

Local Happenings

Miss Marjorie Clark came up from the university at Eugene to spend Thanksgiving at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark. Miss Mary Clark was prevented from coming because of an attack of influenza which kept her confined to the Pacific Christian hospital in that city for a time. She has now recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital, according to latest word received by the home folks, and is back at the Chi Omega house, of which she is president.

E. E. Bartholomew, wife and daughter of White Salmon, Wash., and Fred Bartholomew and wife of Portland, Oregon, were Thanksgiving guests at the home of their mother, Mrs. Mary Bartholomew in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bartholomew of Pine City were also present on this occasion to enjoy the happy meeting of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Mather of Prairie City spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Mather's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney, in this city, coming over in time for the Thanksgiving dinner and returning to Prairie on Monday. Prairie City high school, which Mr. Mather superintends, just completed a very successful football season.

Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwarz were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Merritt and sons Kenneth and Henry, and daughter, Mrs. Ray Shurtz and her young son, Charles Ray, all of Wapato, Wash. After spending a couple of days or so with their relatives here, the company returned home on Sunday.

The birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Reid Buseick at their home in John Day on November 26, was the announcement received by Heppner friends this week-end. The little miss has been named Barbara Juanita. Mrs. Buseick is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger of Pine City.

Chas. Hemrich was here on Monday and Tuesday, coming up from his home at Beaverton to get his truck and some household goods stored here. Mr. Hemrich and family returned the fore part of November from Newton, Ills., where they went last fall for a visit with the home folks.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have a Christmas bazaar on Saturday afternoon, December 15th, in the parlors of the church. Many pretty Christmas gifts, and cooked food for sale. All are cordially invited to attend. 38-9.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pearson spent a few hours at Heppner on Friday from their home on Butter creek. Mrs. Pearson, who has been suffering from a felon on her finger, came to the city to have that member looked after by a physician.

Coming over from La Grande on Thursday evening, Walter Ingerson met with an accident to his car. His lights going out, he ran into a culvert and was badly damaged, causing him considerable delay in getting to Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hayes, who spent the past week as guests at the home of Mrs. Hayes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford, returned to their home at Joseph on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmateer were Morgan people in this city for a short time on Saturday. Mr. Palmateer reports that his fall sown grain is coming along well.

Jack McCullough came up from Portland on Tuesday and expects to spend a week here on business matters. He reports fair weather conditions at Portland, but was afraid to attempt to make the drive by car to Heppner, owing to the slippery condition of the pavement beyond The Dalles—there had been too many accidents on the highway just previous to his leaving the city.

Pete Laird departed Sunday for Portland where he will go to the veterans' hospital for a physical examination. Mr. Laird, a World War veteran, has been in Heppner for the past two years and while here made many friends who wish him well. He was not sure that he would return to Heppner.

Dr. Clarke, of the Clarke Optical Co., rooms 202 and 203, Merchants Trust Bldg., 6th and Washington Sts., Portland, Ore., EYE SIGHT SPECIALISTS, will be in Heppner all day and evening, Sunday, Dec. 9th, at the Hotel Heppner. SEE HIM ABOUT YOUR EYES. 27-8.

Mrs. Zena Westfall, head nurse at Morrow General hospital, had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilke and daughter and Chas. T. Smith of Athena. Mrs. Smith, mother of Mrs. Westfall and her sister, Mrs. Larry Knox, were also visitors during the week, remaining over for Thanksgiving.

Miss Louise Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson, came over from Ellensburg for the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Thomson is a student at the state normal at Ellensburg and returned the first of the week to resume her studies.

Miss Georgia Driskell, niece of Mrs. Glen Hayes, was a visitor over the Thanksgiving holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes. She returned to her home in Portland on Sunday night.

Stephen Thomson was home for a Thanksgiving visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson. Stephen is a freshman at O. A. C. at Corvallis this year.

O. E. Johnson and Herman Neilson, of Hardman, were Heppner visitors Tuesday evening, helping to dispose of the clams at the K. of P. feed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cohn went to Portland for Thanksgiving with Mr. Cohn's mother, and they have been spending the week in the city.

Dr. Clarke, EYE SIGHT SPECIALIST, in Heppner, Saturday, Dec. 9th at Hotel Heppner. 27-8.

HARDMAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Lotus Robison and son Richard visited relatives in Condon during the past week.

Mrs. Mack, extension clothing specialist of O. A. C. will put on a series of meetings in Hardman, the first to be held on December 6 and the second December 10.

She will be prepared to give assistance to any ladies who have problems in sewing. They are asked to bring materials they wish help with in cutting or making over. Be sure to bring pins, needles, thread, thimble, tape line, scissors, small piece of muslin and two colors of embroidery floss. Bring lunch as the meeting will be from 10 until 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Adams and children, Clara Bell and Betty Jane motored to Portland last week for a visit with relatives. James Murtha brought two splendid seventy-five foot specimens of the forest through town this week with which he will build a bridge. C. H. Hastings is moving his family to the Holley Leathers place.

The Thanksgiving entertainment given at the school on Friday was well attended and enjoyed by all. Children were admitted free and a small charge of 15 cents was made for adults. That the ice cream, cake and coffee was enjoyed was evident by the way it disappeared. The $18.75 which was made will be used for needed supplies for Sunday school and as a starter for the Sewing Club work which the girls hope to accomplish.

G. A. Farrens and family are in town for the remainder of the winter months.

Lowell Ashbaugh, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Ashbaugh, had to visit the dentist on Thursday to get four teeth extracted.

The pupils in Mrs. Mahrt's room are busy setting up a model store to use in primary arithmetic work. The dance on Saturday was well attended. A number of out of town people were present.

Bert and Viola also entertained the Hardman people on Friday night with a vaudeville.

Dallis McDaniel spent Thanksgiving with the home folks at Lone Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Booher spent Sunday with Mrs. Booher's mother, Mrs. Corda Saling.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert McDonald, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Saling were guests at the Roy Robinson home in Lone Rock on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson and family spent Sunday with Will Smith in Lexington.
