the work will be accepted by the city. Thus, the city has a check on the quality of the work at all times.

When the reservoir is put into use, it is estimated that pressure in the mains will be increased to from 40 to 45 pounds per foot. With present facilities the pressure at best is 25 pounds. Thus, it is hoped, the new reservoir will be the means of giving all residents of the city, those on the hills as well as those living lower down, a sufficient supply of water for their needs at all seasons.

The reservoir will be 66 feet in diameter and 12 feet deep, all reinforced concrete construction. It will be located on the hill on the west side of town just below the present city fire reserve reservoir. The outlet of the new reservoir will be a slight distance above the floor, thus allowing sediment to settle, keeping much of it out of the pipes. There will be another outlet on the level of the floor, however, so that the reservoir may be flushed and cleaned frequently.

Money for the new construction work will come from the water reserve fund, now totaling more than $22,000, with the rest taken from the yearly budget, no bonds or borrowed money being needed for the purpose. The city budget, voted November 30, calls for a total of $12,450 to be raised by taxation for the coming year.

WILL TOUR THE ORIENT
E. C. Ampsper, operator at the O. W. R. & N. depot, Crockett Springs and Jas. Thomson, Jr., are leaving the first of the coming week for Seattle, from which point they will sail on Saturday on the Yokohama Maru for the Orient. The vessel will touch at Vancouver, B. C., and then go on through northern waters before taking the sea for Japan. These men expect to be gone about three months, returning to Heppner the first of March. They will have time to spend about a month touring the Orient, and the two younger men will no doubt get a lot out of the trip under the guidance of Mr. Ampsper, who has made this journey several times in the past few years.

Auxiliary Will Send Christmas Cheer Boxes

The regular meeting of Heppner unit, American Legion Auxiliary, was held Tuesday evening, hostesses being Mrs. Walter E. Moore and Mrs. Glen C. Jones. Christmas cheer boxes were planned to be sent to veterans in Hospital 77 at Portland. Mrs. Dick Wells, Mrs. Chas. Cox and Mrs. Paul Gemmell are the committee in charge. Bundles of clothing were brought to the meeting which will be sent to the Child Welfare department to be distributed among needy families of ex-service men. If members or non-members have donations which they were unable to bring Tuesday, they may call Mrs. Elsie Cowina, local child welfare chairman, before Friday noon and she will call for them, or they may be delivered to Legion hall where they will be packed and mailed.

The Auxiliary sewing club met with the Womans Relief Corps last Wednesday afternoon and made pneumonia jackets which were sent to the veterans hospital. The sewing club will meet again Wednesday, Dec. 26. Cash donations have been received from non-members to be used for purchasing sewing material for the sewing department. These donations are greatly appreciated.

The departed brothers were K. K. Mahoney, W. R. Cochran, W. C. Lillard, Phil Cohn, A. B. Cochran and L. V. Gentry.

Solo, "When I Come Home"—Harvey Miller. Ceremonies of the lodge. Address—Rev. B. Stanley Moore. Solo, selected—Miss Kate Frances Ede. Auld Lang Syne. Lodge and audience. Closing ceremonies. Benediction.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

The seniors and freshmen debated Monday, November 26, on the question, "Resolved, That Heppner High school should publish an annual." Dorothy Herren, Paul Jones and Veltan Owen upheld the negative for the seniors and Blanche Howell, Donna Brown and Mary McDuffee upheld the affirmative for the freshmen. Both sides brought forward convincing arguments but the judges voted in favor of the negative which was upheld by the seniors.

A very enjoyable party was held at the home of Terrell Bengtson, Friday, November 23. Those present were: Misses Riechel, Bannister, Margaret Nelson, Dorothy Herren, Vivian Cason, Veltan Owen, Martha Driscoll and Messrs. Clarence Hayes, Paul Jones, Harlan Devin, James Hager, Maurice Edmondson, Terrell Bengtson and Clair Cox. Very novel games were played after which refreshments consisting of chocolate brick ice cream and cake were served.

A student body meeting was called Friday afternoon for the purpose of organizing the Vigilance Committee. A committee consisting of Harlan Devin, Paul Jones and Fletcher Walker was appointed by the president to confer with Mr. Burgess and decide upon certain powers which are to be expressly delegated to them. It was also decided that the idea which was started last year, that of having a Friday afternoon program in the gym, should be continued this year. The various classes and organizations simply take turns in preparing and giving these programs. Following is the order in which they will be given:

Sophomores, Dec. 7, freshmen Dec. 14, Torch honor society Dec. 21, booster club Jan. 11, juniors Jan. 18, "H" club Jan. 25, seniors Feb. 1.

Tuesday, November 27, the juniors and sophomores debated on the question, "Resolved, That Heppner High school should adopt the honor system of education." Evelyn Swindig, Duane Brown and John Parker upheld the affirmative for the juniors and Joe Swindig, Marie Kirk and Jeannette Turner upheld the negative for the sophomores. This debate decided that the sophomores had put forward the champion debate team this year. Both the affirmative and negative arguments showed much preparation and were deserving of much praise. The judges were Mrs. Walker, Mr. Sweek and Mr. Nys.

Since the close of the football season the chief topic of discussion among the boys of Heppner Hi has been basketball. The classes have all been looking forward to the interclass games which were planned earlier in the year, but as we were unable to have this series before Thanksgiving we will have to pass it up as we did last year. The first call for aspirants to the school team will be issued next

Power Causes Delay

The time was, in the day of the hand "type" and Washington hand press, when nothing much mattered—the paper came out on time just the same, sometimes. Nowadays, however, when all machinery in the print shop is controlled by electricity, power is necessary to make the wheels turn.

And so, gentle reader, we ask you to treat us with compassion as you receive your Gazette Times a day late this week. We were without power the larger portion of our regular press day, throwing us somewhat later than usual.

People in the city with electric stoves went without breakfast this morning, while others with equal consternation were put at a loss on nearly every turn when they started to do anything requiring electric "juice," the power from the Pacific Power and Light company's lines going off sometime in the wee small hours of the morning, and remaining off until shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon. The trouble was reported to be somewhere in the vicinity of Wasco, though details of the trouble were lacking.

Oregon Boys Victorious Twice in National 4-H Club Championship

Corvallis, Ore.—Champions come and champions go, but Oregon remains the winner again this year in national boys' and girls' club work honors. Still thrilling with the unprecedented victory last year when Alex Cruickshank, sophomore at Oregon state college from McMinnville, won a double national championship, Oregon finds itself this year as the home of his successor, Edgar Grimes of Harrisburg.

Young Grimes, 17, was entered by the state club headquarters in the extension service here as the outstanding club boy in Oregon to compete with the other 47 state champions for the Moses trophy offered to the club boy in the United States showing the best qualities of leadership in his community and state. He won out over all contestants, and was awarded the huge silver trophy and a free trip to the national club congress in Chicago.

Grimes has been in club work eight years during which time he completed 31 projects and made 178 exhibits at fairs. He led on club last year and seven this year to 100 percent completion. Prize in cash livestock and trips won total $2,722 including a $250 given this year by Governor I. L. Patterson to the best dairy club member in the state. In addition he owns more than $2,000 in livestock and has sold $1,250 worth. He finished high school last year with highest honors and will enter the state college as a freshman in agriculture next year.

Grand Jury Working; Will Report Monday

The regular December term of circuit court is set for Monday, December 10. Upon convening of court Judge Fee will hear the report of the grand jury which has been in session all this week, and will listen to the pleas of any persons against whom true bills have been returned. It is understood that following the arraignments and the setting down of cases for future hearing, Judge Fee will postpone the term until a later date. This action is made necessary owing to the very serious illness of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fee, now in a hospital in Portland; and also by the further fact that Judge Fee was unable to get another judge to preside at the December term of the Morrow county circuit court.

As there will be no need of a jury at this time, all veniremen will not be required to report for duty at the court house Monday morning, but will await further announcements. The grand jury is Ralph Jackson, Alex Green, James Higgins, R. W. Turner, E. Ed Gilliam, Crockett Duval and W. T. Barnett. In fair condition; or will trade.

Town Basketball Starts; Practice on Wednesdays

With a likely looking bunch of hoopers turning out Monday and Wednesday evenings, Heppner hopes to boast a championship town basketball team this season. Frances Doherty is managing the team again this year and desires to line up a full schedule of games. It is expected games will be arranged with Condon, Arlington, Ione, Lexington and several Umatilla county teams.

From the boys who made a good accounting last year, Dan Beighle, Mitchell Thorn, Paul Aiken, Frances Doherty, Ray Ferguson and Bill Bucknum are back in suits. Paul Hiser, last year's high school star, is expected to be out, while Jack Isom, lanky boy from the Willamette valley who he played at Brownsville and other places, and Stanley Reavis, local Pacific Power and Light company cashier, also no stranger to the court, are making strong bids for the team.

Wednesday nights at the school gym have been allotted the boys for practice. Frances Doherty urges the boys to keep the night in mind and be out for all practices. Also any other fellows who would like to try for a place on the team, or scrimmage with them, are invited to come out.

Last Demonstration Meets Held in County Dec. 13-15

The last of the demonstration meetings by Miss Lucy A. Case, of Oregon State college, will be held in the county as follows: Heppner, Dec. 13, 10 to 3:30; Lexington, Dec. 14, 10 to 3:30; Ione, Dec. 15, 10 to 3:30.

At Heppner and Lexington, a salad demonstration will feature the morning sessions, with a talk on the feeding of mothers and children in the afternoon. Ione will be given a sandwich and school lunch demonstration in the morning, with the afternoon talk on how to eat and grow thin or fat. C. W. Smith, county agent, is desirous for a good turnout at the meetings as they are very worth-while.

County Treasurer Briggs reports that he is calling all outstanding Morrow county general fund warrants up to date, and the county is out of debt for the first time in years. He does not expect this condition to prevail long, however.

R. J. Carsner, Wheeler county stockman and state senator, was a visitor in Heppner today.

One-Act Plays Slated at Rhea Creek Saturday

Plans are completed for the Rhea Creek Grange entertainment next Saturday evening, when three one-act plays will be the headlines for the evening. Local talent, it is said, will be at its best on this occasion, admission charges of 35c and 15c being made and the public cordially invited to attend. During the evening a beautiful hope chest will be given away.

Ione Grange will present "Friday for Luck," with the following cast: James Gosling, an elderly bachelor, Henry Baker; William Gosling, his brother and likewise a bachelor, Oscar Peterson; Philip Peuton, an average young American, Roy Llewellyn; Betty Winters, the Gosling housekeeper, Geneva Pelkey. Scene, living room of the Gosling cottage; time, present. Time for playing about 45 minutes.

Featuring F. R. Brown, Ray Ovlatt and Chas. Smith, Heppner members of the Rhea Creek grange, will be the black-faced comedy, "I Is Hungry." The play characters are Boss, a retired livery stable owner; Bones and Sambo, farmer employees; Shirlock Holmes, a detective and professional dancer; Ezra Jones, a professional musician. "Full House" will be the skit of the Rhea Creek grange, names of the cast members being withheld, the play characters being Mrs. Jinks, innately; Mr. Jinks, her husband; Miss Bence, old spinster; Mr. Chase, plain man; Mr. Case, retired pill manufacturer, and the maid.

First Touch of Winter Felt on Thanksgiving

Morrow county residents woke up Friday morning to gaze upon a glorious covering of beautiful white snow that had fallen the night previous. This was the first general snow of the season, and varied in depth from an inch in the south end to a mere covering of the ground farther north. By Friday evening it had disappeared with the exception of the high places, and since the weather has settled down to chilly and colder, the low mean at Heppner being 10 degrees reached Wednesday night.

With the change in the weather what might be termed an epidemic of colds and influenza has set in, with a large number of our people confined at home for short periods, and others being kept busy with their kerchiefs. Aside from this, and a few frozen car radiators and pipes, no damage is reported. Wheat so far has withstood the onslaught and little fear is felt for it.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES.

James K. Simons, who for many years resided in this city and was well known here, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. A. Ingerson, in La Grande on Tuesday, November 27, at the advanced age of 79 years. He had been a resident of La Grande some 10 years, going from here to that city and making his home with his daughters, Mrs. Ingerson and Mrs. Phil Jones.

The body was shipped to Heppner and funeral services were held in this city on Friday afternoon at the Methodist church, Rev. F. R. Spaulding conducting the services, and burial was in Heppner cemetery, where his wife was laid to rest several years before Mr. Simons departed from this city. Accompanying the body to Heppner were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jones and son, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ingerson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ingerson and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Eby. Mr. Simons was a brother of the late J. R. Simons, Heppner's pioneer blacksmith.

MRS. L. REDDING PASSES.

Word was received by friends in Heppner this forenoon from Portland announcing the death at 10:30 of Mrs. Lawrence Redding of Eight Mile. Mrs. Redding was taken to the city last week for surgical attention, and going to the Portland Surgical hospital, was operated on Tuesday morning. Calling friends here at 10 o'clock this forenoon, Mr. Redding stated that she was sinking, and a half hour later the announcement of her death came. Mrs. Redding had been ill for the past year, and was at Hot Lake for some time last winter, being operated on there, but never fully recovering, and it was found necessary to operate again. She is survived by her husband and three children, these being Earl, Alena and Boyd. The funeral will be held at Heppner Saturday afternoon.

THE REFORMED CHURCH.

The fourth address of the series on Church History deals with the beginnings of the Reformed church. The history of this time is very interesting and no one unfamiliar with it is prepared to understand modern denominationalism.

This service will be at the usual hour of 7:30.

The morning worship is at 10:50 and the subject for Sunday is "Living Epistles."

Bible school wants you at 9:45 and Christian Endeavor at 6:30.

FINE SUM RAISED FOR BOY SCOUTS

More Than $300 Given;
Cabin Assured; Feed
Next Wednesday.

"The Boy Scout drive was eminently successful," declares James M. Burgess, chairman of the executive committee, who extends the thanks of the committee and scout leaders to the people of Heppner for their wonderful cooperation during the drive last week-end. "The cabin at the summer camp of the Blue Mountain council is assured, as well as the running expenses of the troop, and the committee is launching a program looking toward much progress in Boy Scout work the coming year."

A total check on the monies received has not been made to date as it has not all been turned in, however, the total will undoubtedly exceed $300. A donation of $25 was made by the Masons Saturday night bringing the total from organizations to $125 with several not yet heard from. Incomplete returns from business houses showed $168, with residential districts contributing about $20.

Special thanks of the executive committee is extended to the men who aided in the solicitation. These were John Hiatt, Earl Hallock, C. W. Smith, Paul Gemmell, F. R. Brown, Howard McDuffee, W. W. Smeds, Stanley Moore, Frank Turner and Jasper Crawford.

Owing to circumstances the visit of Douglas Hawley, executive of the Blue Mountain council, was delayed a week, and the banquet scheduled for last Wednesday was postponed till next Wednesday. This banquet is for all fathers and sons of the city. It will be held at the Christian church, and a cover charge of 60c will be made. The dinner will be prepared by the Willing Workers of the church. Mr. Hawley will be the principal speaker, and a Court of Honor will be held for the purpose of advancing Scouts in the work. Demonstrations of Scout work will also be a feature of the evening.

The local troop has been given the name Heppner Troop No. 69, signifying that it is the 69th organization in the Blue Mountain council. However, this is not actually the case at the present time, for a set of numbers has been allowed each county sufficient to care for additional troops without the need of changing existing numbers while keeping numbers of troops in each locality in rotation, making supervisory work more simple.

The Heppner troop is under the leadership of Rev. Stanley Moore and Philip von Lubken. It meets every Thursday evening in the American Legion hall, and interested persons are welcome at any time to attend the meetings. With expenses now assured as well as a home at the summer camp, the leaders are in position to make more positive plans with the assurance that they may be carried out, and Boy Scout work in Heppner should make great headway.

CAMP-FIRE SPARKS.

The Boys' and Girls' Home in Portland has sent out their annual call for aid. The request is especially for canned foods or clothing that might be converted to their use. A part of the work in collecting articles in Heppner will be done by the Camp-Fire Girls.

The Camp-Fire will start a drive for clothes as above mentioned, this coming Saturday.

They themselves are preparing their own gifts to be put in, but they are anxious for the support of the community, that the boxes may be larger.

This service makes the Christmas time a real joy; to know that others are made happy, too. All donations should be in not later than December 20, that the boxes may be packed and shipped. Superintendent Burgess has offered his services in that part of the work.

Christmas spirit is showing itself in Camp-Fire groups. The girls are busy with their carols for Christmas. Preparations are under way for a grand council fire of all groups to be held the last week of school, just before Christmas.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS ELECT.

Tuesday evening, Dec. 4, 20, Knights of Pythias, held their annual election. Officers who will fill the chairs for the ensuing year are R. C. Wightman, Chancellor; R. H. Quackenbush, Vice Chancellor; M. L. Case, Master of Work; Jasper V. Crawford, K. R. S.; W. O. Dix, Master of Finance; E. J. Keller, Master of Arms; Harold Case, Master at Arms; Richard Peterson, Inner Guard; Carl Ulrich, Outer Guard. Charles Jones was elected trustee for three years. Following the regular session, a feed of clams was greatly enjoyed by the members present.

ATTENTION ELKS.

On Thursday, December 13, there will be an important meeting of Heppner Lodge No. 358, B. P. O. Elks. There will be initiation, smoker and feed, and all members are urged to attend—Secretary.

MASONS ATTENTION!

Special meeting Heppner Lodge No. 69, A. F. & A. M., Saturday evening, Dec. 8. Work in two degrees. Attendance of all members desired. L. W. Briggs, Secretary.
